Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett,2016-08-01 Most of the major black literary and cultural movements of the twentieth century have been understood and interpreted as secular secularizing and at times profane In this book Josef Sorett demonstrates that religion was actually a formidable force within these movements animating and organizing African American literary visions throughout the years between the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s and the Black Arts movement of the 1960s Sorett unveils the contours of a literary history that remained preoccupied with religion even as it was typically understood by authors readers and critics alike to be modern and therefore secular Spirit in the Dark offers an account of the ways in which religion especially Afro Protestantism remained pivotal to the ideas and aspirations of African American literature across much of the twentieth century From the dawn of the New Negro Renaissance until the ascendance of the Black Arts movement black writers developed a spiritual grammar for discussing race and art by drawing on terms such as church and spirit that were part of the landscape and lexicon of American religious history Sorett demonstrates that religion and spirituality have been key categories for identifying and interpreting what was or was not perceived to constitute or contribute to black literature and culture By examining figures and movements that have typically been cast as secular he offers theoretical insights that trouble the boundaries of what counts as sacred in scholarship on African American religion and culture Ultimately Spirit in the Dark reveals religion to be an essential ingredient albeit one that was always questioned and contested in the forging of an African American literary tradition

African American Religious Thought Cornel West,Eddie S. Glaude,2003-01-01 Believing that African American religious studies has reached a crossroads Cornel West and Eddie Glaude seek in this landmark anthology to steer the discipline into the future Arguing that the complexity of beliefs choices and actions of African Americans need not be reduced to expressions of black religion West and Glaude call for more careful reflection on the complex relationships of African American religious studies to conceptions of class gender sexual orientation race empire and other values that continue to challenge our democratic ideals

Good Books Matter Larry Swartz,Debbie Nyman,2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children s

books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level
