Ecstatic Architecture The Surprising Link:

NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson, 2017-01-20 Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group's work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT's identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT's place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group's ethos and development

Architecture In Use DJM van der Voordt, HBR van Wegen, 2007-06-01 This unique book discusses programming design and building evaluation providing a joined up approach to building design By linking the functional and architectonic qualities of a building the authors show the practical implications of the utility value of buildings Starting by looking at how the relationship between form and function has been dealt with by different approaches to architecture from a historical perspective it goes on to discuss how the desired functional quality and utility value of a building can be expressed in a brief and given a physical form by the architect Finally it advises on how to carry out post occupancy evaluation and provides the architect with methods and techniques for testing whether the intended utility value of a building has been achieved

The Crisis of the African-American Architect Melvin L. Mitchell, 2003 another missing piece of our rich history and profound contribution to western civilization For history buffs please put this book on your must read list George C Fraser Author of Race For Success and Success Runs In Our Race Mitchell believes that the entire future of blacks in the field of architecture is in jeopardy He then discusses the impact of the Harlem Renaissance on black architecture and the subsequent emergence of Howard University as the center of the black architectural universe The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education seminal Architecture Magazine In this long overdue book aimed at Black America and her allies Melvin Mitchell poses the question why haven't black architects developed a Black Architecture that complements modernist black culture that is rooted in world class blues jazz hip hop music and other black aesthetic forms His provocative thesis inspired by Harold Cruse's landmark book The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual exposes the roots of an eighty year old estrangement between black architects and Black America Along the way he provides interesting details about the politics of downtown development in the Marion Barry era of Washington DC Mitchell calls for a bold and inclusive New Black Urbanism He sees the radical reform and re missioning of the handful of accredited HBCU based architecture schools as a critical tool in refashioning a rapprochement between black architects and Black America

Urban Constellations Zoë Thompson, 2016-02-11 This book investigates the iconic architectural cultural spaces of the contemporary cityscape as engines of regeneration Promising much to their fading locales these spaces locate culture in the space where production once ruled in order to revitalise post industrial urban provinces With close attention to four sites across the UK Urban Constellations engages with the work of Walter Benjamin and Jean Baudrillard to read these spaces and in so doing offer a critical intervention into the theory and experience of contemporary cityscapes Developing the notion of surface ethnography as a methodological approach to examining the form of cultural experience produced by urban cultural spaces the author sheds light on the manner in which they transform cultural spectatorship express wider political and ecological concerns and offer differing views to the native and the tourist in the construction of local history The book also examines the decline of the idea that iconic projects can drive regeneration in the failures and delays that can beset such undertakings Offering a rich examination of the legacy of urban change in its most recent formulation that of cultural regeneration this book reveals the fragile potential of the spaces produced by contemporary dream houses and as such will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies sociology and social theory urban studies cultural geography and architecture

Religious Architecture Oskar Verkaaik, 2025-10-01 Borrowing from a range of theories on spacemaking and material religion and with contributions from anthropologists working in the United Kingdom Mali Brazil Spain and Italy this fascinating and comprehensive study develops an anthropological perspective on modern religious architecture including mosques churches and synagogues Religious Architecture examines how religious buildings take their place in opposition to their secular surroundings and in so doing function not only as community centers in urban daily life but also as evocations of the sublime that help believers to move beyond the boundaries of modern subjectivity book explores the broad issue of Postmodernism and tells the story of the movement that has changed the face of architecture over the last forty years In this completely rewritten edition of his seminal work Charles Jencks brings the history of architecture up to date and shows how demands for a new and complex architecture aided by computer design have led to more convivial sensuous and articulate buildings around the world Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Nina Juzwa, Jakub Świerzawski, 2023-09-28 Authored by two architects Polish Architecture in Contemporary Innovation Thoughts Dreams and Places tells a story of buildings that were built in Poland between 1980 and 2020 as architecture developed in the Western world and Japan Its main focus is public utility buildings which the authors have touched in situ and which have moved them or sparked their interest The book is divided into three parts Part I focuses on the problem of creating and shaping architectural form and uses examples of both international and Polish architecture In this section the authors pose the question why is the Pritzker Prize so important Part II attempts to answer the question of how architecture can change the image of a place The answer consists of mainly Polish examples of user friendly architecture value and beauty in architecture and place Part III analyses buildings that were created in contemporary Poland Examples are listed in groups according to their function pointing out forms that were inspired by the culture of the region the historical culture of the place or those which are a new quality and are the foundation of the creation of a place This book aims to demonstrate Polish architectural solutions in the context of contemporary trends in the West traditionally seen as more technically and technologically developed countries The floor plans and sections of the buildings presented in the book show the beauty of geometric and formal solutions and give a new and rare perspective on the latest changes in modern Polish architecture This book will be of interest to architects as well as researchers and students of contemporary Polish architecture and culture and its place in the European and international context The Polish edition of this book published in 2021 by the National Institute of Architecture and Urban Planning in Warsaw received the Vitruvius Prize 2022 by the Architecture and Urban Planning Committee of the Polish Academy of Sciences Ecstatic Architecture Maggie Toy, Charles Jencks, 1999-06-22 Today there is a broad trend towards an architecture that could be called ecstatic partly motivated by pure architectural ideas pushed to their limits and a shift from functional concerns to sensual ones Ecstatic Architecture is stimulating holistic and overpowering its primary contemporary monument is Frank Gehry's New Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao Ecstatic Architecture has opened up architectural thought and made links with historic building The term encompasses buildings widely distant in function and time from cave art to the new cinema centre in Dresden from explicitly erotic architecture to buildings which have a spiritual role from conceptual and cybernetic artefacts to pure architecture It suggests comparisons between the current practice of leading architects such as Hans Hollein Coop Himmelb(l)au Nigel Coates and Egyptian Baroque and Art Nouveau architecture Essays examining the historic and philosophical implications are complemented by major projects in the genre by Frank Gehry Will Alsop Ron Arad Odile Decq Eric Owen Moss and Shin

Takamatsu Major rhetorical tropes of Ecstatic Architecture are clarified in two extensive photo essays by Charles Jencks The surprise is that Ecstatic Architecture links such widely divergent strands and forces us to reconsider architecture in a new key The Architect Maggie Toy, 2001 The objective of this book is to banish the notion of architecture being a male dominated field by showcasing the work of a wide variety of world class women architects demonstrating the role women are playing in contemporary architecture First book of its kind to survey the role of women in architecture Features a wide international selection of world class contemporary women architects Beautifully illustrated throughout
