Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, B. H. D. Buchloh, Matthew Marks Gallery, 2003 Ellsworth Kelly Ellsworth Kelly, 2011

Ellsworth Kelly is one of the most important living American painters and sculptors. His career is closely tied to the abstract style of hard edge painting in the Sixties with color field painting and the Minimalist school. His works demonstrate unassuming techniques that emphasize the simplicity of form frequently enhanced by bright colors. Alongside his geometrical paintings, Kelly is famous for his beautiful drawings of plants, flowers, and leaves, which were shown together with Matisse's plant drawings at the Centre Pompidou in Paris in 2002. His book of drawings and watercolors is appearing to coincide with a large museum show that starts at Graphische Sammlung Munich in fall 2011 and which will travel on to the Metropolitan Museum New York in spring 2012. Two texts by the curators Michael Semff Munich and Marla Prather New York describe the plant drawings in the context of Ellsworth Kelly's oeuvre as a whole. Ellsworth Kelly's plant drawings played a central role in his art. The drawings from plant life seem to be the bridge to the way of seeing that brought about the paintings in 1949 that are the basis for all my later work. Kelly wrote in 1969: They are exact observations of the form of the leaf or flower or fruit seen. Nothing is changed or added, no shading, no surface marking. This catalogue features over thirty drawings made between 1949 and 2008, all published here for the first time. Kelly drew them from life, sometimes barely lifting the pencil as he translated each plant's contours to paper. Despite the immediacy of their execution, the drawings share a great deal with his paintings and sculptures, not only in their focus on direct visual impressions but also in their fascination with the effects of negative space and overlapping planes. Galerie d'art graphique, Inverleith House, Royal Botanic Garden, 2002. This collection of work by Henri Matisse and Ellsworth Kelly is based on an exhibition of more than 100 rarely exhibited drawings organized by the Centre Pompidou in Paris. A comparative display, the exhibition focuses on the role of drawing in the work of these two distinctly different 20th-century masters. Henri Matisse (1869-1954) is recognized for the lyrical form and decorative aesthetic seen in his paintings and colourful paper cut-outs. Ellsworth Kelly (born 1923) is known for the monumental abstract forms of his sculpture and the bold colours of his hard edge paintings. Yet both artists explored their concepts in prolific studies of plants, often in series in which each drawing existed on its own terms as well as part of an infinite process. Ellsworth Kelly Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.).
