Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin Kastner, Basile Ndjio, 2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub-Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa's rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub-Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights

Fashioning the City Agnès Rocamora, 2009-04-30 While much attention has been paid to the making of Paris in the work of writers and artists little is known about the city as defined and created by the fashion media Filling this gap in studies of the French capital this original and illuminating book focuses on how the French fashion press with its rich conjunction of words and images has been able to construct Paris as a leading world fashion city Based in an original analysis of fashion writing and images in contemporary French fashion magazines and newspapers the book shows how the fashion media have been central to the consecration of the city of Paris on the fashion map as well as its celebration in the collective imaginary Agnes Rocamora explores for example the figures of la Parisienne and la passante the female passer by and the presence of the Eiffel tower in fashion visuals She gives attention to the continuum between the French journalistic discourse and that of cultural forms such as films paintings and literature thus revealing the persistence across texts and time of visions of Paris and shedding light on the production and reproduction of the Paris myth
