Farm Work and Fieldwork Michael Chibnik, 1987 Farm Work and Fieldwork Michael Chibnik, 1987-01-01 Report of the Commission on Agricultural Workers: Case studies and research reports prepared for the Commission on Agricultural Workers, 1989-1993 United States. Commission on Agricultural Workers, 1993 Report of the Commission on Agricultural Workers United States. Commission on Agricultural Workers, 1993 Farming across Borders Timothy P. Bowman, Kristin Hoganson, Laura Hooton, Josh MacFadyen, Todd Meyers, Peter S Morris, Andrew Dunlop, Alicia Marion Dewey, John Weber, Sonia Hernández, Rosa E Cobos, Matt Caire-Pérez, Paige Raibmon, Jason McCollom, Thomas D Isern, Suzanne Kelley, Anthony Carlson, Stephen Mumme, Tisa Anders, 2017-10-26 Farming across Borders uses agricultural history to connect the regional experiences of the American West northern Mexico western Canada and the North American side of the Pacific Rim now writ large into a broad history of the North American West Case studies of commodity production and distribution trans border agricultural labor and environmental change unite to reveal new perspectives on a historiography traditionally limited to a regional approach Sterling Evans has curated nineteen essays to explore the contours of big agricultural history Crops and commodities discussed include wheat cattle citrus pecans chiles tomatoes sugar beets hops henequen and more Toiling over such crops of course were the people of the North American West and as such the contributing authors investigate the role of agricultural labor from braceros and Hutterites to women working in the sorghum fields and countless other groups in between As Evans concludes society as a whole no matter in what country often ignores the role of agriculture in the past and the present Farming across Borders takes an important step toward cultivating awareness and understanding of the agricultural economic and environmental connections that loom over the North American West regardless of lines on a map In the words of one essay we are tied together in a hundred different ways

An Ethnography of Global Landscapes and Corridors Loshini Naidoo, 2012-03-09 The chapters presented in this book draw on ethnography as a methodology in a variety of disciplines including education management design marketing ecology and scientific contexts illustrating the value of a qualitative approach to research design The chapters discuss the use of traditional ethnographic methods such as immersion observation and interview as well as innovative ethnographical methods which have been influenced by the new digital culture The latter challenges notions of identity field and traditional culture such that people are able to represent themselves in the research process rather than be represented New approaches to ethnography also examine the use and implication of images in representation as well as critically examining the role and impact of the researcher in the process Creating Experiential Learning Opportunities for Language Learners Melanie Bloom, Carolyn Gascoigne, 2017-03-08 While much research has been done on experiential learning opportunities in study abroad settings there are fewer publications devoted to experiential learning in the domestic context This volume aims to fill that gap by providing a collection of chapters highlighting research based innovations in experiential learning in domestic settings The book focuses on three experiential learning contexts community engagement experiences professional engagement experiences and other unique experiential contexts such as language camps and houses The collection focuses on the US context but the research projects and curricular innovations described here can serve as models for educators working in other local contexts and will encourage interested practitioners to explore experiential learning opportunities in their local areas It will also provide the reader with a better understanding of this growing field of inquiry and should appeal to graduate students and researchers who are interested in experiential language learning Farm Labor, 1958 Annual Report of the Director of Education Philippines. Bureau of Education, 1926 Experiencing Fieldwork William Shaffir, Robert A. Stebbins, 1991 How do you gain entry into a research setting What tricks are there to learning the rules of the community without alienating the people you came to study How are good relations maintained with informants What happens after you leave the field In Experiencing Fieldwork top ethnographers address these and other questions bring fieldwork alive for the reader and provide invaluable advice for those entering the field Unpalatable Carrie Helms Tippen, 2025-01-15 The cookbook genre is highly conventional with an orientation toward celebration and success From glossy photographs to heartwarming stories and adjective rich ingredient lists the cookbook tradition primes readers for pleasure Yet the overarching narrative of the region is often one of pain loss privation exploitation poverty and suffering of various kinds While some cookbook writers go to great lengths to avoid reminding readers of this painful past others invoke that pain as a marker of southern authenticity Still others use stories of southern suffering as an opportunity to make space for reconciliation reparation or apology for past wrongs In Unpalatable Stories of Pain and Pleasure in Southern Cookbooks author Carrie Helms Tippen attempts to understand the unique rhetorical situation of the southern cookbook as it negotiates a tension between the expectations of the genre and the prevailing metanarratives of the southern experience one focused on pleasure and the other rooted in pain Through an analysis of commercially published southern cookbooks from the 1990s to the present Tippen examines the range of rhetorical purposes and strategies writers have employed some of which undermine the reality of a painful past and cause harm or violence and others which serve as tools for truth and reconciliation Labor Expenditures Help Determine Farms Affected by Immigration Reform James A. Duffield, 1989 Blue Book for the Colony of Natal Natal (South Africa), 1899 Full Circles Cindi Katz, Janice Monk, 2014-02-04 Full Circles describes the very different lives and expectations of women in post industrial and developing countries from childhood to old age Analysing how class ethnicity nationality and individual values intersect with the experience of the life course the book explores the futures open to women in diverse and changing locations Women's Work and Chicano Families Patricia Zavella, 2018-03-15 No detailed description available for Women's Work and Chicano Families Women in the American Civil War Lisa . Tendrich Frank, 2007-12-03 This fascinating work tells the untold story of the role of women in the Civil War from battlefield to home front Most Americans can name famous generals and notable battles from the Civil War With rare exception they know neither the women of that war nor their part in it Yet as this encyclopedia demonstrates women played a critical role The book s 400 A Z entries focus on specific people organizations issues and battles and a dozen contextual essays provide detailed information about the social political and family issues that shaped women s lives during the Civil War era Women in the American Civil War satisfies a growing interest in this topic Readers will learn how the Civil War became a vehicle for expanding the role of women in society Representing the work of more than 100 scholars this book treats in depth all aspects of the previously untold story of women in the Civil War

Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms Maxim Bolt,2015-09-25 This book addresses the complex labour and life conditions faced by workers in the agricultural borderlands of northern South Africa

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker,Sandra Bhatasara,Manase Kudzai Chiweshe,2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state s fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party s chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond
