Mount Carmel and the prophet Elijah Basilea Schlink, 1988 A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism Hilaire Kallendorf, 2010 The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara Herrera Darcy Donahue Elena del Rio Parra Evelyn Toft Fernando Duran Lopez Piansisco Morales Freddy Dominguez Glyn Redworth Jane Ackerman Jessica Boon Jose Adriano de Freitas Carvalho Luce Lopez Barat Maria Mercedes Carrion Maryrica Lottman and Tess Knighton

Evidence in the Age of the New Sciences James A.T. Lancaster, Richard Raiswell, 2018-10-24 The motto of the Royal Society Nullius in verba was intended to highlight the members rejection of received knowledge and the new place they afforded direct empirical evidence in their quest for genuine useful knowledge about the world But while many studies have raised questions about the construction reception and authentication of knowledge Evidence in the Age of the New Sciences is the first to examine the problem of evidence at this pivotal moment in European intellectual history What constituted evidence and for whom Where might it be found How should it be collected and organized What is the relationship between evidence and proof These are crucial questions for what constitutes evidence determines how people interrogate the world and the kind of arguments they make about it In this important new collection Lancaster and Raiswell have assembled twelve studies that capture aspects of the debate over evidence in a variety of intellectual contexts From law and theology to geography medicine and experimental philosophy the chapters highlight the great diversity of approaches to evidence gathering that existed side by side in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries In this way the volume makes an important addition to the literature on early science and knowledge formation and will be of particular interest to scholars and advanced students in these fields
