Farewell to the Wet Nurse Patricia R. Ivinski, Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, 1998 Maternal Breast-Feeding and Its Substitutes in Nineteenth-Century French Art Gal Ventura, 2018-10-02 In Maternal Breast Feeding and Its Substitutes in Nineteenth Century French Art Gal Ventura investigates the ideological concepts behind the endorsement of maternal breast feeding in modern Western society Using diverse visual and textual sources and surveying hundreds of artworks produced from the time of the French Revolution to the beginning of the twentieth century Ventura reveals the historical political religious and economic factors that shaped the representations of breast feeding and its substitutes in French art She thus sheds light on the changing attitudes toward maternal breast feeding in nineteenth century France which have had a considerable impact on the glorification of breast feeding in the Western world to this very day The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano, 2015-02-24 In The Portrait Bust and French Cultural Politics in the Eighteenth Century Ronit Milano probes the rich and complex aesthetic and intellectual charge of a remarkably concise art form and explores its role as a powerful agent of epistemological change during one of the most seismic moments in French history The pre Revolutionary portrait bust was inextricably tied to the formation of modern selfhood and to the construction of individual identity during the Enlightenment while positioning both sitters and viewers as part of a collective of individuals who together formed French society In analyzing the contribution of the portrait bust to the construction of interiority and the formulation of new gender roles and political ideals this book touches upon a set of concerns that constitute the very core of our modernity Mass Hysteria Rebecca Kukla, 2005-10-04 Mass Hysteria examines the medical and cultural practices surrounding pregnancy new motherhood and infant feeding Late eighteenth century transformations in these practices reshaped mothers bodies and contemporary norms and routines of prenatal care and early motherhood Romanticism and the Cultures of Infancy Martina Domines Veliki, Cian Duffy, 2020-08-29 This collection of essays explores the remarkable range and cultural significance of the engagement with infancy during the Romantic period Taking its point of departure in the commonplace claim that the Romantics invented childhood the book traces that engagement across national boundaries in the visual arts in works of educational theory and natural philosophy and in both fiction and non fiction written for children Essays authored by scholars from a range of national and disciplinary backgrounds reveal how Romantic period representations of and for children constitute sites of complex discursive interaction where ostensibly unrelated areas of enquiry are brought together through common tropes and topoi associated with infancy Broadly new historicist in approach but drawing also on influential theoretical descriptions of genre discipline mediation cultural exchange and comparative methodologies the collection also seeks to rethink the idea of a clear cut dichotomy between Enlightenment and Romantic conceptions of infancy Essays on Women's Artistic and Cultural Contributions 1919-1939 Paula Birnbaum, Anna Novakov, 2009 This book showcases innovative scholarship in the area of women's studies art history history and cultural theory by presenting the history of women artists within a multi cultural context exposing readers to the richness of cultural production during the interwar years
