The East Coast Main Line 1939-1959 (Volume 2) Peter Tuffrey,B. W. L. Brooksbank,2022-07-02 The first detailed study of this huge mainline through its operational history Features extended commentaries from the authors rich in detail Superbly illustrated with black and white photographs many never seen before In this second and final volume the whole of the East Coast Main Line between King's Cross and Edinburgh Waverley stations is examined closely with a particular emphasis on the ways and structures the line stations connections yards and other physical features Interposed are accounts of the traffic at the principal stations including connecting and branch line services with observations on changes over the period 1939 to 1959 Some emphasis is placed on freight traffic on account of its importance and perhaps its relative unfamiliarity to the reader The lines stations and many other elements are described as they were in August 1939 but as some plans on which they are based are dated before the late 1930s there may be marginal differences from the precise layout in 1939

The Great Eastern Railway, The Late 19th and Early 20th Century, 1862-1924 Charles Phillips,2024-08-30 This is the second volume of the history of the Great Eastern Railway from 1811 to 1924 This volume covers from 1862 when the Great Eastern Railway was formed to 1924 when with the absorption of the Colne Valley and Halstead Railway and the Mid Suffolk Light Railway into the LNER the cessation of locomotive building at Stratford and the departure of the Company's last General Manager Sidney Parnwell the GER could finally be said to exist The history covers many things including the building and the subsequent expansion of Liverpool Street station and the development of the extensive suburban system The Company's attempts to gain direct access to the northern coal fields which resulted in the formation of the Great Northern and Great Eastern Joint Line is mentioned as is the abortive proposed working union with the Great Northern and the Great Central railways Relations with London Tilbury and Southend Railway including the battle for the Southend traffic from 1911 are dealt with as is the effect of Midland Railway takeover of that Railway How the GER dealt with the threat of electric tube railways at the turn of the 20th century receives attention as do the abortive proposals in 1918 for the electrification of the Company's suburban services
