The International Distribution of News Jonathan Silberstein-Loeb, 2014-02-24 Based on newly available and extensive archival evidence this book traces the history of international news agencies and associations around the world from 1848 to 1947 Jonathan Silberstein Loeb argues that newspaper publishers formed news associations and patronized news agencies to cut the costs of news collection and exclude competitors from gaining access to the news In this way cooperation facilitated the distribution of news The extent to which state regulation permitted cooperation or prohibited exclusivity determined the benefit newspaper publishers derived from these organizations This book revises our understanding of the operation and organization of the Associated Press the BBC the Press Association Reuters and the United Press It also sheds light on the history of competition policy respecting the press intellectual property and the regulation of telecommunications media provided a cumulative cultural validation of racing helping define national and regional identity and encouraging the affluent consumption of sporting experience and a frank enjoyment of betting The broader cultural approach of the first half of the book is followed by an exploration of the internal culture of racing itself A Bit of a Flutter Mark Clapson,1992
