Art Is Not What You Think It Is Donald Preziosi, Claire Farago, 2012-02-13 Art Is Not What You Think It Is utilizes original research to present a series of critical incursions into the current state of debate on the idea of art making manifest what has been largely missing or unsaid in those discussions Links museology history theory and criticism to the realities of contemporary social conditions and shows how they have structurally functioned in a variety of contexts Deals with divisive and controversial problems such as blasphemy and idolatry and the problem of artistic truth Addresses relations between European notions about art and artifice and those developed in other and especially indigenous cultural traditions

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-10-22 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate The Oxford Companion to Aboriginal Art and Culture Margo Neale, Sylvia Kleinert, Robyne Bancroft, 2000 A comprehensive overview covering indigenous Australian art archeological traditions styles of the contact period nineteenth century art trends and the development of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander practices A Companion to Textile Culture Jennifer Harris, 2020-08-17 A lively and innovative collection of new and recent writings on the cultural contexts of textiles The study of textile culture is a dynamic field of scholarship which spans disciplines and crosses traditional academic boundaries A Companion to Textile Culture is an expertly curated compendium of new scholarship on both the historical and contemporary cultural dimensions of textiles bringing together the work of an interdisciplinary team of recognized experts in the field The Companion provides an expansive examination of textiles within the broader area of visual and material culture and addresses key issues central to the contemporary study of the subject A wide range of methodological and theoretical approaches to the subject are explored technological anthropological philosophical and psychoanalytical amongst others and developments that have influenced academic writing about textiles over the past decade are discussed in detail Uniquely the text embraces archaeological textiles from the first millennium AD as well as contemporary art and performance work that is still ongoing This authoritative volume Offers a balanced presentation of writings from academics artists and curators Presents writings from disciplines including histories of art and design world history anthropology archaeology and literary studies Covers an exceptionally broad chronological and geographical range Provides diverse global transnational and narrative perspectives Included numerous images throughout the text to illustrate key concepts A Companion to Textile Culture is an essential resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students instructors and researchers of textile history contemporary textiles art and design visual and material culture textile crafts and museology A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike

Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation s colonial art history

The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills Ian Clark, Fred Cahir, 2013-07-22 The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is the first major study of Aboriginal associations with the Burke and Wills expedition of 1860-61 A main theme of the book is the contrast between the skills perceptions and knowledge of the Indigenous people and those of the new arrivals and the extent to which this affected the outcome of the expedition The book offers a reinterpretation of the literature surrounding Burke and Wills using official correspondence expedition journals and diaries visual art and archaeological and linguistic research and then complements this with references to Aboriginal oral histories and social memory It highlights the interaction of expedition members with Aboriginal people and their subsequent contribution to Aboriginal studies The book also considers contemporary and multi disciplinary critiques that the expedition members were on the whole deficient in bush craft especially in light of the expedition s failure to use Aboriginal guides in any systematic way Generously illustrated with historical photographs and line drawings The Aboriginal Story of Burke and Wills is an important resource for Indigenous people Burke and Wills history enthusiasts and the wider community This book is the outcome of an Australian Research Council project
