Emerging Humanity; Multi-ethnic Literature for Children and Adolescents Ruth Kearney Carlson,1972 Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer,1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself History of Multicultural Education Volume 5 Carl A. Grant,Thandeka K. Chapman,2013-10-23 This benchmark 6 volume set documents analyzes and critiques a comprehensive body of research on the history of multicultural education in the U S The volumes reflect the tenets of multicultural education its history its present and individuals whose work has contributed significantly to equity and social justice for all citizens By collecting and providing a framework for key publications spanning the last 30 40 years this set provides a means of understanding and visualizing the development implementation and interpretation of multicultural education in American society The volumes do not promote any one scholar s or group s vision of multicultural education but include conflicting ideals that inform multiple interpretations Each volume contains archival documents organized around a specific theme Conceptual Frameworks and Curricular Content Foundations and Stratifications Instruction and Assessment Policy and Governance Students and Student Achievement Teachers and Teacher Education The historical time line within each volume illustrates the progression of research and theory on its theme and encourages readers to reflect on the changes in language and thinking concerning educational scholarship in that area Images of Southeast Asia in Children's Fiction Nam Chen Lai,1981 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Mingshui Cai, 2002-10-30 There is much discussion of multiculturalism in education This is especially true of multicultural literature for children and young adults The rise of multicultural literature is a political rather than a literary movement it is a movement to claim space in literature and in education for historically marginalized social groups rather than one to renovate the craft of literature itself Multicultural literature has been closely bound with the cause of multiculturalism in general and thus has been confronted with resistance from conservatives This book discusses many of the controversial issues surrounding multicultural literature for children and young adults The volume begins with a look at some of the foundational and theoretical issues related to multicultural literature The second part of the book addresses issues related to the creation and critique of multicultural literature including the authorship of such works and the role of the reader in determining whether or not a work is multicultural The third looks at the place of multicultural literature in the education of children and young adults Throughout its discussion the book makes extensive references to a large body of multicultural fiction and provides a thorough review of research on this important topic
