Irish Novels 1890-1940 John Wilson Foster,2008-02-21 Studies of Irish fiction are still scanty in contrast to studies of Irish poetry and drama Attempting to fill a large critical vacancy Irish Novels 1890 1940 is a comprehensive survey of popular and minor fiction mainly novels published between 1890 and 1922 a crucial period in Irish cultural and political history Since the bulk of these sixty odd writers have never been written about certainly beyond brief mentions the book opens up for further exploration a literary landscape hitherto neglected perhaps even unsuspected This new landscape should alter the familiar perspectives on Irish literature of the period first of all by adding genre fiction science fiction detective novels ghost stories New Woman fiction and Great War novels to the Irish syllabus secondly by demonstrating the immense contribution of women writers to popular and mainstream Irish fiction Among the popular and prolific female writers discussed are Mrs J H Riddell B M Croker M E Francis Sarah Grand Katharine Tynan Ella MacMahon Katherine Cecil Thurston W M Letts and Hannah Lynch Indeed a critical inference of the survey is that if there is a discernible tradition of the Irish novel it is largely a female tradition A substantial postscript surveys novels by Irish women between 1922 and1940 and relates them to the work of their female antecedents This ground breaking survey should also alter the familiar perspectives on the Ireland of 1890 1922 Many of the popular works were problem novels and hence throw light on contemporary thinking and debate on the Irish Question After the Irish Literary Revival and creation of the Free State much popular and mainstream fiction became a lost archive neglected evidence indeed of a lost Ireland Monsters John Michael Greer, 2021-10-31 An Investigator's Guide to Magical Beings that takes you on a harrowing journey into the realm of monsters and the reality of the impossible Monsters brings together folklore Western magical philosophy and field experience This book is required reading for both active and armchair monster hunters Between these covers you will find a chilling collection of fiendish facts and folklore such as why true vampires are the least attractive five different kinds of ghosts the magical origins of the werewolf legends hidden connections between faery lore and UFOs and where dragons are found today This is an essential field guide to monsters from angels to zombies with advice on monster investigation and magical self defence This latest edition not only has a new chapter on tulpas but the chapters on vampires and chimeras are significantly expanded with new material Plus the section on monster investigation has been thoroughly updated with details on new technology and the approach of the media to monster hunting Elliott O'Donnell's Great Ghost Stories Elliott O'Donnell, 1984-02-01 The author recounts his experiences searching for ghosts and describes the history of each haunted site Spirits of the West Robert C. Belyk, 2014-04 The ghost of a scuba diver who still haunts the former British Columbia powerhouse where he met his death An Alberta theatre where entities have been seen heard and even felt so often that it deserves to be called one of the most haunted sites in North America The spirit of a dapper young man who is willing to share the second floor of a Saskatchewan museum as long as the employees don't linger after working hours The ghostly nun who still occupies the third floor of a former Manitoba convent and has a strange way of making her presence known The very frightening Captain High Liner who took a special interest in one family living in his old seaside house In his latest book in a series of western ghost story collections Spirits of the West Robert C Belyk relates the stories of ghosts both friendly and fearful who haunt museums hotels pubs houses and many other locations throughout western Canada These true stories will persuade the reader to turn on one more light during the long dark night Chicorel Index to Parapsychology and Occult Books Marietta Chicorel, 1978 A Brief Guide to Ghost Hunting Leo Ruickbie, 2013-08-15 There has been an upsurge in books television programmes films and websites exploring the reality or otherwise of the spirit world Not since the founding of The Ghost Club in 1862 and the Society for Psychical Research in 1882 has ghost hunting been so popular Television and the internet in particular have fueled this new level of interest creating a modern media phenomenon that spans the globe But while the demand for information is high good information remains scarce A Brief Guide to Ghost Hunting leads us through the process of ghost hunting from initially weighing the first report to choosing equipment and investigating and identifying the phenomena with an analysis of the best places to go looking methods of contacting the spirit world how to explain paranormal activity and crucially how to survive the encounter However it is also a book about ghost hunting itself drawing on 130 years of research in the cavernous archives of the Society for Psychical Research and even older history to find the earliest ghost stories A Ghost Hunting Survey makes use of interviews with those billing themselves as ghost hunters to find out their views motivations and experiences New and original research makes use of statistics to map the nebulous world of apparitions while a Preliminary Survey of Hauntings offers an analysis of 923 reported phenomena from 263 locations across the UK This is as far as possible an objective presentation of ghosts and ghost hunting It is no wonder that mainstream science largely refuses to deal with the subject it is too complicated Without trying to convince you of any viewpoint this book is intended to help you understand more

Haunted Places Dennis William Hauck, 2002 Describes over 2 000 sites of supernatural occurrences in the United States including places visited by ghosts UFOs and unusual creatures

Digging-Deep John G. Sabol Jr., 2009-09-25 Digging Deep is an excavation of the archaeological site called John Sabol It is an unearthing of the author's memory of experiences of past presences that cuts across space time and culture Water mining operations dust and dirt dogs and wolves and ghosts are seen as important features that are recovered from these memory excavations Some of the recalled practices that are unearthed include an alternative remembrance of trick or treat the multiple symmetrical worlds of history myth and ghosts in Winchester England the haunting nature of archaeological excavations and field surveys the actor's encounters with more than a filmed death scene and a search for a legendary monster in Arkansas All of these memories are perceived as symmetrically interrelated though they originate in different places They are viewed as a form of theatrical ghosting a resonating element that unfolds time as events and activities are framed by their contemporary significance in the author's life In this process of excavation a recurring haunting drama manifests in the life of this archaeologist who also happens to be a cultural anthropologist actor and ghost excavator
