Things to Know Before You Move to the U.S.

The Art of Happy Moving

01 First Stop: Primary Care

Step one is to visit a primary care physician.

He or she will refer you to a specialist when appropriate.

02 The ER is NOT always the best option.

Medical Emergency?
Call 911 or go to an Emergency Room.

For lesser emergencies, ambulatory care centers, sometimes called Urgent Care or Walk-in Clinics, are often faster and cheaper.

03 How to Find a Doctor

Ask a medical professional for a recommendation.

Ask a friend or realtor for a recommendation.

Call your insurance to see which doctors are in-network.

04 Paying for Care

Unlike other countries, most Americans receive healthcare insurance through an employer and not from the government.

Government programs like Medicaid and Medicare help low-income people and the elderly, respectively.
