Farewell Dresden:

Farewell, Dresden Henri Coulonges, 1989 First published in France this harrowing tale of a 12 year old girl's nightmare journey home through the firebombed streets of Dresden is a testament to man's dignity in the face of the senseless cruelty of war

Trauma and Guilt Susanne Vees-Gulani, 2008-08-22 This book analyzes postwar literary works on large area bombings of German cities both in the context of trauma theory and questions of guilt and shame about Germany's Nazi past embedding the recent debate surrounding the air war of World War II and its influence on German culture in a broader historical societal and psychological context

In Pursuit of Religious Freedom Philip Stephan, 2008-04-07 In Pursuit of Religious Freedom is the story of Martin Stephan a religious leader whose life was filled with both personal and spiritual crises Born into a family whose fifteenth and sixteenth century ancestors twice fled their homes due to religious persecution Stephan was orphaned as a teenager and he too was forced to flee his homeland when the family was discovered to be underground Lutherans He eventually settled in Germany where he was educated and ordained and developed a successful ministry in Dresden Although his reputation for preaching and compassionate counseling increased Stephan began to be targeted by various groups other pastors parishioners and the state run church He was charged with improper teaching embezzlement inappropriate socializing and even sexual misconduct Eventually Stephan led the 1838 Saxon Emigration to Missouri After a difficult journey the seven hundred Lutherans he took with him found establishing their new home even harder Disputes over money authority and style peaked within six months until Stephan was exiled at gunpoint He settled in Illinois where he built up a new ministry and served until his death in 1846 His burial plaque calls him the first Lutheran in America

And there is always an after - Part 1 Sabine Kirchhof, 2024-08-29 I'll think of something So far I've always come up with something no matter what it was about I thought And there's always an after Sabine who grows up in the GDR doesn't really have a good start in life After a failed suicide attempt by her mother she is first placed in a children's home Some time later she is separated from her beloved brother forever and her biological father wants nothing to do with her But Sabine does not give up Whatever happens to her she tackles life with courage and makes the best of it following the motto When life gives you a lemon make lemonade out of it An utterly heart wrenching novel that you won't want to put down until you've read the very last line

David Rudkin: Sacred Disobedience David Ian Rabey, David I. Rabey, 2013-10-11 Dr Rabey's profound critical study of David Rudkin's drama constitutes an in depth evaluation of this unique dramatist re-assessed in the light of his bi-sexuality and Anglo Irish origins This key study includes insights from noted performers of Rudkin's work including Ian Hogg Peter McEnery Ian McDiarmid Gerard Murphy and Charlotte Cornwell It is a fully authorized study with exclusive reference to archival material which includes some frank and urgent interview contributions from the dramatist himself who is usually deemed reclusive It is enhanced by Dr Rabey's own experience of Wales Ireland and the English Black Country for his exposition of Rudkin's mythic sense of Celtic and Mercian
