Headship Game:

The Headship Game Brian Fidler, Tessa Atton, 2004 Being an effective headteacher requires a combination of leadership skills What does an aspiring head need to know to win the headship game Tessa Atton and Brian Fidler focus on particular pressure points and key issues that can be particularly problematic and suggest ways of dealing with them Comparisons are made between headships and chief executive roles of other organisations and extensive examples are included from current headteachers to illustrate aspects of the job which they find most challenging The authors also examine the career of headship from application to retirement and emphasize the need to learn about leadership before becoming a head Using examples of current headship practice they suggest ways of developing good practice further Some of the issues covered in this practical guide include development of leadership thought achieving headship selecting and supporting headteachers understanding the demands of contemporary headship after headship The Headship Game will be a valuable resource for current and aspiring headteachers deputy heads and those on NPQH courses

Understanding School Leadership Peter Earley, Dick Weindling, 2004-10-18 Written in a clear and readable style the book contains an extensive exploration of leadership models and management strategies and is based on the latest research The Headship of Christ, and The Rights of the Christian People Hugh Miller, 1872

Works: The headship of Christ Hugh Miller, 1865 The Headship of Christ, and the Rights of the Christian People Hugh Miller, Peter Bayne, 2022-03-31 Reprint of the original first published in 1865 A collection of essays historical and descriptive sketches and personal portraits International Handbook on the Preparation and Development of School Leaders Jacky Lumby, Gary Crow, Petros Pashiardis, 2009-05-07 Sponsored by the University Council of Educational Administration UCEA the British Educational Leadership Management and Administration Society BELMAS and the Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration and Management CCEAM this is the first book to provide a comprehensive and comparative review of what is known about the preparation and development of primary and secondary school leaders across the globe It describes current issues and debates and offers an assessment of where the field of leadership development is headed Key features include the following Global Focus this book provides the first comprehensive look at leadership preparation and development across the globe The chapter authors are distinguished scholars drawn from the US UK Europe Asia Canada Australia New Zealand and Africa Topical Geographical Focus provides researchers and policymakers with critical descriptions and assessments of both topical and geographical areas International Expertise chapter contributors are drawn from a variety of theoretical perspectives and represent all major continents

Learning in and Out of School John E. C. MacBeath, 2012 In this book John MacBeath brings together eight of his most influential writings including chapters from his best selling books articles from leading journals and excerpts from his contributions to the press Developing School Leaders Mark Brundrett, Megan Crawford, 2012-08-06 Many countries face a crisis in recruitment to the most senior positions in schools at a time when arguments rage about the best way to develop our school leaders Focusing on leadership development in ten diverse cultural contexts this book brings together some of the most senior commentators in the field of educational leadership development to provide a global perspective on leadership development programmes and practices The rise of leadership development programmes has presented opportunities for some and challenges for others These challenges are both practical and conceptual and relate to a series of questions that are unpacked in the book including What is the appropriate balance between the academic and the practical in leadership programmes Should provision be located in higher education institutions in other government sponsored organizations or commissioned from the private sector Are models of leadership studies derived from the business and industry relevant to schools How can research into impact inform leadership development policy and strategy Should programmes be integrated into higher degree provision or should new and innovative forms of accreditation be developed This book should be fascinating reading for all those engaged in educational research and teaching and working in educational leadership

Managing Finance and External Relations in South African Schools Lesley Anderson,Jacky Lumby,2005 Aims to consider the concepts and principles of the important areas of educational leadership signalled by Nelson Mandela This text uses South African case examples and activities to encourage reflection and personal development It is intended for those who lead and manage in schools or support them in a professional role

School and System Leadership Sue Robinson,2012-03-08 School leadership is undergoing significant change as headteachers respond to new opportunities and challenges offered to or imposed on them as a result of government policy There have been increasing calls for transformational change to redesign the school system to provide a suitable workforce for the knowledge economy and to manage the anticipated shortage of future school leaders Sue Robinson combines her professional experience as a practising primary headteacher and National Leader of Education with recent research into the impact of government policy on the roles of primary heads to offer an analysis of the shifting nature of school leadership Headteachers have taken advantage of roles available including consultancy leadership of academies and federations and children s centres Including interview material with 27 outstanding primary headteachers this is the first book combining research and practitioner insight to show how heads have managed the educational agenda how they have built capacity in school to sustain their new internal and external roles their motivations insights and experiences the implications for government educational policy and leadership development

