Emotional Difficulties in Reading Beulah Kanter Ephron, 1968 Dynamic Functioning of Resting State Networks in Physiological and Pathological Conditions Roberto Esposito, Filippo Cieri, Nicoletta Cera, Dante Mantini, Alessandra Griffa, 2021-02-24 Emotional Difficulties in Reading Beulah (Kanter) Ephron, 1953 Perspectives of Cognitive, Psychosocial, and Learning Difficulties From Childhood to Adulthood: Practical Counseling Strategies Sofologi, Maria, Kougioumtzis, Georgios, Koundourou, Christiana, 2023-05-16 Children with learning disabilities can be as sharp as their peers however they may find it challenging to write read reason out information spell things correctly or process information Due to this it is critical for students to understand the ways of learning that suit them the best They may not be aware of the different ways they can learn or may not be able to develop a self reliant approach to learning and will often seek help Perspectives of Cognitive Psychosocial and Learning Difficulties From Childhood to Adulthood Practical Counseling Strategies provides a guide for understanding learning difficulties and sheds light on a variety of strategies that can be implemented in the class by teachers The book also underscores the importance of literacy and numeracy and the relationship between learning difficulties and student wellbeing Covering key topics such as counseling coping strategies and interventions this premier reference source is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars academicians practitioners instructors and students Analytical Therapy (Jungian): Strategies, Emotional Challenges and Different Contexts Edenilson Brandl, Psychology is a constantly evolving discipline that in recent years has increasingly focused on developing effective therapeutic approaches to meet the needs of different populations and contexts In this context Analytical Therapy Jungian emerges as an approach that offers a deep understanding of the human psyche and promotes personal development integration of different aspects of personality and conflict resolution This book features a collection of chapters that explore the application of Analytic Jungian Therapy in different contexts and populations Each chapter addresses a specific topic such as coping skills in patients with mental disorders social skill development effective communication and emotion regulation The chapters in this book are written by experts in Analytic Jungian Therapy who share their clinical experiences case studies and strategies for clinical application Each chapter is designed to be practical and applied providing examples of how Analytic Jungian Therapy can be adapted to meet the specific needs of each population and context This book is essential reading for psychologists therapists health professionals and patients who want to explore the application of Analytical Jungian Therapy in their clinical practice or in their everyday lives It offers a comprehensive and accessible understanding of Analytic Jungian Therapy and how it can be used to promote personal development emotional regulation and conflict resolution in different contexts and populations Stress and Reading Difficulties Lance M. Gentile, Merna M. McMillan, 1987 Focusing on the personality of the reading disabled child this booklet is designed to encourage researchers to move past the circular debate concerning student reading difficulties and to help teachers improve the reading performance of students with disabling stress reactions to reading The first section examines research related to emotional maladjustment in reading providing both a framework for interpreting this body of knowledge and a theoretical basis for developing effective intervention The second section introduces the Stress Reaction Scale for Reading an instrument designed to assist teachers in identifying students specific stress reactions in reading Characteristics essential to adequate reading assessment are also discussed as are issues pertinent to teachers self assessment The third section suggests that students with fight or flight FOF stress reactions to reading should be taught to 1 set explicit reasonable goals for themselves 2 arrange rewards and incentives for their efforts 3 monitor their self defeating reactions when reading is stressful and 4 use a variety of direct coping strategies The final section outlines a general seven step approach to a 1 hour session with FOF students A list of related readings is included for parents and teachers interested in learning more about helping students make adaptive responses to FOF stress reactions JD What about Reading

Failure? Joe Peterson,1972 Understanding Mental Health Across Educational Contexts Lindsey Jaber,2024-08-12 Understanding Mental Health Across Educational Contexts provides an overview of mental health and mental health disorders from a Canadian classroom perspective Providing definitions and current understandings of mental health challenges and disorders commonly found in K 12 classrooms this text equips future educators with a toolbox of strategies and resources that they can use inside the classroom Recognition and support for students and educators struggling with mental health or a mental health disorder has been growing in demand and this text addresses the importance of this conversation in education while focusing on the interplay of student teacher and family Divided into two sections on core concepts and practical applications this edited collection covers topics such as mental health disorders frequently encountered within school settings and their relationships with academic achievement technology neurodiversity and career development Indigenous queer and anti racist practice and praxis educator mental health and wellness trauma informed teaching and creating mentally healthy classrooms This essential text is foundational for future educators and those in courses covering child and youth care exceptional learners early childhood education or social work Courses covering mental health counselling or psychology will also find value in this reference guide for common challenges faced by young people or families The Management of Children with Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Ved