Fyodor Dostoevsky's first novel Netochka Nezvanova written in 1849 remains the least studied and understood of the writer's long fiction but it was a seedbed for many topics and themes that became hallmarks of his major works Specifically Netochka Nezvanova was the first in Dostoevsky's corpus to focus on the psychology of children and the first to feature a woman in a leading and narrative role It was also the first work in Russian literature to deal with problems of the family In Heroine Abuse Thomas Marullo contends that Netochka Nezvanova also provides a striking example of what psychologists today call codependency the ways often deviant and destructive in which individuals bond with people places and things as well as with images and ideas to cope with the vicissitudes of life Marullo shows how at age twenty eight Dostoevsky intuited and illustrated the workings of relationship addiction almost a century and a half before it became the scholarly focus of practitioners of mental health The moral monsters infernal women children adults and adult children who populate Netochka Nezvanova seek codependence in people places and things and in images ideas and ideals to satiate cravings for love dominance and control as well as to indulge in narcissism sexual perversion and other aberrant or alternative behaviors Indeed in no other work would Dostoevsky examine such phenomena as pedophilia and lesbianism with such abandon Racing from tie to tie bond to bond and caught in a debilitating loop that they claim to detest but sadomasochistically enjoy the characters in Netochka Nezvanova wreak havoc on themselves and the world They do so moreover with impunity their addictions moving them from momentary exultation as self styled extraordinary men and women through prolonged darkness and despair and once again to old and new addictions for physical and emotional release Readers of Heroine Abuse will see Netochka Nezvanova as a timeless model in depicting codependency in the world of the twenty first century as it did in St Petersburg in 1849 Marullo's original work will appeal to scholars and students of Russian and comparative fiction to doctors psychologists and therapists to laymen and women interested in relationship addiction and finally to codependents and relationship addicts of all types Indigo Celebration Lee Carroll,Jan Tober,2001-10-01

Ars Vitae Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn,2020-10-15 Despite the flood of self help guides and our current therapeutic culture feelings of alienation and spiritual longing continue to grip modern society In this book Elisabeth Lasch Quinn offers a fresh solution a return to classic philosophy and the cultivation of an inner life The ancient Roman philosopher Cicero wrote that philosophy is ars vitae the art of living Today signs of stress and duress point to a full fledged crisis for individuals and communities while current modes of making sense of our lives prove inadequate Yet in this time of alienation and spiritual longing we can glimpse signs of a renewed interest in ancient approaches to the art of living In this ambitious and timely book Elisabeth Lasch Quinn engages both general readers and scholars on the topic of well being She examines the reappearance of ancient philosophical thought in contemporary American culture probing whether new stirrings of Gnosticism Stoicism Epicureanism Cynicism and Platonism present a true alternative to our current therapeutic culture of self help and consumerism which elevates the self s needs and desires yet fails to deliver on its promises of happiness and healing Do the ancient philosophies represent a counter tradition to today s culture auguring a new cultural vibrancy or do they merely solidify a modern way of life that has little use for inwardness the cultivation of an inner life stemming from those older traditions Tracing the contours of this cultural resurgence and exploring a range of sources from scholarship to self help manuals films and other artifacts of popular culture this book sees the different schools as organically interrelated and asks whether taken together they can point us in important new directions Ars Vitae sounds a clarion call to take back
