Farm Workers and Agri-business in California, 1947-1960 Ernesto Galarza, 1977 Agri businessland The encounters 1947 1952 The attack on the bracero system 1952 1959 Labor relations of the NAWU Death of a union In the Struggle Daniel J. O'Connell, Scott J. Peters, 2021-07-13 Scholars working for communities rights in California's Central Valley In the Struggle tells the story of the persistent engagement of eight public scholars spanning generations of sustained endeavor a dogged war in which workers and scholars together repeatedly took on the powerful agricultural industry the political machines and even the universities The stories begin in the 1930s with Paul Taylor a professor of economics at University of California Berkeley who pioneered field research and activism as he travelled through the areas marked by the Great Depression together with his wife photographer Dorothea Lange Working in the heart of California's agricultural Central Valley Taylor was the first of a succession of scholars who shared the dual commitment to research and engagement to making problems visible and to effecting change through strategic action Taylor and Lange intentionally wove their political engagement into their identities and work as researchers as they conducted studies led strikes organized underserved communities founded community development programs created nonprofit institutions and more This book documents a tradition of politically engaged scholarship in one of the world's most dramatic contexts full of disparities and contradictions but also ripe with opportunities to make a difference It covers a struggle that continues undiminished in the present Latino History and Culture David J. Leonard, Carmen R. Lugo-Lugo, 2015-03-17 Latinos are the fastest growing population in America today This two volume encyclopedia traces the history of Latinos in the United States from colonial times to the present focusing on their impact on the nation in its historical development and current culture Latino History and Culture covers the myriad ethnic groups that make up the Latino population It explores issues such as labor legal and illegal immigration traditional and immigrant culture health education political activism art literature and family as well as historical events and developments A-Z entries cover eras individuals organizations and institutions critical events in U.S. history and the impact of the Latino population communities and ethnic groups and key cities and regions Each entry includes cross references and bibliographic citations and a comprehensive index and illustrations augment the text The White Scourge Neil Foley, 1997 At a time when the inadequacy of Black white models for understanding race in the U.S. has become increasingly clear Foley's work is of special importance for the clarity with which it describes complexity One key to his success is his consistent emphasis on social structure and class relations as he probes the dynamics of race David Roediger author of The Wages of Whiteness Foley deftly brings social cultural and political history together in a breathtaking beautifully written narrative Robin D. G. Kelley author of Race Rebels The Role of Women in Determining the California Farm Labor Structure: a Case Study of the Women's Land Army of America During World War I. Margo McBane, 1983 Still the Golden Door David M.
