Fashion Now Volume II:

The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17
Volume II surveys the history of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day. Covering the period beginning with mass industry and ending with calls for sustainability, this volume challenges the meaning of modernity and modernism from a global perspective and reflects on important scholarship that has changed our understanding of the relationship between fashion and colonialism. Empires shifted and new powers rose with fashion marking and contending with this change. The volume concludes with a critical view of fashion and globalisation and explores the deep connections between the fashion industry, the global economy and the politics of production and wearing in the contemporary world. The Letters of Philip Webb, Volume II John Aplin, 2015-12-22 Philip Webb was a British architect known as a founder of the Arts and Crafts movement and also a key member of the Pre-Raphaelite circle. He had a long association with William Morris and was responsible for the design of the hugely influential Red House. Morris's first home. Webb's letters will be of interest to art and architecture historians. The Forsyte Saga Vol. II John Galsworthy, 2023-11-01 After The Man of Property, Galsworthy digs into Irene's newfound acquaintance with Old Jolyon Forsyte, June's grandfather, now the owner of the house. Soames had built. This relationship makes Old Jolyon happy but it drains his power. He gives money to Irene in his will, with Young Jolyon, his son, acting as trustee. Old Jolyon eventually dies under an ancient oak tree in the garden of the Robin Hill house. The second novel is on Soames and his sister Winifred's marital problems; the title refers to the Court of Chancery, which dealt with domestic disputes. They file for divorce from their respective husbands, Irene and Montague Dartie. While Soames advises his sister to face the repercussions of going to court, he is unwilling to go through the process of divorce. Instead, he hunts and hounds Irene. She follows her abroad and begs her to bear his child, as his father had requested. After Old Jolyon's death, Irene receives a 15,000 inheritance. Irene's funds are managed by his son, Young Jolyon Forsyte, who is also Soames' cousin. Young Jolyon offers his assistance when she first leaves Soames. Irene has built a great bond with Jolyon by the time his son Jolly dies in the South African War. The Letters of Horace Walpole, Earl of Orford, Vol. II, 1744-1758 Horace Walpole, 2025-08-04 Reprint of the original, first published in 1840. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage. Commutative Algebra, Volume II Oscar Zariski, Pierre Samuel, 2019-11-13 The second text in this two-book series extends the classical material of Volume I, which focuses on field theory and the ideal theory of Noetherian rings and Dedekind domains. The connection of Volume II's material to algebraic geometry is stressed throughout the presentation, making this book a practical introduction to some basic concepts and the arithmetical foundations of algebraic geometry. The opening chapter deals with properties of places and is followed by a chapter that explores the classical properties of polynomial and power series rings and their applications to algebraic geometry. The final chapter examines the theory of local rings which provides the algebraic basis for the local study of algebraic and analytical varieties Several helpful Appendixes conclude the text
