Wisconsin, 1880 Identity in Science Fiction Tom Cochrane, 2025-09-18 In the first science fiction and philosophy anthology to focus on identity a set of exemplary stories raise deep questions about who and what we are Featuring classic authors and brand new work we are confronted with a fundamental metaphysical topic within every story Are we souls brains animals or patterns of information Are the Buddhists right to say that the self is an illusion Do we survive under conditions such as total amnesia or the destruction of the body Each story is accompanied by an introductory overview and narrative explaining the ideas and the principal philosophical arguments behind it Alongside deeper appreciation of stories by authors such as Roald Dahl John Varly J R Dawson and Ursula Le Guin we are seamlessly introduced to the philosophy of personal identity through memorable fiction The Barbie Murders depicts a society in which each member conforms to a strict template for their physical and mental characteristics Marley and Marley follows a middle aged woman who takes part in a government program to travel back in time to take care of her orphaned younger self Edward the Conqueror illustrates the concept of the soul as an essence of a person that persists while other things about them may change Thought provoking and highly entertaining this one of a kind anthology challenges traditional beliefs around how we see ourselves and allows us to understand what it means to be human
