Ecumenism Striving For Unity Amid Diversity:

Ecumenism Mark D. Lowery, 1985 Pentecostalism and Catholic Ecumenism In Developing Nations John Segun Odeyemi, 2019-04-29 Through fieldwork research this book seeks to explore Catholic ecumenism and the proliferation of Pentecostalism Using data gathered from four West African countries it additionally endeavors to investigate the sociopolitical impact of Pentecostalism which is growing exponentially and is seen by many as the new face and phase of Christianity on the continent This book puts a search light on the reality of West African Pentecostalism and its relationship with the older Christian traditions It cogently asks if Pentecostalism is a cog in the wheels of the fragile ecumenical work among West African Christianity and wonders about its impact on the poor existing social economic and political situations common to most West African politics and governments This book is for professionals and students of religion and theology and is useful for the casual reader Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in

Nigeria Casmir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men Cf Vatican II doc L G 1 Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father Cf Jn 17 21 This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative With this Council the Church acknowledged the possibility of Salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response both in ecumenical and interreligious relations Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria I became concerned and worried The present religious crises in Nigeria has escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword The Gift of the Church Peter C.

Phan, 2016-03-24 As the Church enters its third millennium it must take stock of its identity and mission These essays in The Gift of the Church address the fundamental issues confronting the Church in its immediate future Their authors represent the most prominent ecclesiologists of our time Written in honor of Patrick Granfield OSB these essays form a textbook for classes in ecclesiology They also are a useful tool for those engaged in various ministries in the Church to update themselves on the theology of different aspects of the Church The first section of essays discusses ecclesiology in its historical development as well as its methodology the second examines various aspects of the Church and the third part presents the life and work of Patrick Granfield The essays are clearly written and based on solid and extensive scholarship Ecclesiology has been the central theme of theological reflections since Vatican II and may continue to be in the next millennium This textbook fulfills in part Pope John Paul II's Vision for the Jubilee Year when Christians with a profound sense of commitment will likewise express their gratitude for the gift of the Church Essays and authors in Part One Ecclesiology in Historical Context are Theologies of the Church in the New Testament by Frank J. The Concept of Universal Religion in Modern Hindu Thought A. Sharma, 1998-10-19 Hindu thought has undergone a major reconfiguration in the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries in response to its encounter with the forces of modernity A key element in this reconfiguration is the perception of Hinduism itself as a universal religion or as a catalyst promoting the emergence of a universal religion or at the very least as promoting religious universalism This book examines the views of several major Hindu thinkers of this period Swami Vivekananda and Mahatma Gandhi prominent among them on this potent theme of modern Hinduism

Dreams of Heaven Hilary C. Achunike, 2017-07-29 Historical studies about Christianity in Igboland and elsewhere in Africa have largely concentrated on church activities especially on the work of expatriate missionary priests and the different denominations of Christianity adopted by the people But what about the peoples personal experience with their religion How does an Igbo man or woman see the Christian church as relevant to his or life Dreams of Heaven A Modern Response to Christianity in North Western Igboland 1970-1990 is the first serious contemporary study of how the Igbo people have responded to Christianity and how they continue to respond to it today It shows that the Igbo response to Christianity has changed with time and perspective and that even with an avidity for churches and religion the Igbo are largely disillusioned and even confused about the tenets and fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith The truth about Christianity in Igboland is that there are many who are Christian in name but pagan in practice largely due to the fracturing splintering and proliferation of churches and denominations which has made knowing true Christianity difficult for many people With a recognition of these facts however is born a hope for the Igbo to embrace Christian values and further their lives of faith

Hope in the Ecumenical Future Mark D. Chapman, 2017-09-20 This book offers fresh insights into the contemporary state of Ecumenism Following the election of Pope Francis there has been a significant thaw in ecumenical relations and there are grounds for thinking that this will continue into the future The twelve chapters written both by experienced ecumenical theologians as well as younger scholars that have been gathered together in this collection offer one of the first detailed assessments of the impact of Francis papacy on ecumenical dialogue Drawing on ecumenical methodology as well as many practical examples and illustrations the authors discuss the developments in culture and missiology as these affect the practice of ecumenism particularly in response to theologies of hope as well as inter religious dialogue and pluralism What emerges is a clear sense of hope for the future in a rapidly changing world and even a sense of optimism that real ecumenical progress might be made
