available knowledge of the response of mountain ecosystems to recent climate and land use change and intends to bridge the gap between science policy and the community concerned. The chapters present key concepts, major drivers and key processes of mountain response providing transdisciplinary orientation to mountain studies incorporating experiences of academics, community leaders and policy makers from developed and less developed countries. The book chapters are arranged in two sections. The first section concerns the response processes of mountain environments to climate change. This section addresses climate change itself, past, current and future changes of temperature and precipitation and its impacts on the cryosphere, hydrosphere, biosphere and human environment systems. The second section focuses on the response processes of mountain environments to land use/land cover change. The case studies address effects of changing agriculture and pastoralism, forest water resources management and urbanization processes, landscape management and biodiversity conservation. The book is designed as an interdisciplinary publication which critically evaluates developments in mountains of the world with contributions from both social and natural sciences. Forestry in the Himalayan States of India Triloki Nath Dhar, S. P. Gupta, 1997 Nepali Diaspora in a Globalised Era Tanka B. Subba, A. C. Sinha, 2015-10-05 This is one of the first books to explore Nepali diaspora in a global context across India and other parts of South Asia, Southeast Asia, Europe and Australia. It discusses the social, political and economic status and aspirations of the Nepali community worldwide. The essays in the volume cover a range of themes including belonging and identity, politics among Nepalese migrants, representation of Indian Nepalis in literature, diasporic consciousness, forceful eviction and displacement, social movements and ritual practices among migrant communities. Drawing attention to the lives of Nepali emigrants, the volume presents a sensitive and balanced understanding of their options and constraints and their ambivalences about who they are. This work will be invaluable to scholars and students of Nepal studies, area studies, diaspora and migration studies, social anthropology, cultural studies and literature.

The Himalayas Asok Basu, 1987 With reference to the Himalaya Mountains Region covers up to 1983 Ecology and Environment in the Himalayas Kuldip Singh Gulia, 2007 Today environment and ecology are the buzzwords. The pace of development and modernization has endangered the ecological balance of Himalaya. When the British brought railways in India in the late 18th century, the Himalayan jungles were denuded of the vast forests covers due to the demand for sleepers. When in early 19th century the Britishers attempted to curb wanton tree felling, there arose resentment among the people of Garhwal and Kumaon in Uttarakhand. But in later times those very women folk took to Chipko movement to curb tree felling. The book gives a multitude of ill effects of tree felling ranging from soil erosion to causing floods in the plains and depositing silt. The shrinking of various Himalayan glaciers has also created alarm among the global ecologists and environmentalists. Denudation of forests also has been causing landslides and endangering the wildlife. Now the efforts are being made to avert the man-made disaster. This book comes to grips with the magnitude of problem in the entire Himalayan region.

The Cumulative Book Index, 1996 A world list of books in the English language      Climate Change and its Ecological Implications for the Western Himalaya V. L. Chopra, 2013-01-01 In its thirteen chapters this book deals with biophysical biological hydrological meteorological and socio economic aspects of western Himalayan region of India It emphasizes on the need for strengthening institutional and research capacities that are critical to delivering meaningful and sustainable outcomes impacts in return for the investments made It also makes recommendations for the policy planning and administrative interventions reforms necessary for efficient and equitable delivery of benefits to the intended beneficiaries and for conservation of the valuable natural resources of the region Each chapter has been prepared by a recognized expert in the identified area and the treatment bears the required mark of quality authenticity      Ruth Benedict Virginia Heyer Young, 2005-01-01 Benedict's work in fact anticipated trends in anthropology in the decades to come by projecting a framework of individuals not only shaped by their culture but also using their culture for personal or collective objectives
