Silenced Stories A Collections of PVPHS LGBT+

Students' Memoirs Ciro Fidaleo, 2016-11-28 When trying to create a year plan for Palos Verdes Peninsula High School's LGBT United Club their board turned to its members asking what they would like to get out of the club. Almost every club member asked to hear other students coming out stories or what a student has faced being LGBT. Since it would be difficult for students to share their story verbally in a group setting we came up with the idea to compile a book of stories that students anonymously submitted that tell their story. The only changes that were made to any of the following text are grammar corrections or the censoring of names and inappropriate language. This decision was made to keep the integrity of each student's story. Due to the graphic content of some of these stories reader discretion is advised. WARNING Stories include bullying parental abuse rape self harm sexual assault substance abuse and suicidal thoughts

The Last Hart Beating Nattie Neidhart, 2025-10-28 WWE Superstar Natalya Nattie Neidhart the longest serving female wrestler in WWE history invites readers inside her extraordinary journey from her upbringing in the legendary Hart family home through her more than two decades in wrestling. While most children grow up running around with their friends Nattie Neidhart was schooled in the Hart family Dungeon in the shadow of her grandfather Stu Hart father Jim The Anvil Neidhart and legendary uncles Bret and Owen Hart. With every body slam and piledriver Nattie fought her own way into pro wrestling the first and only woman in her family to do so to become a two time women's world champion and one of the most visible titled and world record holding Superstars in WWE. In this raw unwaveringly honest memoir Nattie opens up for the first time about her life as the legacy of the Hart family dynasty candidly sharing untold details on Her chaotic childhood in the boom and bust world of professional wrestling including her family's brush with homelessness Her father's battles with addiction and other effects of chronic traumatic encephalopathy leading to his eventual sudden death and how they shaped her. Her struggle to navigate the complex dynamics between the Hart family and WWE in the aftermath of the Montreal Screwjob Owen Hart's tragic death and her husband TJ Wilson's near fatal career ending in ring injury. Her front row seat to the rise of women's wrestling and the resilience it took to thrive as a female wrestler at a time when what you looked like on screen was more important than how talented you were between the ropes. From heart pounding glory to devastating loss The Last Hart Beating pulls no punches when it comes to the drama hilarity and outright mayhem of life inside the ring and out.

The Pragmatist Joseph P. Viteritti, 2017 The two main characters of Joseph P. Viteritti's The Pragmatist Bill de Blasio and New York City itself are used to tell the story of the rise fall and rebirth of progressivism in America's major urban center and in the process introduce us to the contributions and distractions of every mayor since La Guardia demonstrating that the road to progress was never a direct journey.

Buddha Is Hiding Aihwa Ong, 2003-09-04 Fleeing the murderous Pol Pot regime Cambodian refugees arrive in America as at once the victims and the heroes of America's misadventures in Southeast Asia and their encounters with American citizenship are contradictory as well. Service providers bureaucrats and employers exhort them to be self reliant individualistic and free even as the system and the culture constrain them within terms of ethnicity race and class Buddha Is Hiding tells the story of Cambodian Americans experiencing American citizenship from the bottom up Based on extensive fieldwork in Oakland and San Francisco the study puts a human face on how American institutions of health welfare law police church and industry affect minority citizens as they negotiate American culture and re interpret the American dream In her earlier book Flexible Citizenship anthropologist Aihwa Ong wrote of elite Asians shuttling across the Pacific This parallel study tells the very different story of the other Asians whose route takes them from refugee camps to California s inner city and high tech enclaves In Buddha Is Hiding we see these refugees becoming new citizen subjects through a dual process of being made and self making balancing religious salvation and entrepreneurial values as they endure and undermine absorb and deflect conflicting lessons about welfare work medicine gender parenting and mass culture Trying to hold on to the values of family and home culture Cambodian Americans nonetheless often feel that Buddha is hiding Tracing the entangled paths of poor and rich Asians in the American nation Ong raises new questions about the form and meaning of citizenship in an era of globalization

