Healing Church The:

The healing Church, 1965 The Healing Church William Joseph Teil Kimber, 1962 The healing church, 1965

Afro-Christianity at the Grassroots G.C. Oosthuizen, M.C. Kitshoff, S.W.D. Dube, 2023-12-28 The spontaneous and rapid growth of indigenous African Christianity especially in South Africa has undermined the appropriateness of the term mainline for the traditional denominational churches in the area Some of these churches lost more than twenty five percent of their membership in the period 1980 1990 while membership of the indigenous churches increased by a similar percentage in the same period The contributions to this volume are based on grassroots research and each one treats some significant aspect within the life and work of this vast self motivating movement a movement largely ignored for over a century by western oriented Christianity The work of these researchers clearly indicates how it is that African Indigenous Churches with their holistic approach to religion a feature of traditional African religion serve as such a dynamic vehicle in effectively addressing the needs of their flocks A further focus of the essays is on issues faced by these churches within their own church context

Borders and Healers Tracy J. Luedke, Harry G. West, 2006-02-02 This important book contributes to understandings of the ways in which healing practices in southeast Africa mediate divides between the wealthy and the impoverished the traditional and the modern the local and the global The Globalization of Christianity Gordon L. Heath, Steven M.

Studebaker, 2015-01-20 While Christianity appears to be in decline in the West it is growing robustly in the global South What does this mean for the Christianity that was once considered to be the religion of the West The new contexts and trajectories require innovative responses and relevant theological reflection in the church This volume addresses these changes through identifying and analyzing global shifts highlighting practical innovations in the church that attempt to deal with new trajectories and proposing theological positions intended to help face the issues and challenges of the twenty first century Contributors to this volume include Philip Jenkins The Next Christendom The New Faces of Christianity God s

Continent Steven M Studebaker Gordon L Heath Bradley K Broadhead Christof Sauer Lee Beach Michael P Knowles Peter Althouse Michael Wilkinson John H Issak David K Taurus and Seongho Kang African Reformation Allan Anderson, 2001 This study provides an overview of the numerous African initiated churches that came into being during the 20th century in the various different parts of Sub Saharan Africa Written by an acknowledged expert on Christianity in Africa it also examines the reasons for the emergence of these religious centres that have resulted from the interaction between

Christianity and African pre Christian religions The Christian Science Journal, 1929 God's Perfect Child Caroline Fraser, 2024-06-04 From the Pulitzer Prize winning author the most powerful and persuasive attack on Christian Science to have been written in this century Los Angeles Times Book Review Millions of Americans from Lady Astor to Ginger Rogers to Watergate conspirator H R Haldeman have been touched by the Church of Christ Scientist Founded by Mary Baker Eddy in 1879 Christian Science was based on a belief that intense contemplation of the perfection of God can heal all ills an extreme expression of the American faith in self reliance In this unflinching investigation Caroline Fraser herself raised in a Scientist household shows how the Church transformed itself from a small eccentric sect into a politically powerful and socially respectable religion and explores the human cost of Christian Science s remarkable rise Fraser examines the strange life and psychology of Mary Baker Eddy She takes us into the closed world of Eddy s followers who refuse to acknowledge the existence of illness and death and reject modern medicine even at the cost of their children s lives She reveals just how Christian Science managed to gain extraordinary legal and Congressional sanction for its dubious practices and tracks its enormous influence on new age beliefs and other modern healing cults A passionate expos of zealotry God s Perfect Child tells one of the most dramatic and little known stories in American religious history A work of impassioned rationality important and profoundly disturbing Susan Jacoby Newsday New Startling Fraser has an eye and ear for the kind of detail that can help readers make up their own minds about an always controversial American religious expression Martin Marty The Boston Globe Splendid The New York Times

The Zionist Churches in Malawi Strohbehn, Ulf, 2016-05-11 This book presents an African Christian movement full of vitality and creativity The reader will meet believers who drink milk so that they may dream about angels reports about funerals where the mourners dance with the coffin on their shoulders and church members who are ritually not allowed to fertilize their fields or wear neck ties The author s unique insight into Malawi s Christian community addresses important issues in society Why have Spirit Churches including Pentecostalism been so successful in Malawi Why do some religious groups still refuse medical help up to the point that children die of cholera How did the independent churches deal with the colonial trauma In this masterful portrait Strohbehn takes the reader from industrial mine compounds to rural colonies where churches have set up their own spiritual and political rule He carefully dissects the fine lines between traditional notions and Christianity s influence We find a spiritual portrait of the Ngoni people a fascinating cultural analysis of dancing and an encounter with a unique style of preaching

