Development and Foreign Policy in Turkey Mustafa Kutlay, H. Emrah Karaoğuz, 2023-11-27 This book sketches an institutional political economy framework to discuss the interaction between development and foreign policy in the global South with reference to Turkey The authors argue that although the developmental state framework has commonly been employed to explore domestic economic development processes without analytically focusing on the foreign policy dimension developmental state institutions are highly relevant in the creation and pursuit of a development oriented foreign policy at a time of growing uncertainty marred by geopolitical and geoeconomic tensions The book develops a two level Regime Coherence Framework to account for the domestic and international dimensions of development oriented foreign policy The main argument posits that the development regime in Turkey and associated foreign policies lack coherence due to weak institutional complementarities between economic governance state business relations and financial statecraft at the domestic external nexus

Bush Joan Hoff,2007-12-10 A Faustian Foreign Policy from Woodrow Wilson to George W Bush critiques U S foreign policy during this period by showing how moralistic diplomacy has increasingly assumed Faustian overtones especially during the Cold War and following September 11 The ideological components of American diplomacy originating in the late 18th and 19th centuries evolved through the 20th century as U S economic and political power steadily increased Seeing myth making as essential in any country s founding and a common determinant of its foreign policy Professor Joan Hoff reveals how the basic belief in its exceptionalism has driven America s past and present attempts to remake the world in its own image She expands her original concept of independent internationalism as the modus operandi of U S diplomacy to reveal the many unethical Faustian deals the United States entered into since 1920 to obtain its current global supremacy The Defence Industrial Base and Foreign Policy Glen Segell,1998 Economic Statecraft David A.
