Storied Landscapes Frances Swyripa,2010 Storied Landscapes is a beautifully written sweeping examination of the evolving identity of major ethno religious immigrant groups in the Canadian West including Ukrainians Mennonites Icelanders Doukhobors Germans Poles Romanians Jews Finns Swedes Norwegians and Danes Miracles Patrick J. Hayes,2016-01-11 Miracles give hope to the hopeless and exemplify the intersection of the divine and the mundane They have shaped world history and continue to influence us through their presence in films television novels and popular culture This encyclopedia provides a unique resource on the philosophical historical religious and cross cultural conceptions of miracles that cut across denominational lines Multidisciplinary in approach this informative yet entertaining encyclopedia covers major aspects of miraculous phenomena through more than 150 alphabetically arranged entries that document how humanity s belief in religious miracles over multiple places periods and faiths have affected society even changed the course of history Written for high school students and general readers the coverage enables readers to learn about different civilizations and cultures the controversies surrounding different beliefs and the often uncomfortable engagement of religion with science This single volume book provides a one stop ready reference that addresses a broad variety of subject matter on miraculous phenomena and guides further investigations into the subject Helpful illustrations and lucid explanations of the ancillary concepts associated with miraculous phenomena make learning about this topic more engaging Readers will be able to link the doctrinal concepts such as grace or prayer with the descriptions of miraculous events especially those associated with saints or holy objects The examination of the controversial aspects of different belief systems along with the book s balanced coverage of the interpretation of miracles will encourage students to weigh different explanations thus fostering the development of their critical thinking skills

Ways of Knowing Jean-Guy Goulet,1998-01-01 This innovative study reveals the creative world of a Native community Once seminomadic hunters and gatherers who traveled by horse wagon canoe and dog sled the Dene Tha of northern Canada today live in government built homes in the settlement of Chateh Their lives are a distinct blend of old and new in which traditional forms of social control healing and praying entwine with services supplied by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police a nursing station and a Roman Catholic church Many older cultural beliefs and practices remain ghosts linger reincarnating and sometimes causing deaths past and future are interpreted through the Prophet Dance animal helpers become lifelong companions and sources of power and personal visions and experiences are considered the roots of true knowledge Why and how are such striking beliefs and practices still vital to the Dene Tha Drawing on extensive fieldwork at Chateh anthropologist Jean Guy Goulet delineates the interconnections between the strands of meaning and experience with which the Dene Tha constitute and creatively engage their world Goulet s insights into the Dene Thas ways of knowing were gained through directly experiencing their lifeway rather than through formal instruction This experiential perspective makes his study especially illuminating providing an intimate glimpse of a remarkable and enduring Native community

The Great Canadian Outbreaks Nevio Cimolai, 2018-03-12 What do a rowing coach lawyer First Nation s aboriginal hockey manager business woman and medical resident have in common The Great Canadian Outbreaks How many infectious outbreaks will you experience in a lifetime How do Canadians behave during an outbreak and how do they respond thereafter The Great Canadian Outbreaks presents ten short stories each depicting a unique infectious outbreak from across Canada in various historic times These fictional vignettes capture the essence of factual events as diverse as the social fabric of our country Each story is followed by a lay description of the pertinent science and epidemiology in these outbreak scenarios We live in a microbial world where there is ample opportunity for human infection If our flavour as a nation can be captured by great Canadian bacon or curling or wheat or beer or hockey what would we be without The Great Canadian Outbreaks

Upholding Indigenous Economic Relationships Shalene Wuttunee Jobin, 2023-02-01 What is the relationship between economic progress in the land now called Canada and the exploitation of Indigenous peoples And what gifts embedded within Indigenous world views speak to miyo pim tisiwin the good life and specifically to good economic relations Upholding Indigenous Economic Relationships draws on the knowledge systems of the nehiyawak Cree people to make two central arguments The first is that economic exploitation was the initial and most enduring relationship between newcomers and Indigenous peoples The second is that Indigenous economic relationships are constitutive connections to the land water and other human and nonhuman beings form us as individuals and as peoples This groundbreaking study employs previously overlooked Indigenous economic theories and relationships and provides contemporary examples of nehiyawak renewing these relationships in resurgent ways In the process Upholding Indigenous Economic Relationships offers tools that enable us to reimagine how we can aspire to the good life with all our relations
