

The Healing of Memories

A person stands in silhouette on a dark, rocky outcrop, looking out over a vast body of water. In the middle of the water, a large, light-colored rock is shaped like a heart. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, with a bright light source, likely the sun, breaking through near the horizon, creating a strong glow and lens flare effect. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Narry F. Santos,Xenia Ling-Yee Chan,2022-07-15 Crisis is an invitation to both prophetic evaluation and new imagination In this volume Canadian missiologists and practitioners consider the past and how the past might enable the church to move forward in Christian mission in the academy agency assembly and the agora How can the Canadian church welcome different voices from the periphery What must be done to empower the next generation How can we respond in light of the injustices done to our Indigenous brothers and sisters Where does reconciliation fit into the picture How might we navigate between secularization and fundamentalisms How ought we move together in mission and in unity across denominational difference How can we equip laypeople to live their callings faithfully in the agora How can work in the marketplace be ministry And lastly how is the Spirit at work in our contexts in this day and age These questions among others onboard us into the ongoing conversation about the state of evangelical mission in Canada and each of these essays adeptly lead us into the beginnings of answers to these questions These essays address how the past informs our future and how we might answer the prophetic call with both hope and renewed vigor to participate in the mission of God

REVIVAL OF ADVAITA, YOGA AND PANTHEISM IN AMERICA Dr. George Joseph K PhD,2015-12-10 There are reasonable symptoms of the weakening of the church and Christian faith in the USA and thereby the silent death American democracy and American Empire The vacuum created in the American mind by the secular humanism anti supernatural liberal theology and godless philosophies have prepared the fertile ground for the silent take over of USA by Islam Hinduism Advaita and yoga New Age religion legitimizes almost anything in the name of religion There is an explosion of sorcery The absolutely unwise philosophies like all is one man is God etc become widely accepted among the people New age psychology rejects the supernatural and God of the Bible but accepts the paranormal miracles of devil When the people begin to love the lie and hate the truth the future is bleak A strong democratic America would guarantee a better world But what if the whole nation is hypnotized into paranormal and abnormal by secular spiritualities

Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis,2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences

Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized Understanding Spirituality and the Sacred in Social Work Practice Mary Jo McVeigh, Joel Hollier, Jioji Ravulo, 2025-03-31 Social work is constantly epistemically evolving and embracing diverse bodies of knowledge to inform its ontology and practice frameworks Over the years the impact of feminist post colonial and queer theory for example has broadened the social work lens and invited a welcome departure from dominant Westernised patriarchal and positivist paradigms However the separation of the spiritual realm from casework clinical community and group work traditions of social work remained steadfast The last decade or so has seen forages into the issues of social work and spirituality This examination into spirituality and social work has shown that for many service users spiritual practices be they religious or non religious are important in their lives and their way out of difficulties Concurrently relationships between socio political movements and global religions have grown increasingly complex To create a truly holistic approach to the needs of service users it is important that social work policy and practice give voice to these complexities and understand the place of spirituality within service delivery This book critically reflects upon and discusses the intersecting role of spirituality in the lives of people who access social work services By gathering contributions from people with lived experience practitioners and academics this book will explore a comprehensive range of issues opening the area of spirituality to current critical socio political and cultural thought It will be of interest to all social work scholars students and practitioners

Horrific Traumata William M Clements, Norma J R Sinclair, 2016-01-20 Horrific Traumata shares the stories of persons whose meaning hope and faith were ripped from them by others or traumatic events and who live with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder Since the Vietnam War therapists have come to understand victims of severe emotional trauma with new understanding and with better ability have come to learn how to heal the awful effects of their traumas Now the ranks of traumatized Vietnam veterans are joined by others who have also experienced horrific traumata and need help to rebuild their lives from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD victims and survivors of incest and rape hostage situations and other events outside the range of ordinary human suffering Duncan Sinclair provides direct insight into the clinical and psychological aspects of PTSD He presents a clear and workable understanding of the nature of PTSD which gives clergy and other involved persons direct insight into the causes of many behaviors Horrific Traumata focuses on the church's readiness and obligation to incorporate traumatized victims into the center of grace and healing Clergy of all specialities now have a means of seeing behind the masks of hurt and isolation to the long standing and disabling trauma Sinclair shows how to promote the healing process through a range of parish activities as well as in clinical settings Guidelines for promoting healing include the key concepts of how to listen compassionately and how to create safe places in which victims may heal during the rebuilding of hope and faith Scriptures used throughout develop a hopefulness that must be maintained for healing Based on the quintessential understanding that current life stressors open past wounds in ways that leave them open Sinclair guides professionals and clergy in treating the whole traumatized person Clergy of all specialities pastors chaplains democracy and peacebuilding in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala ,2025-08-01 The Democratic Republic of Congo DRC presents a striking paradox vast natural and mineral wealth coexist with persistent poverty weak infrastructure and fragile institutions Kiyala s four part scholarly book explores these tensions aiming to identify practical and effective strategies to address the country s complex challenges To meaningfully confront the DRC s enduring crises Kiyala argues that public administration must engage with key drivers of insecurity and instability These include 1 Employing the Dodd Frank Act s Section 1502 on conflict minerals particularly the impact of the de facto embargo on the 3Ts tin tungsten and tantalum 2 The question of Congolese citizenship for the Banyamulenge Tutsi communities of the DRC and the need for legislative clarity 3 Regional and international collaboration to address ongoing threats to peace such as the remnants of the FDLR and other armed groups 4 The complex integration of the M23 movement and other armed factions into the national army through effective screening vetting and identification processes 5 The revitalisation of transitional justice reconciliation and national healing efforts Without addressing these core issues with resolve and coherent strategies efforts toward lasting peace and sustainable development will remain elusive The book also introduces the peacebuilding evolution systems theory PBEST a novel framework that integrates peacebuilding theory with insights from neuroscience The PBEST emphasises the progressive development of peace from individual disposition to collective global action for domestic and international security Rich in empirical analysis this scholarly work offers significant insights not only for scholars and researchers but also for practitioners and policymakers in African studies political science public administration and conflict resolution
