Wolfelt, 2001-04-01 A compassionate resource for friends, parents, relatives, teachers, volunteers, and caregivers, this series offers suggestions to help the grieving cope with the loss of a loved one. Often people do not know what to say or what not to say to someone they know who is mourning; this series teaches that the most important thing a person can do is listen, have compassion, be there for support, and do something helpful. This volume addresses what to expect from grieving young people and how to provide safe outlets for children to express emotion. Included in each book are tested, sensitive ideas for carpe diem actions that people can take right this minute while still remaining supportive and honoring the mourner's loss. Fun Games and Physical Activities to Help Heal Children Who Hurt Beth Powell, 2018-02-21 Learn how physical activities and therapeutic play can help reshape the brains and bodies of children traumatized by abuse and neglect. Focusing on interactive games that promote positive attachment, the book explores how rhythm and movement are vital to healthy child development, with examples and fun and easy-to-play games. A Woman's Guide to Inner Child Healing Gloria Zhang, 2023-11-28 Rediscover your most authentic self before grief, societal conditioning, and complicated parents can heal your core wounds in order to redefine yourself.
