Beyond Sounds and Words / Poza dźwięki i słowa Anna Niżegorodcew, Maria Jodłowiec, The present volume is a token of gratitude for our colleague Janina Aniela Ozga, a senior lecturer at the Institute of English Philology of the Jagiellonian University. The book is a collection of papers on a wide spectrum of topics ranging from Hamlet to Zoolander, which reflect diverse academic interests of the authors: literary theory, linguistics, translation studies, philosophy of language, history, and language teaching. The common thread running through all the papers is the desire of the authors, all of them humanists involved in academic pursuits, to place in a theoretical perspective of their discipline and shed new light on an interesting research problem in literature, art, language use, or language teaching that they have identified.

Words and The Word Stephen Prickett, 1986. First published in 1986, Stephen Prickett's Words and The Word has had a major impact among scholars of literature and literary theory, as well as among theologians and biblical critics. In this highly acclaimed book, Prickett pursues the question of the relationship between religion and poetics, and in particular, the nature of religious language investigating the hermeneutic epistemological and linguistic reverberations of eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth century theories of biblical interpretation      Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney,2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing      Christian Register and Boston Observer... ,1902