Women's Desistance in a Colonial Context Grace Low, 2025-02-18 This book adds to global knowledge of pathways out of crime desistance by exploring the desistance narratives of 15 women with histories of imprisonment in Aotearoa New Zealand 10 of whom identify as M ori New Zealand s Indigenous population By voicing these women s experiences the book adds to desistance research by moving beyond the mainstream Western nations which dominate desistance literature such as the United States and UK to explore how historical and structural influences including Aotearoa New Zealand s colonial history shape women s offending and desistance trajectories This book explores the women s journeys in and out of crime including the various socio structural constraints which could impede the women s desistance efforts especially for M ori women who are overrepresented in Aotearoa New Zealand s prison population This book explores the influence of the women s personal relationships with families of origin wh nau intimate partners friends associates and children and their institutional interactions i e their experiences of employment drug alcohol addiction treatment and other forms of rehabilitative support The book also takes a close look at the role of housing and the more subjective notion of home in the women s offending and desistance journeys It makes recommendations for policy and practice to support women leaving prison in Aotearoa New Zealand and internationally with an emphasis on the importance of wider community support This book makes an original contribution to desistance literature by bringing greater conceptual clarity to gendered aspects of the desistance process and how these manifest in a colonial setting It will appeal to students and scholars of criminology desistance gender studies recovery from addiction and to practitioners and policy makers in these fields

Ethnodramatherapy Stephen Snow, 2021-11-24 Ethnodramatherapy explores the integration of the performance ethnography method known as ethnodrama with the principles and practices of drama therapy to establish a sound theoretical formulation for ethnodramatherapy and considers its use as art as therapy as research and as a vehicle for social justice The book begins by defining ethnodramatherapy an original synthesis created by the author through deep study and practice of Mienczakowski s ethnodrama combined with 35 years of his own practice and research in drama therapy creative arts therapies and therapeutic theatre The book describes the origins of ethnodramatherapy along with its evolution and method It then delves into applications of the practice highlighted by five case studies with different audiences in different settings Subjects include adults with developmental disabilities female adolescents in youth protection caregivers for loved ones with mental illnesses and Chinese students exploring controversial issues of oppression in China Complex ethical issues are reviewed and suggestions are made on how to deal with some of the challenging ethical situations that are likely to arise in the ethnodramatherapy process What emerges is a powerful tool that harnesses theatrical art ethnographic research and the clinical techniques of drama therapy to create a potential for emancipatory experience for both performers and audiences This exciting and dynamic synthesis of drama therapy performance ethnography theatrical art and social activism will be of interest to the whole community of theatre practitioners and scholars who use theatre to effect individual and social change including the disciplines of applied theatre theatre education experimental theatre performance studies and of course drama therapy psychodrama and the other creative arts therapies

Anabolic Steroid Restriction Act of 1989 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Crime,1989 Theological Fragments Rubén Rosario Rodríguez,2023-05-23 The swelling ranks of religious nones those who do not identify with any particular religious tradition have demonstrated that traditional Christian apologetics set on delivering a universally accepted objectively verifiable system that proves the truth and superiority of Christian belief has failed Turned off by organized Christianity s hypocrisy and politics of intolerance millennials and Generation Z have rejected such domineering forms of reasoning aimed at winning converts through logical argument Not only is this misguided missional strategy argues Rub n Rosario Rodr guez but it s grounded in bad theology as well The propositional truth claims imply that if you accept the argument you must accept the Christian faith too Instead of this triumphalist understanding of Christian truth Rosario argues for a broken and contrite Christian theology that can help make sense of a fractured world Realizing that fragments of truth are often all we have he points out that the search for the truth of God and the self will most often be found while engaged in the struggle for justice Theological Fragments is not another set of strategies for how to win back millennials Rather it provides a foundational theological vision necessary to the work of inviting the nones to hear the gospel afresh
