The Skilled Killer J. R. Runnels, Alex Bryant barely twenty two but standing a towering 6'11" and weighing in at a solid 250 lbs of muscle felt the grit of the unforgiving surface grind against his skin Even the coarse fabric of his training uniform chafed a constant minor irritant adding to the overwhelming pressure On a good day this man could bench press 350 lbs a testament to the raw power coiled within his imposing frame This physical prowess however was merely the foundation upon which a far more lethal weapon was being forged The brutal initiation into the clandestine world of the CIA's black ops program was relentless He possessed a chilling almost clinical detachment during these encounters a strange perverse satisfaction in the intricate dance of death a twisted sense of accomplishment in transforming his body into a finely tuned instrument of destruction a killing machine of unparalleled effectiveness His mission The thought sent a cold shiver down his spine He had trained for this prepared for this yet the reality of it felt surreal a nightmarish distortion of the brutal training that had shaped him It was one thing to hone deadly skills in a controlled environment to practice the art of killing on inanimate targets It was another to apply those skills to a real life target a human being with a life a family a history He was hired to eliminate Sarah Stevens He was not prepared to make her daughter Amanda an orphan and she was not old enough to take care of herself Sarah Stevens was supposed to be a liability that the CIA did not need to deal with The name a precise and elegant arrangement of syllables echoed in Alex Bryant's mind a stark counterpoint to the brutal faceless anonymity he had cultivated for so long The agency had honed him into a weapon a ghost in the machine trained to eliminate targets with clinical precision leaving no trace but the faintest whisper of absence Sarah was a brilliant pharmaceutical executive a woman of unwavering conviction a devoted mother She lived in a comfortable home in a quiet suburban neighborhood the life he had once dreamt of She could unravel intricate webs of data identify hidden patterns and predict outcomes with an accuracy that was both terrifying and exhilarating She'd faced down skepticism ridicule and even outright sabotage her resolve unyielding Her courageous refusal to continue her research on The Devil's Breath the drug she herself had accidentally created a hallucinogenic compound of such terrifying potency that its mere existence sent shivers down the spines of even the most hardened government officials had branded her a traitor an enemy of the state The repercussions of her decision were far reaching and the shadows that now pursued her were far more dangerous than any she had encountered in her academic career Alex had a difficult decision ahead of him The choice clawed at him a visceral rip in his gut Follow orders and eliminate the target a cold calculated equation etched into his very being by years of brutal Agency training Or defy them protect the innocent Sarah her laugh a ghost in his memory her eyes the color of a storm wracked sea Amanda her smile a fragile bloom against the encroaching darkness His training screamed one course of action a chilling precise symphony of violence But his conscience a treacherous traitor howled a counterpoint a discordant wail of empathy and moral outrage He saw their lives unfurl in his mind's eye with agonizing clarity He decided to fight the system and save Sarah and her daughter no matter the cost They would fight not only the CIA but other organization that wish to silence her forever They traveled the world to find the truth the path to the truth would be deemed a long road They would suffer and their journey filled with perils but they would uncover the truth and they would find justice work and the role of Canadians in recruiting and transporting them has not been fully told until now In Veil of Secrecy Dan Black describes the perilous journey taken by the Chinese labourers from their remote villages in China across the North Pacific the vast country of Canada from Vancouver to Halifax and across the North Atlantic to the battlefields of Europe and then back again For political reasons and to prevent them from escaping the Chinese labourers were locked into cattle cars and forbidden to disembark during the journey The Canadian public too was kept in the dark about the trains But their experience is indelibly evident in graves across the country from Vancouver Island to Thunder Bay and Petawawa to Halifax One Canadian plays a central role in this story Captain Harry Livingstone a small town doctor from Listowel Ontario Livingstone joined the Canadian Army Medical Corps in 1917 at the age of 28 His first assignment was to go to northeast China to a recruitment depot where he examined poor young Chinese men to ensure they were fit for service He later joined them on their journey across the North Pacific to a quarantine station on Canada's West Coast Drawing on the diaries written by Livingstone and the letters of the Canadian missionaries who served as temporary officers with the corps in Europe Dan Black traces the experience of the Chinese Labour Corps and sheds new light on the mistreatment and racism they faced in Canada and in wartime Europe together ever since their father's retreat into his silent vigil in the library upstairs. Everyone blames Mr. Lockwell's malady on his magickal studies, but Ivy alone still believes both in magic and in its power to bring her father back. But there are others in the world who believe in magick as well. Over the years, Ivy has glimpsed them, the strangers in black topcoats and hats who appear at the door, strangers of whom their mother will never speak. Ivy once thought them secret benefactors, but now she's not so certain. After tragedy strikes, Ivy takes a job with the reclusive Mr. Quent in a desperate effort to preserve her family. It's only then that she discovers the fate she shares with a jaded young nobleman named Dashton Rafferdy, his ambitious friend Eldyn Garritt, and a secret society of highwaymen, revolutionaries, illusionists, and spies who populate the island nation of Altania. For there is far more to Altania than meets the eye, and more to magick than mere fashion. And in the act of saving her father, Ivy will determine whether the world faces a new dawn or an everlasting night.
