Andrews Smith, 2010-10-04 With this book J Andrews Smith MSW makes a unique contribution to the fields of North Carolina historiography sociology and social work Almost 20 years ago Clyde F McSwain published a detailed account of his life at the Masonic Orphanage at Oxford North Carolina Nearly 10 years later Richard McKenzie published a penetrating memoir of his life in the Presbyterian Orphanage at Barium Springs North Carolina A few other full length recollections of orphanage life may have been written and published but there is no other book I think similar to this one by Mr Smith His is no less than a collection of firsthand accounts of life as lived by a succession of children in the Free Will Baptist Orphanage or Children's Home at Middlesex North Carolina over a period of nearly 90 years from the second decade of the 20th century to the first decade of the 21st century George Stevenson Jr Archivist 1970 2008 North Carolina State Archives Raleigh North Carolina Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2000 The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1907 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1884 The Churchman, 1882 New Outlook, 1907 The Westminster, 1909 Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1857 Goodwin's Weekly, 1917 The Marriage Agreement (a historical western marriage of convenience romance featuring a widowed hero with a child) Ruth Ann Nordin, Jesse Palmer headed to Omaha with his expectant wife and his mother in law When his wife dies in childbirth his mother in law blames him And worse she refuses to let him take care of his son In order to get his son back he needs to marry someone and fast And who better than the one who makes the offer Laura Rufus volunteers to marry Jesse so he can have his son knowing full well he's still mourning the loss of his first wife The last thing she plans on is falling in love with him but day by day his tenderness toward his son makes her wish she hadn't been so quick to propose a marriage of convenience Will there ever be something more between them or will she be stuck with the marriage agreement they made Herald and Presbyter, 1910 Reading, Wanting, and Broken Economics Simon R. Frost, 2021-05-01 Uses a historical study of bookselling and readers as a way to question and rethink our understanding of the market for symbolic goods Combining historical study theorization and experimental fiction this book takes commodity culture and book retail around 1900 as the prime example of a market of symbolic goods With the port of Southampton England as his case study Simon R Frost reveals how the city's bookshops with their combinations of libraries haberdashery stationery and books sustained and were sustained by the dreams of ordinary readers and how together they created the values powering this market The goods in this market were symbolic and were not consumed but read Their readings were created between other readers and texts in happy disobedience to the neoliberal laws of the free market Today such reader created social markets comprise much of the world's branded economies which is why Frost calls for a new understanding of both literary and market values San Francisco Daily Times, 1918 The Rock Michael R. Stark, 2019-08-25 The Fever burned hot and bright across a world unprepared for the devastation the virus would bring Stranded on a lonely barrier island William Hill struggled to make it through a brutal winter The days of easy food from the ocean had vanished when the cold set in The fish disappeared along with the ducks and even the shorebirds Everything had fled Everything except the demons The nights are dark the days a stumbling venture from one horror to the next The mainland offers hope but the reality is much different In one place William Hill stands in the center of a town where the scattered remains of the dead lie next to the road like litter tossed from passing cars where the search for the living fails to turn up even one soul Infected by a parasite destined to steal his mind hunted by the Chosen and dogged by a beautiful woman who claims to be an elf he sometimes wonders if life can get any stranger Then Daniel offers a glimpse of the coming world a place where cavorting beasts feast upon the dead where dragons haunt nearby forests where the hordes crawl from the ground by the millions and sweep across the earth The elf says she needs his blood to repair the rift between worlds to finally put an end to the madness He doesn't mind donating a little to the cause but the more he hears the more he doubts her intentions and the more the ceremony sounds like a full scale sacrifice In the end William discovers that he can count on nothing not even his sanity
