In Defense of Lost Causes Slavoj Žižek, 2009-10-19 The renowned philosophical sharpshooter looks for the kernel of truth in the fascist politics of the past offering an adrenaline fueled manifesto for universal values Is global emancipation a lost cause Are universal values outdated relics of an earlier age In fear of the horrors of totalitarianism should we submit ourselves to a miserable third way of economic liberalism and government as administration In this combative major work philosophical sharpshooter Slavoj Žižek takes on the reigning ideology with a plea that we should re appropriate several lost causes and look for the kernel of truth in the totalitarian politics of the past Examining Heidegger's seduction by fascism and Foucault's flirtation with the Iranian Revolution he suggests that these were the right steps in the wrong direction He argues that while the revolutionary terror of Robespierre Mao and the Bolsheviks ended in historic failure and monstrosity this is not the whole story There is in fact a redemptive moment that gets lost in the outright liberal democratic rejection of revolutionary authoritarianism and the valorization of soft consensual decentralized politics Žižek claims that particularly in light of the forthcoming ecological crisis we should reinvent revolutionary terror and the dictatorship of the proletariat in the struggle for universal emancipation We need to courageously accept the return to this Cause even if we court the risk of a catastrophic disaster In the words of Samuel Beckett Try again Fail again Fail better
