Modeling Discourse Topic Dionysis Goutsos, 1997 This book is a study of techniques used to introduce continue and change the discourse topic in expository writing Discourse topic is examined by focusing on the sequential techniques and strategies in a step by step process To describe the process a model of sequentiality is proposed The aims of the book are to advance current thinking in discourse analysis and to provide a practical exemplar of expository discourse

Expository Discourse Beverly Lewin, Jonathan Fine, Lynne Young, 2005-08-01 This volume provides a detailed and explicit account of the genre of social science research articles While previous literature has analyzed some aspects of the research genre separately this book presents a comprehensive model which characterizes the generic registerial and discursual options as they interweave within a text

Joseph Robert E. Longacre, 2003 In this fully revised second edition of Joseph A Story of Divine Providence Robert Longacre approaches the Joseph story as a paradigm for an approach incorporating the interests of the Old Testament scholar and critic with the interests of the contemporary textlinguist His study seeks to explore several questions How does one approach an ancient text What does one hope to gain from its study How do we orient ourselves in regard to this story Does our orientation provide a key to our understanding of the story or does it simply hinder our approaching the story in an unbiased and objective matter The book is comprised of four parts the first three exploring the connection Longacre seeks to establish between textlinguistics and biblical studies The fourth part is a constituent display of the entire Joseph pericope This new edition of Longacre's landmark work incorporates a more user friendly format particularly noticeable in Part 4 Constituent Display of Joseph The book also includes new textlinguistic insights and updated references
