awakening I was born into a Christian household so I have always known about God and for many of my early years I thought that was enough I participated in the rituals common to my faith and I engaged in activities of daily living much like other humans I identified my life goals and I diligently implemented the strategies to achieve them I was taught that education and hard work were the tickets to happiness so that is the direction I traveled I became a wife and mother and both roles brought joy into my life in ways I could not have imagined At some point during my middle years though it became clear that something important was missing What started out as a faint feeling of emptiness grew into a keen awareness that the calling on my life included more than working long hours in one stressful job after another There was a loneliness deep inside that I could not explain By secular standards I should have been happy and content I was ashamed to admit my feelings of uneasiness to anyone because in accordance with worldly norms I was living a dream life So I kept quiet and went about my days as expected all the while I was hoping the disturbance in my spirit would subside But it did not Over time I became more and more uncomfortable with the lifestyle I had settled into I prayed for divine guidance and after much self examination and soul searching I got the clarity I needed I came to the realization that knowing about God and knowing God are not the same It was no longer enough for me to have a relationship with Him based on rituals I needed a more intimate friendship With this recognition I set out on a lifelong spiritual journey of growing whole
