Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, B. H. D. Buchloh, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2003 Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, Johanna Burton, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2009 Text by Johanna Burton Ellsworth Kelly: Catalogue Raisonné of Paintings and Sculpture Yve-Alain Bois, 2021 Written by Kelly scholar Yve Alain Bois in direct collaboration with the artist's estate this comprehensive multivolume publication contains exhaustive documentation of each of Kelly's paintings, sculptures and reliefs. This is volume 2. The catalogue includes insightful texts and high quality images of individual works and preparatory drawings along with provenance information, exhibition history and bibliographic information The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums painting, sculpture and drawing changed in the twentieth century in response to photography, film and other technologies. Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures, Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction, putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee, Hans Bellmer, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Rauschenberg, Gerhard Richter, Chris Marker and Tacita Dean have worked, and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work. Original and broad-ranging, The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew Matrix, 1975 Radical Form Megan A. Sullivan, 2022-08-23 A timely reassessment of some of the most daring projects of abstraction from South America. Emphasizing the open-ended and self-critical nature of the projects of abstraction in South America from the 1930s through the mid 1960s, this important new volume focuses on the artistic practices of Joaquín Torres García, Tomás Maldonado, Alejandro Otero and Lygia Clark. Megan A. Sullivan positions the adoption of modernist abstraction by South American artists as part of a larger critique of the economic and social transformations caused by Latin America's state-led programs of rapid industrialization. Sullivan thoughtfully explores the diverse ways this skepticism of modernization and social and political change was expressed. Ultimately, the book makes it clear that abstraction in South America was understood not as an artistic style to be followed but as a means to imagine a universalist mode of art, a catalyst for individual and collective agency and a way to express a vision of a better future for South American society The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order, these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Agnes Martin - Transcultural Translations Mona Schieren, 2025-02-27 The work of Agnes Martin has frequently been associated with East Asian philosophies. Particularly highlighting the oeuvre of this US artist, Mona Schieren presents comprehensive research on the influence of Asianist aesthetics in post-1945 American art. More than just historical analysis her study opens an entirely new perspective on Martin's appropriation of Asianisms by focusing on transcultural translation and redefining Martin's work beyond Abstract Expressionism and Minimalism This offers new viewpoints on the aesthetic philosophical and visual relationships in American postwar art and takes a nuanced approach that moves beyond generalized notions of Zen in the US art world Schieren's exploration of the intentional and specific uses of Asianist aesthetics profoundly contributes to insights in international art histories and cultural translations Seeing Rothko Glenn Phillips, Thomas E. Crow, 2005 I am interested only in expressing basic human emotions tragedy ecstasy doom Mark Rothko 1903 1970 said of his paintings If you are moved only by their colour relationships then you miss the point Throughout his career Rothko was concerned with what other people experienced when they looked at his canvases As his work shifted from figurative imagery to luminous fields of colour his concern expanded to the setting in which his paintings were exhibited Photography and the Art of Chance Robin Kelsey, 2015-05-26 As anyone who has wielded a camera knows photography has a unique relationship to chance It also represents a struggle to reconcile aesthetic aspiration with a mechanical process Robin Kelsey reveals how daring innovators expanded the aesthetic limits of photography in order to create art for a modern world Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey, 2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically

American Moderns on Paper Erin Monroe, Carol Troyen, 2010 American Moderns on Paper presents a selection of approximately 100 of the finest watercolors pastels and drawings by leading American modernists from the Wadsworth Atheneum's renowned collection of American art Works by Sloan O Keefe Hopper Marin Dal and Wyeth among many others serve as notable examples of the various styles and subjects pursued by artists in America from 1910 to 1960 The catalogue entries are accompanied by artist biographies Organized chronologically and generously illustrated throughout the catalogue is introduced by two essays exploring the historical significance of the collection and the importance to American modernists of working on paper rather than canvas Providing a rich history of the collection the volume illuminates not only its historic roots but also the concurrent national evolution of interest in watercolor and drawings Published in association with the Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art Exhibition Schedule Amon Carter Museum Fort Worth TX 2 27 10 5 30 10 Portland Museum of Art Portland ME 6 22 10 9 12 10 Wadsworth Atheneum Museum of Art Hartford CT 10 2 10 1 2 11 Face to Face Hans-Michael Herzog, Daros Collection (Art), 2008 Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jaar and Louise Bourgeois among many others In 2000 when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established the museum boldly struck off in a new direction and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded Already comprising roughly 1 000 works by around 100 artists including Carlos Amorales Jos Bedia Alfredo Jaar Gego Guillermo Kuitca Vik Muniz among others it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long term ramifications for contemporary European art Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon oriented perspectives Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds Ellsworth Kelly, Sculpture

Miriam Kienle, 2023-11-28 How the queer correspondence art of Ray Johnson disrupted art world conventions and anticipated today s highly networked culture Once regarded as New York s most famous unknown artist Ray Johnson was a highly visible outlier in the art world his mail art practice reflecting the changing social relations and politics of queer communities in the 1960s A vital contribution to the growing scholarship on this enigmatic artist Queer Networks analyzes how Johnson s practice sought to undermine the dominant mechanisms of the art market and gallery system in favor of unconventional social connections Utilizing the postal service as his primary means of producing and circulating art Johnson cultivated an international community of friends and collaborators through which he advanced his idiosyncratic body of work Applying both queer theory and network studies Miriam Kienle explores how Johnson s radical correspondence art established new modes of connectivity that fostered queer sensibilities and ran counter to the conventional methods by which artists were expected to develop their reputation While Johnson was significantly involved with the Pop conceptual and neo Dada art movements Queer Networks crucially underscores his resistance to traditional art historical systems of categorization and their emphasis on individual mastery Highlighting his alternative modes of community building and playful antagonism toward art world protocols Kienle demonstrates how Ray Johnson s correspondence art offers new ways of envisioning togetherness in today s highly commodified and deeply networked world
