Fast Cars Cool Rides The Accelerating World Of Youth And Their Cars

Jasmin Sandelson

Fast Cars Cool Rides The Accelerating World Of Youth And Their Cars:

Fast Cars, Cool Rides Amy L. Best, 2006 Drawing on interviews with over 100 young men and women and five years of research the author explores the fast paced world of kids and their cars She reveals a world where cars have incredible significance for kids as a means of transportation and thereby freedom to come and go as status symbols and as a means to express their identities

Global Identity in Multicultural and International Educational Contexts

Nigel Bagnall, 2015-03-27 The increased movement of people globally has changed the face of national and international schooling Higher levels of mobility have resulted from both the willing movement of students and their families with a desire to create a better life and the forced movement of refugee families travelling away from war famine and other extreme circumstances This book explores the idea that the complex connections created by the forces of globalisation have led to a diminishing difference between what were once described as international schools and national schools By examining a selection of responses from students attending international schools in Brazil the United Kingdom France Germany the Philippines and Switzerland the book discusses key issues surrounding identity and cosmopolitan senses of belonging Chapters draw from current literature and recent qualitative research to highlight the concerns that students face within the international school community including social psychological and academic difficulties The interviews provide a rich and unique body of knowledge demonstrating how perceptions of identity and belonging are changing especially with affiliation to a national or a global identity The notion that international students have become global citizens through their affiliation to a global rather than a national identity exhibits a changing and potentially irreversible trend Global Identity in Multicultural and International Educational Contexts will be of key interest to researchers academics and policy makers involved with international schooling and globalised education

Generation Multiplex

Timothy Shary, 2014-03-07 Generation Multiplex 2002 was the first comprehensive study of the representation of teenagers in American cinema since David Considine's Cinema of Adolescence in 1985 This updated and expanded edition reaffirms the idea that films about youth constitute a legitimate genre worthy of study on its own terms Identifying four distinct subgenres school delinquency horror and romance Timothy Shary explores hundreds of representative films while offering in depth discussion of movies that constitute key moments in the genre including Fast Times at Ridgemont High A Nightmare on Elm Street The Breakfast Club Say Anything Boyz n the Hood Scream American Pie Napoleon Dynamite Superbad The Twilight Saga and The Hunger Games Analyzing developments in teen films since 2002 Shary covers such topics as the increasing availability of movies on demand which has given teens greater access to both popular and lesser seen films the recent dominance of supernatural and fantasy films as a category within the genre and how the ongoing commodification of teen images in media affects real life issues such as school bullying athletic development sexual identity and teenage pregnancy

Consumed Nostalgia Gary Cross, 2015-09-08 Nostalgia isn't what it used to be For many of us modern memory is shaped less by a longing for the social customs and practices of the past or for family heirlooms handed down over generations and more by childhood encounters with ephemeral commercial goods and fleeting media moments in our age of fast capitalism This phenomenon has given rise to communities of nostalgia whose members remain loyal to the toys television and music of their youth They return to the theme parks and pastimes of their upbringing hoping to reclaim that feeling of childhood wonder or teenage freedom Consumed nostalgia took definite shape in the 1970s spurred by an increase in the turnover of consumer goods the commercialization of childhood and the skillful marketing of nostalgia Gary Cross immerses readers in this fascinating and often delightful history unpacking the cultural dynamics that turn pop tunes into oldies and childhood toys into valuable commodities He compares the limited appeal of heritage sites such as Colonial Williamsburg to the perpetually attractive power of a Disney theme park and reveals how consumed nostalgia shapes how we cope with accelerating change Today nostalgia can be owned collected and easily accessed making it less elusive and often more fun than in the past but its commercialization has sometimes limited memory and complicated the positive goals of recollection By unmasking the fascinating idiosyncratic character of modern nostalgia Cross helps us better understand the rituals of recall in an age of fast capitalism A Companion to Sport David L. Andrews, Ben Carrington, 2013-09-10 A

Companion to Sport brings together writing by leading sports theorists and social and cultural thinkers to explore sport as a central element of contemporary culture Positions sport as a crucial subject for critical analysis as one of the most significant forms of popular culture Includes both well known social and cultural theorists whose work lends itself to an interrogation of sport and leading theorists of sport itself Offers a comprehensive examination of sport as a social and cultural practice and institution Explores sport in relation to modernity postcolonial theory gender violence race disability and politics Men to

Boys Gary S. Cross, 2008 When did maturity become the ultimate taboo Men have gone from idolizing Cary Grant to aping Hugh Grant shunning marriage and responsibility well into their twenties and thirties Gary Cross renowned cultural historian identifies the boy man and his habits examining the attitudes and practices of three generations to make sense of this gradual but profound shift in American masculinity Cross matches the rise of the American boy man to trends in twentieth century advertising popular culture and consumerism and he locates the roots of our present crisis in the vague call for a new model of leadership that ultimately failed to offer a better concept of maturity Gender Replay Freeden Blume

Oeur, C. J. Pascoe, 2023-07-11 The first book length critical reception of Barrie Thorne's classic book Gender Play Barrie Thorne's Gender Play was a landmark study of the social worlds of primary school children that sparked a paradigm shift in our understanding of how kids and the adults around them contest and reinforce gender boundaries Thirty years later Gender Replay celebrates and reflects on this classic extending Thorne's scholarship into a new and different generation Freeden Blume Oeur and C J Pascoe's new volume brings together many of the foremost scholars on youth from an array of disciplines including sociology childhood studies education gender studies and communication studies Together these scholars reflect on many contemporary issues that were not covered in Thorne's original text exploring new dimensions of schooling the sociology of gender social media and feminist theory Over fourteen essays the authors touch on topics such as youth resistance in the Trump era girls and technology the use of play to challenge oppressive racial regimes youth activism against climate change the importance of taking kids seriously as social actors and mentoring as a form of feminist praxis Gender Replay picks up where Thorne's text left off doing the vital work of applying her teachings to a transformed world and to new configurations of childhood The Cambridge Handbook of Sexual Development Sharon Lamb, Jen

Gilbert, 2018-12-20 The Cambridge Handbook of Sexual Development is a carefully curated conversation that brings together the top researchers in child and adolescent sexual development to redefine the issues conflicts and debates in the field The Handbook is organized around three foundational questions first what is sexual development Second how do we study sexual development And third what roles might adults including the institutions of the media family and education play in the sexual development of children and adolescents As the first of its kind this collection integrates work from sociology psychology anthropology history education cultural studies and allied fields Writing from different disciplinary traditions and about a range of international contexts the contributors explore the role of sexuality in children s and adolescents everyday experiences of identity family school neighborhood religion and popular media Order and Conflict in Public Space Mattias De Backer, Lucas Melgaço, Georgiana Varna, Francesca Menichelli, 2016-05-20 Which public and whose space The understanding of public space as an arena where individuals can claim full use and access hides a reality of constant negotiation conflict and surveillance This collection uses case studies concerning the management use and transgression of public space to invite reflection on the way in which everyday social interaction is framed and shaped by the physical environment and vice versa International experts from fields including geography criminology sociology and urban studies come together to debate the concepts of order and conflict in public space This book is divided into two parts spaces of control and spaces of transgression Section I focuses on formal and informal surveillance and the politics of control using case studies to compare strategies in spaces including Olympic cities luxury skyscrapers residential neighbourhoods and shopping malls Section II focuses on transgressive or deviant behaviour in public spaces with case studies examining behaviour in nightlife districts governance of homelessness boy racer culture and abortion protests The epilogue concludes the book with an exploration of possible future avenues for research on public space and a critical appraisal of the concept of public space itself This interdisciplinary collection will be of interest to students researchers and professionals in the areas of criminology sociology surveillance studies human and social geography and urban studies and planning We Fight To Win Hava Rachel Gordon, 2009-10-09 In an adult dominated society teenagers are often shut out of participation in politics We Fight to Win offers a compelling account of young people s attempts to get involved in community politics and documents the battles waged to form youth movements and create social change in schools and neighborhoods Hava Rachel Gordon compares the struggles and successes of two very different youth movements a mostly white middle class youth activist network in Portland Oregon and a working class network of minority youth in Oakland California She examines how these young activists navigate schools families community organizations and the mainstream media and employ a variety of strategies to make their voices heard on some of today s most pressing issues war school funding the environmental crisis the prison industrial complex standardized testing corporate accountability and educational reform We Fight to Win is one of the first books to focus on adolescence and political action and deftly explore the ways that the politics of youth activism are structured by age inequality as well as race class and gender The Routledge Handbook of Mobilities Peter Adey, David Bissell, Kevin Hannam, Peter Merriman, Mimi Sheller, 2014-01-10 The 21st century seems to be on the move perhaps even more so than the last With cheap travel and more than two billion cars projected worldwide for 2030 And yet all this mobility is happening incredibly unevenly at different paces and intensities with varying impacts and consequences to the extent that life on the move might be actually quite difficult to sustain environmentally socially and ethically As a result mobility has become a keyword of the social sciences delineating a new domain of concepts approaches methodologies and techniques which seek to understand the character and quality of these trends This Handbook explores and critically evaluates the debates approaches controversies and methodologies inherent to this rapidly expanding discipline It brings together leading specialists from range of backgrounds and geographical regions to provide an authoritative and comprehensive overview of this field conveying cutting edge research in an accessible way whilst giving detailed grounding in the evolution of past debates on mobilities It illustrates disciplinary trends and pathways from migration studies and transport history to communications research featuring methodological innovations and developments and conceptual histories from feminist theory to tourist studies It explores the dominant figures of mobility from children to soldiers and the mobility impaired the disparate materialities of mobility such as flows of water and waste to the vectors of viruses key infrastructures such as logistics systems to the informal services of megacity slums and the important mobility events around which our world turns from going on vacation to the commute to the catastrophic disruption of mobility systems The text is forward thinking projecting the future of mobilities as they might be lived transformed and studied and possibly brought to an end International in focus the book transcends disciplinary and national boundaries to explore mobilities as they are understood from different perspectives different fields countries and standpoints This is an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in mobility across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study

