Challenges of Economic Development in the Middle East and North Africa Region Julia Devlin,Julia C. Devlin,2010 This book surveys major economic issues in the development of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region since World War II It presents a framework of analysis highlighting underlying continuities in the region s approach to issues of growth management of oil and natural resources post conflict environments progress in trade liberalization and regional integration the use of industrial policy labor market adjustment and unemployment educational attainment and poverty incidence At the same time this book focuses on emerging differences across countries in the region in the prevailing approach to addressing such challenges most notably between the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council and other MENA countries This book also incorporates a discussion of tools and methods used by development practitioners and briefly examines issues of aid effectiveness The approach used is intended to appeal to a wide audience including students of economic development political scientists and development practitioners

Institutional Reform & Economic Development in Egypt Noha El-Mikawy,Heba Ahmad Handoussa,2002 This pioneering volume addresses the key issue of the relationship between politics and economics with special reference to Egypt in the 1990s Drawing on the expertise of both political scientists and economists it assembles an impressive array of data including detailed opinion surveys to demonstrate conclusively that political and economic reform need to proceed in tandem In an insightful analysis of the Egyptian legislature the authors draw attention to a fundamental aspect of institutional reform namely the informational and knowledge base of legislation as well as the organizational infrastructure of policy formulation As regards Egypt s economic performance since the early 1990s they focus in particular on impediments to improved export performance and offer solid recommendations as to how such obstacles might be overcome This stimulating study makes a timely contribution to political economic analysis which may at the same time prove helpful in the formulation of new policies

Facing Barriers Vered

Kraus, Yuval P. Yonay, 2018-03-22 Palestinian women have slowly become active in the formal labor market in Israel In this book Vered Kraus and Yuval Yonay describe and analyse the labor experience of these Palestinian women and explain why Palestinian and Jewish women have different rates and outcomes in the labor market Challenging popular views that ascribe these differences to Arab culture and Islam they instead find that it is state policies and widespread discrimination that hinder Palestinian women's participation and success By including the various Palestinian sub groups Muslims Bedouins Druze Christians non citizen residents of Jerusalem this book shows how the specific life circumstances of the women from these subgroups affect their employment and achievements The book thus enriches the acute discussion on the labour market experiences of Muslim and Arab women in the Middle East and North Africa and in advanced industrialized societies