Religion as a Social Determinant of Public Health Ellen L. Idler, 2014 Religion as a Social Determinant of Public Health explores the complex multifaceted role of faith traditions in public health throughout history today and in the future The volume brings together leading scholars in the social sciences public health and religion to address the important yet often neglected role of religious institutions in health and development efforts around the globe

Rethinking Transnationalism Ludger Pries, 2008-08-18 This book presents theoretical contributions to the transnationalism approach and offers empirical studies in the field of the transnationalization of organizations

The Man of Heaven and the Beautiful Ones of God Elizabeth Gunner, 2021-11-08 The role of Africans in the growth and process of Christianity in South Africa in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century In particular the book provides an insight into the role of writing and literacy in the church founded by the South African prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1910 The book provides a substantial contextualising introduction which includes discussion of the church's history and its position in contemporary South Africa and weaves in discussion of the topics of literacy and modernity. The book then moves to the three documents presented in their language of composition: Zulu and in an English translation. The three books each from Shembe's Nazareth Baptist Church provide the reader with a fascinating insight into the growth and organisation of one of southern Africa's most influential African Churches and into the use and interpretation of the Bible by the church's founder Isaiah Shembe and by church members. Central to the writings is the complex presence of Shembe present both through his own words in the first book and in the second book through the memory of Meshack Hadebe, a member of the church in the 1920s and 1930s. The extracts in the third book provide a glimpse of the church's hymnal and the unique religious poetry of the hymns authored by Shembe.

A History of the Last Church of God and His Christ Makuni Gondwe, 2018-01-05 Some scholars classify the Last Church of God and His Christ under the ecclesiastical cultural bloc known as African Indigenous Churches (AICs). David Barrett has divided the world's Christians into seven major ecclesiastical blocs. However, there are many large churches and denominations which do not define themselves under any of these three terms and often reject all three. As far back as 1549 in Japan and 1741 in the USA, new types of Christianity have emerged that do not fit readily into any of these preceding six major blocs. These consist of denominations, churches, and movements that have been initiated, founded, and spread by black, Non-White, or non-European peoples without European assistance, mainly in the Global South but also among Black and Non-White minorities in the Western World. The African Indigenous Churches fall under this category. The aim of the book is to examine the history of the Last Church of God and His Christ International in Malawi from its beginning in 1916 through the years and to portray a picture of its current existence in its various branches. What developments and changes have taken place over the years? What has been the relationship of the church to African culture? How has the church grown or expanded? Has the church been able to maintain its unity? And what has been the relationship of the church with other churches?

Faith-Based Health Justice Ville Päivänsalo, Ayesha Ahmad, George Zachariah, Mari Stenlund, 2021-02-16 In Faith Based Health Justice, a stellar assembly of scholars mines critical insights into the promotion of health justice across Christian and Islamic faith traditions and beyond. Contributors to the volume consider what health justice might mean today if developed in accordance with faith traditions whose commandment to care for the poor, ill, and marginalized lies at the core of their theology. And what kind of transformation of both faith traditions and public policies would be needed in the face of the health justice challenges in our turbulent time? Contributors to the volume come from a wide range of backgrounds, and the result will be of interest to scholars and students in social ethics, development studies, global theology, interreligious studies, and global health, as well as experts, practitioners, and policy makers in health and development work.

The Transformation of African Christianity Sunday Jide Komolafe, 2013-02-14 The explosion of the church in Nigeria is phenomenal, with a forward momentum that is as remarkable as the missionary optimism of the first-century Church. The history reveals a tightly woven narrative of the process of beginnings growth and change African Charismatics Johnson Asamoah-Gyadu, 2004-10-01 This volume examines Pentecostal charismatic renewal in an African context Ghanaian Pentecostalism in its modern charismatic form has become the most visible expression of renewal within indigenous Christianity The book first articulates the contribution of the older African initiated churches AICs to local Christianity arguing that in spite of a present decline the AICs have left an enduring theological imprint on indigenous Christian expression Furthermore it accounts for the rise of the new independent churches the charismatic ministries These have been proliferating across the West Africa sub region since the late 1970s In addition to this the book explores how the emphases of the new Ghanaian charismatics internationalism transformation prosperity healing and deliverance provide useful insights into the nature of modern African Pentecostal spirituality The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world's Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide
