Elite Discourse And Racism:

Elite Discourse and Racism Teun A. Van Dijk, 1993-03-02 This study of elite racism which can be subtle but is in fact pervasive and sometimes mundane is an important contribution to the study of racism and a fine example of comparative race and ethnic studies Intended for undergraduate and graduate students and scholars it can also be profitably read by anyone interested in understanding the multiple manifestations of racism in U S and European societies Choice Elite Discourse and Racism Teun Adrianus Dijk, 1985 Transnational Perspectives on Culture, Policy, and Education Cameron McCarthy, Cathryn Teasley, 2008 This series publishes critical scholarship that seeks to engage and transcend the disciplinary isolationism and genre confinement that now characterize so much of contemporary research in communication studies and related fields It focuses on studies that address the broad intersections and hybrid trajectories that define the encounters between human groups in modern institutions and societies and the way these intersections are represented in contemporary popular cultural forms of knowledge The Ethics of Life Writing Paul John Eakin, 2004 Our lives are increasingly on display in public but the ethical issues involved in presenting such revelations remain largely unexamined How can life writing do good and how can it cause harm The eleven essays here explore such questions Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand

Savage Portrayals Natalie Byfield,2014-01-20 In 1989 the rape and beating of a white female jogger in Central Park made international headlines Many accounts reported the incident as an example of wilding episodes of poor minority youths roaming the streets looking for trouble Police intent on immediate justice for the victim coerced five African American and Latino boys to plead guilty The teenage boys were quickly convicted and imprisoned Natalie Byfield who covered the case for the New York Daily News now revisits the story of the Central Park Five from her perspective as a black female reporter in Savage Portrayals Byfield illuminates the race class and gender bias in the massive media coverage of the crime and the prosecution of the now exonerated defendants Her sociological analysis and first person account persuasively argue that the racialized reportage of the case buttressed efforts to try juveniles as adults across the nation Savage Portrayals casts new light on this famous crime and its far reaching consequences for the wrongly accused and the justice system

Mission Invisible Ross Perigoe,Mahmoud Eid,2014-03-01 For many Canadians the attacks of 9 11 produced feelings of insecurity vulnerability and suspicion of Arabs How did these negative attitudes come about Many point to the complicity of the news media in reproducing racist images of Muslim minorities Mission Invisible chronicles varying racialized constructions of Muslim communities in the news during the most significant stage of reportage the initial weeks when the events issues and primary actors of 9 11 were all first framed by journalists By unravelling the discourse and rhetoric of news coverage in Canada at the dawn of the 9 11 era this book not only uncovers racist representations of Muslim communities but also reveals the discursive processes that rendered this racism invisible

Terror of Neoliberalism Henry A. Giroux,2018-03-29 This book argues that neoliberalism is not simply an economic theory but also a set of values ideologies and practices that works more like a cultural field that is not only refiguring political and economic power but eliminating the very categories of the social and political as essential elements of democratic life Neoliberalism has become the most dangerous ideology of our time Collapsing the link between corporate power and the state neoliberalism is putting into place the conditions for a new kind of authoritarianism in which large sections of the population are increasingly denied the symbolic and economic capital necessary for engaged citizenship Moreover as corporate power gains a stranglehold on the media the educational conditions necessary for a democracy are undermined as politics is reduced to a spectacle essentially both depoliticizing politics and privatizing culture This series addresses the relationship among culture power politics and democratic struggles Focusing on how culture offers opportunities that may expand and deepen the prospects for an inclusive democracy it draws from struggles over the media youth political economy workers race feminism and more highlighting how each offers a site of both resistance and transformation Communication Yearbooks Vols 6-33 Set Various,2021-12-02 The Communication Yearbook annuals originally published between 1977 and 2009 publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline Topics dealt with include Communication as Process Research Methodology in Communication Communication Effects Taxonomy of Communication and European Communication Theory Information Systems Division Mass Communication Research Mapping the Domain of Intercultural Communication Public Relations Feminist Scholarship Communication Law and Policy Visual Communication Communication and Cross Sex Friendships Across the Life Cycle Television Programming and Sex Stereotyping InterCultural Communication Training Leadership and Relationships Media Performance Assessment Cognitive Approaches to Communication Language and Power John L Watzke,Paul Chamness Miller,Miguel Mantero,2022-01-01 The International Society for Language Studies ISLS introduces its second volume in the series Readings in Language Studies with Language and Power a text that represents international perspectives on power and bilingualism identity in professions media the learner and pedagogy Founded in 2002 ISLS is a world wide organization of volunteers scholars and practitioners committed to critical interdisciplinary and emergent approaches to language studies

The Nature of Prejudice Cristian Tileagă,2015-06-12 This book offers a critical synthesis of social psychology's contribution to the study of contemporary racism and proposes a critical reframing of our understanding of prejudice in European society today Chapters place a special emphasis on the diversity and intensity of prejudices against Romani people in a liberal progressive decent enlarged Europe Chapters ask how we can reconcile the European creed of law justice and freedom for all with social and political practices that exclude and degrade Romani people This volume addresses the need for a deeper recognition of societal foundations of ideologies of moral exclusion and calls for a closer and more thorough investigation of prejudices that stem from the societal transformation diminution or denial of moral worth of human beings and the various conditions and contexts that create and promote it By opening new intellectual dialogues the book reinvigorates a renewed social psychology of racism and creates a broader foundation for the exploration of the various active paradoxes at the heart of the social expression of prejudice in liberal democracies The Nature of Prejudice is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students interested in both the quantitative and qualitative study of discrimination inequality and social exclusion Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-04 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology Highlighting the contributions of anti colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the phobogenic and sexual dimensions of anti Blackness and the roles of desire fantasy and unconscious in ideologies of racism The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj Žižek This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion references and images with a new chapter on desire fantasy and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology psychoanalysis and sociology but for students enrolled in courses on race racism or decolonial studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues
