Farm In The Family The Many Faces Of Ontario Agriculture Over The Centuries:

And on that Farm He Had a Wife Monda M. Halpern, 2001 Focusing on white Anglo Protestant farm women in southern and southwestern Ontario Monda Halpern argues that many Ontario farm women were indeed feminist and that this feminism was more progressive than their conservative image has suggested In And On That Farm He Had a Wife Halpern demonstrates that Ontario farm women adhered to social feminism a feminism that focused on values and experiences associated with women and that emphasized the differences between women and men promoting female specificity solidarity and separatism These principles were informed by farm women's overlapping roles as wives and unpaid farm labourers A Farm in the Family John Ladell, Monica Ladell, 1985-10 This lively look at farm history and settlement patterns in Ontario centres on over 30 farms in all parts of the province Half of these farms have been in the family since 1784 or earlier These family portraits show the remarkable breadth of farming in Ontario The Belgians in Ontario Joan Magee, 1987-01-10 The Belgians in Ontario chronicles more than 300 years of Belgian presence in Ontario beginning with Father Louis Hennepin the Recollet missionary who accompanied La Salle on his explorations This book examines the contributions of the Belgian community in a diverse range of activities including agriculture sports and the arts Magee offers a detailed analysis of reasons and methods of immigration including a study of the pioneering agricultural labourers who participated in the swallow migration Of special interest to students of social and ethnic studies is the extensive survey of Belgian Canadians reflecting their attitudes and experiences Lavishly illustrated with more than 50 rare photographs culled from private and public collections The Belgians in Ontario is a visually interesting look at the many contributions of a determined people

Scullion, 2005 Obligation and Opportunity Mary Elizabeth Beattie, 2000 In the years between Confederation and the Depression nearly 500 000 Maritimers left their homes to work in the United States or other parts of Canada Why they left and how their departure affected the region's economy have long been debated but until now a major component of that exodus has been largely ignored In Obligation and Opportunity Betsy Beattie addresses this oversight examining the lives of the tens of thousands of single Maritime women who left to work in Boston between 1870 and 1930 Carefully crafted from oral interviews diaries letters written recollections census data and other historical sources Obligation and Opportunity opens a window into the world of the women who moved from the Maritimes to New England for work Urged to stay through tales of danger and woe in the newspapers they still left by the thousands and in numbers larger than those for men Beattie examines the rural families they left the urban environment they entered in Boston and the different occupations they filled She sheds new light on the response of rural families to economic change and the effects of gender on choices for young women She demonstrates that first generation emigrants who left out of a need to find work and send money back home eased the way for second generation emigrants who left to seek opportunities in the big city

Obligation and Opportunity offers new insights not only for everyone interested in the history of the Maritimes and Boston but also for scholars and others interested in family history women s studies labour history and migration studies How Agriculture Made Canada Peter A. Russell,2012-10-01 Nineteenth century farm families needed land for the next generation Their quest shaped agricultural settlement across Canada This overview of rural history in Quebec Ontario and the Prairies provides a new perspective on the ways in which agriculture and the family farm were central to the country s expansion and essential to understanding social political and economic changes How Agriculture Made Canada shows how differences between the agricultural development of Quebec and that of Ontario had a decisive influence on the settlement of the Prairies Peter Russell demonstrates that farming families eventually ran out of land against the edges of the St Lawrence lowlands While Quebec based Habitants reached their region s limits earlier Ontario encouraged people to migrate west Russell argues that the thousands of relocated Ontario farmers changed Manitoba s bilingual openness to an exclusively English speaking province that then assimilated East European arrivals Thus if not for the agricultural crises in the Canadas Manitoba might have been at least as francophone as anglophone The first comprehensive synthesis on the history of Canadian farming in decades How Agriculture Made Canada reveals the lasting impact that nineteenth century agricultural changes have had on the nation

Celebrating a Century of 4-H in Ontario 4-H Ontario,2015-08-31 This book celebrates a century of 4 H in Ontario through stories of members and families from across rural Ontario who have been involved in the 4 H program Part 1 of the book was originally published in 1995 on the 80th anniversary of 4 H in Ontario and covers its early beginnings and the growth of the 4 H program at the provincial level and in each county and district of the province Part 2 covers the last 20 years and the story of 4 H Ontario s growth to become an independent organization and the impact of the 4 H program on families who have been involved in 4 H through several generations The book showcases how 4 H has kept up with the times to provide diverse programs and a continuum of excellence to inspire youth and give them hands on experience to develop transferable skills for their future Some 40 photos are included to help depict the 4 H story over the last century www.4hontario.ca