The World of Science Education ,2009-01-01 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on Australasia a region loosely recognized as that which includes Australia and New Zealand plus nearby Pacific nations such as Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Fiji Tonga Vanuatu and the Samoan islands science education and the scholarship that most closely supports this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Australasian rather than international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Effective Educational Leadership Nigel Bennett, Megan Crawford, Marion Cartwright, 2008-03-25 Keith Grint's persuasive essay on the art of leadership in Effective Educational Leadership is uncannily accurate Tim Brighouse Times Educational Supplement its unique contribution is the exploration of links between leadership discourses and the themes that have emerged from the school effectiveness movements since the 1980s Riley and MacBeath provide one of the most valuable contributions to the volume by arguing that there are no generic recipes for educational leadership but ingredients which need to be carefully selected with a knowledge of specific contexts and needs I would use this book with graduate students and practitioners seeking to develop a perspective about contemporary educational leadership Its greatest contribution is its exploration of the links between effective leadership and effective education The book also provides optimism in that many of the authors have not capitulated to the reductionist visions of the past two decades There is still hope that educational theorists and practitioners view the life world as the true source of educational inspiration Journal of Educational Administration Leadership is the theme of this decade This series provides an enormously valuable overview of all the critical issues involved in designing leadership as the main strategy for educational reform A great and timely collection Michael Fullan Dean OISE University of Toronto This book makes an excellent contribution to the current debate on Educational Leadership It blends theory with practice and as such provides an important resource for many aspects of leadership development programmes at a variety of levels Its ability to draw upon international perspectives along with examples beyond conventional educational parameters enhances its quality The book contains a well documented account of how leadership has been studied which will appeal both to the academic reader and to the professional provider of CPD in leadership offering a wealth of information that can be practically adopted and adapted for a range of courses Stephen Merrill Journal of Inservice Education Educational management and administration studies focus on leadership as a key determinant of effective educational institutions and currently much leadership preparation is characterized by a rational skills focused approach Placing current thinking in leadership studies in its organizational and historical context this book explores its implications for leadership preparation leadership theory in action and examines some of the dilemmas and tensions facing educational leaders in practice It draws on literature and research from both the private and public sectors It is deliberately international in its content and focus and examines a range of practice both within and outside education Each chapter has a short introduction by the editors setting it in context This book is for providers and students in higher educational institutions for postgraduate level courses in educational management and for leadership development provision for Headteachers induction programmes NPQH and LPSH It is also suitable for short courses and for practitioners occupying or aspiring to leadership roles in schools colleges and other educational organizations Headteachers and Leadership in Education Steve Rayner, Peter Ribbins, 1999-04-15 This text examines the role of leaders and leadership in special education It contains a mixture of interview material and academic reflection and includes a commentary on the current debate of the late 1990s surrounding special education Does Christianity Teach Male Headship? David Blankenhorn, Don S. Browning, Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen, 2004 The question of male headship has remained a vexing and often divisive issue in contemporary Christian thought This insightful volume brings together both sides of the debate proponents of the concept of an equal regard marriage as well as dissenting voices who advocate male leadership within the family and often consequently within the church With contributions from Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen Carolyn Osiek W Robert Godfrey Don Browning and Mary Gallagher the essays provide thoughtful commentary and critique substantively engaging other opinions and contrasting views in a charitable manner The Urban Primary School Meg Maguire, Tim Wooldridge, Simon Pratt-Adams, 2006-05-16 This book offers an in depth understanding of the unique challenges and contributions of urban primary schools The authors set urban education in the wider social context of structural disadvantage poverty oppression and exclusion and reassert some critical urban educational concerns Recognising that practice needs to be informed by theory they provide a strong theoretical framework alongside contemporary ethnographic data Drawing on their extensive experience in urban primary schools as well as numerous case studies the authors present a fresh and stimulating view of urban primary schools which will inspire education professionals and academics alike The Urban Primary School is essential reading for teachers and trainee teachers in urban primary schools as well as for students of education policy makers parents and school governors Looking Into Primary Headship Geoff Southworth, 2002-11-01 This is both a study of leadership and a research methods text It offers an analytical description of a primary headteacher at work over the course of one school year Using a mix of participant observation and interviews the book provides a portrait of this head's approach to his work his background beliefs the school as a context what he did how he dealt with change and development power and the personal dimension of headship The portrait is matched to the contemporary literature and an hypothesis is formulated about primary headship and is then used to critique existing ideas about school leadership The book also suggests ways of developing heads and school teachers Living Headship Harry Tomlinson, Helen M Gunter, Pauline Smith, 1999-08-10 The book has a wide appeal to existing heads aspiring heads lecturers and writers about headship The contributors to this book have lifted the curtain on the realities of headships and in the process have added to our understanding of what school leadership is all about these days Managing Schools Today Practitioners and trainers understand how vitally important school leadership is to the practice of headship Living Headship presents the experiences of successful heads working in primary and secondary schools We hear in their accounts the authentic voices of heads determined to ensure that their leadership enhances the performance of their schools Some have been in post for many years and have been able to implement and sustain and reconsider their vision Others have moved into schools with difficulties and brought them out of special measures All demonstrate a profound commitment to the education of children and a determination to find ways to take their schools forward Many of the chapters are underpinned by research and all are based on a rigorous consideration of particular issues To set these analyses in context the editors present an essential in depth history of the conceptualization of headship The deep commitment to learning and the challenge presented here make this book essential reading for practitioners trainers and all concerned about the future of education

Extreme Headship Phil McNulty, 2005 Extreme Headship describes an outstanding example of school improvement Overcoming daily intrusions nightly break ins and racially divided warring gangs on the streets to move from the brink of closure to over subscription

The Headship Game Tessa Atton, Brian Fidler, 2003-12-16 This practical guide uses case studies helpful advice and personal accounts from working headteachers to suggest useful ways of dealing with particular pressure points and examine the career of headship from application to retirement

Black and White Bible, Black and Blue Wife Ruth A. Tucker, 2016-03-01 Ruth Tucker recounts a harrowing story of abuse at the hands of her husband a well educated charming preacher no less in hope that her story would help other women caught in a cycle of domestic violence and offer a balanced biblical approach to counter such abuse for pastors and counselors Weaving together her shocking story stories of other women and powerful stories of husbands who truly have demonstrated Christ's love to their wives with reflection on biblical theological historical and contemporary issues surrounding domestic violence she makes a compelling case for mutuality in marriage and helps women and men become more aware of potential dangers in a doctrine of male headship