Varma,2015-06-18 The management of children with emotional and behavioural difficulties has always been a source of worry and concern to those who have to deal with them Many such children are unpredictable sometimes embarrassing and can often make us feel helpless We need to know more about them and why they think feel and behave as they do Originally published in 1990 the contributors to this volume bring a wide ranging professional practical approach to the problem looking at it from the perspectives of psychiatry psychology psychotherapy education and social work They underline the fact that such behaviour cannot be assessed in isolation from the context in which it occurs and go beyond a mere description of maladjusted children to ask Maladjusted to what And under what conditions The social and family context is continually borne in mind The book will still be of great interest to psychologists psychiatrists psychotherapists teachers and social workers as well as to students in those disciplines who will find it an invaluable source to help them in their first encounters with child patients clients and pupils Research in Education ,1971 The Routledge International Companion to Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Ted Cole,Harry Daniels,John Visser,2012-10-12 Responding to disruptive or troubled pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties EBD remains a highly topical issue The challenges these children present relate to wider issues of continuing political concern the perceived declining discipline in schools school and social exclusion the limits to inclusion for children with special needs increasing mental health difficulties in children youth crime and parenting skills It s little wonder that the EBD often known as BESD or SEBD category is one of the most common forms of SEN around the world This topical and exhaustively researched Companion examines the difficulties of defining EBD and the dangers of allocating this imprecise label to children Bringing together the work of contributors from fifteen countries and across four continents this book features the research of leading experts in the global field of EBD who discuss and debate educators key concerns by looking at the overlaps between EBD ADHD and mental health difficulties outlining the types of appropriate schooling for children with EBD urging readers to look beyond pupils challenging behaviour in order to understand and respond to the social biological and psychological causation considering the key areas of assessment whole school and targeted approaches that help pupils with EBD in mainstream and in special settings outlining helpful work with families the crucial contribution of effective multi agency working and the importance of supporting and developing teachers who work with challenging pupils Containing contrasting views on controversial topics this Companion s approachable style makes it an essential reference book for academics policy makers practitioners educators and students who are working towards a higher degree in education Principles of Classroom Learning and Perception Richard J. Mueller,2017-09-13 Originally published in 1974 this introductory text has been designed specifically for teachers in training and it presents the basic psychological principles governing learning perception motivation and the retention of knowledge at the time The text is carefully tailored for would be teachers in its clear and informal style and in its selective aspects of psychology which the teacher can use to advantage in his efforts to assist the child The book has an eclectic approach to psychological theory drawing upon the insights of behaviourism perceptualism and the Gestalt school as well as the developmental theories of Jean Piaget The author discusses in some detail theories concerning the nature of intelligence and the relationship between creativity and intelligence and he investigates the dynamics of social adjustment introducing the part that may be played by meditation in helping to solve some of the problems of emotional stress within the learning situation In his consideration of the management of learning the author lays much emphasis upon the importance of individual cognitive styles individualizing instruction and independent learning In one chapter Dr Mueller is concerned with factors in the measurement of personality and of performance in the classroom and he reflects upon the specific problem of objectivity in such assessment Finally some consideration is given to the problems and characteristics of the socially disadvantaged child and to the role of the teacher in helping to solve some of the learning problems of these children

Research Relating to Children; Bulletin Clearinghouse for Research in Child Life (U.S.),1961 Reading Difficulties Guy Loraine Bond,1984 Research Relating to Children ,1961-10 Role of the School in Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency William Revere Carriker,1963 Five papers are included Existing and projected research on individual and group approaches in the treatment of juvenile delinquency by David Wineman discusses the informal interview as a technique for teating specific ego malfunctions Two methods are suggested emotional first aid for moments of great stress and long range training for more permanent health the school having considerable influence on the child is presumed to be in a position to apply these techniques Research on the school work study program in the prevention of juvenile delinquency by Robert J Havighurst proposes starting work study as early as age 13 or 14 to keep lower class boys and girls motivated and give them opportunity for growth experimentation and training of special supervisors would be needed Existing and projected research on reading in relationship to juvenile delinquency by Gordon P Liddle seeks a relationship between failure in reading and delinquency The prevention of delinquent subcultures issues and problems by Richard A Cloward sets forth problems faced in dealing with the three major types of gangs among lower class boys Two roles for schools in reducing juvenile delinquency by William W Wattenburg discusses two methods of early detection and guidance of delinquents Abstract from ERIC
