An Ecological Survey of the Narok District of Kenya Masailand P. E. Glover,1962      An Ecological Survey of the Narok District of Kenya Masailand, 1961-1965 ,1966      An Ecological Survey of the Narok District of Kenya Masailand 1961-1965 P.E. Glover,1966      Serengeti II A. R. E. Sinclair,Peter Arcese,1995-08 Serengeti II Dynamics Management and Conservation of an Ecosystem brings together twenty years of research by leading scientists to provide the most most thorough understanding to date of the spectacular Serengeti Mara ecosystem in East Africa home to one of the largest and most diverse populations of animals in the world Building on the groundwork laid by the classic Serengeti Dynamics of an Ecosystem published in 1979 by the University of Chicago Press this new book integrates studies of the ecosystem at every level from the plants at the bottom of the visible food chain to the many species of herbivores and predators to the system as a whole Drawing on new data from many long term studies and from more recent research initiatives and applying new theory and computer technology the contributors examine the large scale processes that have produced the Serengeti s extraordinary biological diversity as well as the interactions among species and between plants and animals and their environment They also introduce computer modeling as a tool for exploring these interactions employing this new technology to test and anticipate the effects of social political and economic changes on the entire ecosystem and on particular species and so to shape future conservation and management strategies      An Ecological Survey of the Narok District of Kenya Masailand, 1961-1965: without special title ,1966      Woody Vegetation of the Serengeti National Park Dennis J. Herlocker,1974      Natural Grasslands R.T. Coupland,1993-02-01 This volume is concerned with those parts of the earth s surface where semiarid to subhumid climate determines that the potential vegetation is characterized by a more or less continuous layer of grasses and other associated herbs These grasslands have been modified to a very considerable degree by the activities of man and his domesticated animals The authors of the various chapters have evaluated the effect of these stresses in modifying ecosystem structure and activities of organisms The book provides an intensively referenced and indexed synthesis and review of knowledge concerning the natural grasslands of the world in as uniform a style as possible Because of its length it is published in two parts The first part deals with the grasslands of the Western Hemisphere and the Eastern Hemisphere and the resum compose this second volume      Rangeland Ecology and Resource Development in Eastern Africa Dennis J. Herlocker,1999      An Ecological Survey of the Narok District of Kenya Masailand ,1970      East African Agricultural Journal of Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda and Zanzibar ,1966

Low-Level Aerial Survey Techniques International Livestock Centre for Africa,      Kenya Water Towers Status Report ,2014      Plant Invasions in Protected Areas Llewellyn C. Foxcroft,Petr Pyšek,David M. Richardson,Piero Genovesi,2013-11-27 This book is the first comprehensive global review of all aspects of alien plant invasions in protected areas It provides insights into advances in invasion ecology emanating from work in protected areas and the link to locally relevant management support for protected areas The book provides in depth case studies illuminating interesting and insightful knowledge that can be shared across the global protected area network The book includes the collective understanding of 80 ecologists and managers to extract as much information as possible that will support the long term management of protected areas and the biodiversity and associated ecosystem services they maintain This outstanding volume draws together pretty much all that can be said on this topic ranging from the science through policy to practical action Dr Simon N Stuart IUCN Species Survival Commission UK This important and timely volume addresses two of the most serious problems affecting biodiversity conservation today assessing the extent to which protected areas are impacted by biological invasions and the complex problems of managing these impacts Written by leading specialists it provides a comprehensive overview of the issues and gives detailed examples drawn from protected areas across the world Professor Vernon H Heywood School of Biological Sciences University of Reading UK

Equity in the Loita/Purko Naimina Enkiyo Forest in Kenya Francis Karanja, Yemeserach Tessema, Edmund G. C. Barrow, 2002 East African Agricultural and Forestry Journal, 1966 Early Pastoralists of South-western Kenya Peter Robertshaw, 1990 Results of archaeological surveys and excavations and effective interdisciplinary research of the Loita Mara region of south western Kenya The main focus is on Neolithic sites and prehistoric pastoral subsistence and settlement systems Includes contributions of many authors Journal of East African Natural History, 1998 Rural Livelihoods, Regional Economies, and Processes of Change Deborah Sick, 2014-01-10 For centuries new technologies and expanding networks of production and consumption have been changing the face of rural economies in significant ways Millions of rural dwellers have found survival increasingly difficult and have fled to urban centres Others have remained some retrenching struggling to just subsist others attempting to innovatively redefine their place within new rural economies Over the past 30 years rural economies have largely been ignored by policy makers but recent growing concerns about food security environmental degradation climate change continued rural poverty and high rates of out migration have sparked renewed interest in rural regions Covering a range of geographical and socio cultural contexts the case studies in this book draw on actor oriented in depth field studies which provide detailed locally focused perspectives on the nature of rural livelihoods today The collection highlights the ways in which rural livelihoods are being redefined the multiple ways in which rural dwellers draw on distinct social cultural and environmental resources to formulate their livelihood strategies and the factors which facilitate or limit their abilities to do so This volume will be of interest to development practitioners and policy makers and scholars working in rural development and economic anthropology Serengeti III A. R. E. Sinclair, Craig Packer, Simon A. R. Mduma, John M. Fryxell, 2009-05-15 Serengeti National Park is one of the world's most diverse ecosystems a natural laboratory for ecology evolution and conservation with a history that dates back at least four million years to the beginnings of human evolution The third book of a ground breaking series Serengeti III is the result of a long term integrated research project that documents changes to this unique ecosystem every ten years Bringing together researchers from a wide range of disciplines ecologists paleontologists economists social scientists mathematicians and disease specialists this volume focuses on the interactions between the natural system and the human dominated agricultural system By examining how changes in rainfall wildebeest numbers commodity prices and human populations have impacted the Serengeti ecosystem the authors conclude that changes in the natural system have affected human welfare just as changes in the human system have impacted the natural world To promote both the conservation of biota and the sustainability of human welfare the authors recommend community based conservation and protected area conservation Serengeti III presents a timely and provocative look at the conservation status of one of earth s most renowned ecosystems      The Ixodid Ticks of Kenya Jane Brotherton Walker,1974
