Carlson, 2007 Covering a variety of genres and periods from medieval epic to contemporary speculative fiction Styling Texts explores the fascinating ways in which dress performs in literature Numerous authors have made powerful even radical use of clothing and its implications and the essays collected here demonstrate how scholarly attention to literary fashioning can contribute to a deeper understanding of texts their contexts and their innovations These generative and engaging discussions focus on issues such as fashion and anti fashion clothing reform transvestism sartorial economics style and the gaze transgressive modes and class gender or race passing This is the first academic volume to address such an extensive range of texts inviting consideration of how fashionable desires and concerns not only articulate the aesthetics subjectivities and controversies of a given culture but also communicate across temporal and spatial divisions Styling Texts is an essential resource for anyone interested in the artistic representations and significations of dress

Batchelor, 2005-05-11 Dress Distress and Desire explores representations of sartorial experience in eighteenth century literature Batchelor's study brings together for the first time canonical and non canonical texts including novels conduct books and women's magazines to investigate the pressures that the growth of the fashion market placed on conceptions of female virtue and propriety It shows how dress dispelled the sentimental myth that the body acted as a moral index and enabled the women reader to resist some of sentimental literature's more prescriptive advice

Fashion and Authorship Gerald Egan, 2020-02-13 Studies of fashion and literature in recent decades have focused primarily on representations of clothing and dress within literary texts But what about the author How did he dress What were her shopping practices and predilections What were his alliances with modishness stylishness fashion The essays in this book explore these and other questions as they look at authors from the eighteenth century through the postmodern and digital eras cultural producers who were also men and women of fashion Alexander Pope Hester Thrale Mary Robinson Lord Byron William Thackeray Charlotte Bronte Wilkie Collins Margaret Oliphant Virginia Woolf Rebecca West Trudi Kanter Angela Carter and Martin Margiela The essays collected here ultimately converge upon a fundamental question what happens to our notions of timeless literature when authorship itself is implicated in the transient and the temporary the cycles and materials of fashion Gerald Egan s provocative introduction to this exciting new book poses a bold question How are authorship and literature so often linked to ideas of transcendence implicated in the transient trends and stuff of fashion The thirteen chapters that follow track authorship s complex implication in the discourses and materiality of fashion and fashionable goods from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries Wide ranging in discipline and chronology yet forensically focused and carefully argued this book makes a striking and wonderfully original contribution to studies of authorship celebrity and material culture Dr Jennie Batchelor Professor of Eighteenth Century Studies University of Kent UK

Gogol, 2020-07-07 Working Women in American Literature 1865 1950 consists of eight original essays by literary historical and multicultural critics on the subject of working women in late nineteenth to mid twentieth century American literature The volume examines how the American working woman has been presented misrepresented and underrepresented in American realistic and naturalistic literature 1865 1930 and by later authors influenced by realism and naturalism Points explored include the historical vocational realities of working women e g factory workers seamstresses maids teachers writers prostitutes etc the distortions in literary representations of female work the ways in which these representations still inform the lives of working women today and new perspectives from queer theory immigrant studies and race and class analyses These essays draw on current feminist thought while remaining mindful of the historicity of the context The essayists discuss important women writers of the period for instance Ellen Glasgow Charlotte Perkins Gilman Rachel Crothers Willa Cather and the understudied Ann Petry as well as canonical writers like Theodore Dreiser Henry James and William Dean Howells The discussions touch on a variety of literary and artistic genres novels short stories other forms of fiction biographies dramas and films In the introductory essay and throughout the collection the term working women in the United States is deconstructed the historical and cultural definitions of work and the words work in America are redefined through the lens of genders Fashion in Literature Ernest E. Kellett, 1980-04-01 Fame Versus Fashion in Literature Laurence Housman, 1944 Modernism à la Mode Elizabeth M. Sheehan, 2018-10-15 Modernism la Mode argues that fashion describes why and how literary modernism matters in its own historical moment and ours Bringing together texts textiles and theories of dress Elizabeth Sheehan shows that writers including Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence W E B Du Bois Nella Larsen and F Scott Fitzgerald turned to fashion to understand what their own stylized works could do in the context of global capital systemic violence and social transformation Modernists engage with fashion as a mood a set of material objects and a target of critique and in doing so anticipate and address contemporary debates centered on the uses of literature and literary criticism amidst the supposed crisis in the humanities A modernist affect with a purpose no less By engaging modernism la mode that is contingently contextually and in light of contemporary concerns this book offers an alternative to the often untenable distinctions between strong or weak suspicious or reparative and politically activist or quietist approaches to literature which frame current debates about literary methodology As fashion helps us to describe what modernist texts do it enables us to do more with modernism as a form of inquiry perception and critique Fashion and modernism are interwoven forms of inquiry perception and critique writes Sheehan It is fashion that puts the work of early twentieth century writers in conversation with twenty first century theories of emotion materiality animality beauty and history Fashion and Fiction Lauren S.

Cardon,2016-04-05 During the twentieth century the rise of the concept of Americanization shedding ethnic origins and signs of otherness to embrace a constructed American identity was accompanied by a rhetoric of personal transformation that would ultimately characterize the American Dream The theme of self transformation has remained a central cultural narrative in American literary political and sociological texts ranging from Jamestown narratives to immigrant memoirs from slave narratives to Gone with the Wind and from the rags to riches stories of Horatio Alger to the writings of Barack Obama Such rhetoric feeds American myths of progress upward mobility and personal reinvention In Fashion and Fiction Lauren S Cardon draws a correlation between the American fashion industry and early twentieth century literature As American fashion diverged from a class conscious industry governed by Parisian designers to become more commercial and democratic she argues fashion designers and journalists began appropriating the same themes of self transformation to market new fashion trends Cardon illustrates how canonical twentieth century American writers including Edith Wharton Theodore Dreiser F Scott Fitzgerald Ernest Hemingway and Nella Larsen symbolically used clothing to develop their characters and their narrative of upward mobility As the industry evolved Cardon shows the characters in these texts increasingly enjoyed opportunities for individual expression and identity construction allowing for temporary performances that offered not escapism but a testing of alternate identities in a quest for self discovery Make it Work Jan Ellyn Goggans,2019-04-17