The High School Michael A. Messner, 2025 Taking over a century's worth of yearbooks from his alma mater Salinas High School as a historical archive acclaimed sociologist Michael A. Messner discovers a not so distant time when all the cheerleaders were boys and nearly equal attention was paid to boys and girls sports In the process he explores the changing meanings of high school athletics

Youthful Preaching Richard Voelz, 2016-01-21 What if adolescents aren't bored with preaching What if they have and are interacting with preaching in complex various ways that have escaped the attention of adult listeners and preachers What if their own preaching informed the ways adults think about Christian faith and theories practices of preaching While much recent discussion in preaching revolves around underrepresented groups the relationship between adolescent youth and preaching remains largely unexplored Youthful Preaching brings youth into contemporary conversations about preaching by listening to their voices and by advocating for communities of faith and practice to seek ways to reimagine renew and strengthen the relationships between youth adults and preaching

Data Driven Karen Levy, 2024-06-18 A behind the scenes look at how digital surveillance is affecting the trucking way of life Long haul truckers are the backbone of the American economy transporting goods under grueling conditions and immense economic pressure Truckers have long valued the day to day independence of their work sharing a strong occupational identity rooted in a tradition of autonomy Yet these workers increasingly find themselves under many watchful eyes Data Driven examines how digital surveillance is upending life and work on the open road and raises crucial questions about the role of data collection in broader systems of social control

Karen Levy takes readers inside a world few ever see painting a bracing portrait of one of the last great American frontiers Federal regulations now require truckers to buy and install digital monitors that capture data about their locations and behaviors Intended to address the pervasive problem of trucker fatigue by regulating the number of hours driven each day these devices support additional surveillance by trucking firms and other companies Traveling from industry trade shows to law offices and truck stop bars Levy reveals how these invasive technologies are reconfiguring industry relationships and providing new tools for managerial and legal control and how truckers are challenging and resisting them Data Driven contributes to an emerging conversation about how technology affects our work institutions and personal lives and helps to guide our thinking about how to protect public interests and safeguard human dignity in the digital age Popular Music and Automobiles Mark Duffett, Beate Peter, 2020-01-09 Particularly since the 1950s cars and popular music have been constantly associated As complementary goods and intertwined technologies their relationship has become part of a widely shared experience one that connects individuals and society private worlds and public spheres Popular Music and Automobiles aims to unpack that relationship in more detail It explores the ways in which cars and car journeys have shaped society as well as how we have shaped them Including both broad synergies and specific case studies Popular Music and Automobiles explores how attention to an ongoing relationship can reveal insights about the assertion and negotiation of identity Using methods of enquiry that are as diverse as the topics they tackle its contributors closely consider specific genders genres places and texts Keeping It Halal John O'Brien, 2019-08-06 Engaging and insightful O'Brien provides rich descriptions of the cultural work these teenagers do in their efforts to be both good Muslims and fully American Mark

Chaves author of American Religion n Masculinity Under Construction LaToya Jefferson-James, 2020-09-17 Masculinity Under Construction Literary Re Presentations of Black Masculinity in the African Diaspora analyzes Black male identity as constructed by Black male authors In each chapter Dr Jefferson James discusses a different construction or definition of masculine identity produced by men of African descent on the continent of Africa in the Caribbean and in North America Combining through the works of James Baldwin Chinua Achebe Ralph Ellison George Lamming and other pan African authors Masculinity Under Construction argues for the importance of analyzing the historical context that contributed to the formation of Black male identity Additionally Dr Jefferson James draws a relationship between Black feminists and writers such as Anna Julia Cooper and her contemporaries and these works of literature viewed as primarily about Black masculinity
