Emily Loves Getting Dressed We Love Dressing Up:

Emily Loves Getting Dressed Caroline Uff, 2005 Emily likes to splash in puddles on rainy days and she especially loves to play in her paddling pool when it's sunny What will Emily wear Children will love dressing Emily in this delightfully chunky board book with press out clothing pieces There are four mix and match outfits with bright fuzzy flocking details to make the pieces feel like real clothes With dozens of jumbled up combinations to create this book will provide hours of entertainment Ideal for preschoolers who love to play dressing up

Sweet Mystery Judith Hillman Paterson, 2019-12-10 An exquisitely written memoir combining sorrow and joy anger and forgiveness suffering and healing that affirms the resilience and strength that imbue the human spirit Judith Paterson was just nine years old in 1946 when her mother died of a virulent combination of alcoholism and mental illness at the age of 31 Sweet Mystery A Book of Remembering is Paterson's harrowing account of the memories of her mother told with eloquence and understanding Set largely in Montgomery Alabama the story plays out against a backdrop of relatives troubled almost as much by southern conflicts over race and class as by the fallout from a long family history of drinking denial and mental illness While rich in the details and flavor of small town life in the South during the 1940s Sweet Mystery transcends time and regionalism to evoke universal American themes Ultimately it confirms the damaging effects of early trauma on children as well as the innate and familial strengths that enable some children to survive grow up and heal Originally published in 1996 to critical acclaim in the national media Sweet Mystery was called a beautifully written excruciating collision of form and emotion joy and pain willpower and self examination control and surrender by the Washington Post This edition contains a new afterword written by the author as well as a list of suggested readings

Thinking Tools for Young Readers and Writers Carol Booth Olson, Angie Balias, Emily McCartney, Mary Widtmann, 2018 In her new book bestselling author and professional developer Carol Booth Olson and colleagues show teachers how to help young readers and writers construct meaning from and with texts This practical resource offers a rich array of research based teaching strategies activities and extended lessons focused on the thinking tools employed by experienced readers and writers It shows teachers how to draw on the natural connections between reading and writing and how cognitive strategies can be embedded into the teaching of narrative informational and argumentative texts Including artifacts and written work produced by students across the grade levels the authors connect the cognitive and affective domains for full student engagement This book seamlessly bridges the gap from research to everyday practice You get an extremely well organized set of overarching instructional principles that are right for our era and brought to life through well explained instructional guides and classroom activities From the Foreword by Judith Langer University at Albany SUNY I have always admired Carol Booth Olson's work with secondary students and teachers She now applies those essential principles and practices to elementary and middle school students Bravo P David Pearson professor emeritus University of California Berkeley
