Empty And Full The Language Of Chinese Painting:

Empty and Full François Cheng, 1994 Chinese painting might be called philosophy in action for it is one of the highest expressions of Chinese spirituality Both a medium for contemplation leading to self transcendence and a microcosm embodying universal principles and primal forces it is a means for making manifest the Chinese worldview At the heart of this worldview is the notion of emptiness the dynamic principle of transformation Only through emptiness can things attain their full measure and human beings approach the universe at the level of totality Focusing on the principle of emptiness François Cheng uses semiotic analysis and textual explication to reveal the key themes and structures of Chinese aesthetics in the practice of pictorial art Among the many Chinese writers poets and artists whose writings are quoted he gives special emphasis to a great Ching dynasty theoretician and painter Shih t ao Twenty seven reproductions of the words of Shih t ao and other masters illustrate the interpretive commentary

East Asian Aesthetics and the Space of Painting in Eighteenth-Century Europe Isabelle Tillerot, 2024-01-02 An insightful look at how East Asian notions of space transformed Western painting This volume offers the first critical account of how European imports of East Asian textiles porcelain and lacquers along with newly published descriptions of the Chinese garden inspired a revolution in the role of painting in early modern Europe With particular focus on French interiors Isabelle Tillerot reveals how a European enthusiasm for East Asian culture and a demand for novelty transformed the dynamic between painting and decor Models of space landscape and horizon as shown in Chinese and Japanese objects and their ornamentation disrupted prevailing design concepts in Europe With paintings no longer functioning as pictorial windows they began to be viewed as discrete images displayed on a wall and with that their status changed from decorative device to autonomous work of art This study presents a detailed history of this transformation revealing how an aesthetic free from the constraints of symmetry and geometrized order upended paradigms of display enabling European painting to come into its own      A Comparative Study of Female-Themed Art Films from China and Germany Ning Xu, 2017-01-17 This book explores female themed art films from China and Germany and seeks to illustrate how the cultural difference between the ways of representing women and narrating women's themes is shown in both countries' films by means of analyzing two film elements: mise en scene and cinematography. This book analyzes female themed art films in five topics: Marriage and Love, Birth and Motherhood, Professional Women and Housewives, Death and Despair, and Dreams and Destiny      Emptiness and Fullness Susanne Bregnbæk, Mikkel Bunkenborg, 2017-07-01 As critical voices question the quality, authenticity, and value of people, goods, and words in post-Mao China, accusations of emptiness render things open to new investments of meaning, substance, and value. Exploring the production of lack and desire through fine-grained ethnography, this volume examines how diagnoses of emptiness operate in a range of very different domains in contemporary China. In the ostensibly meritocratic exam system and the rhetoric of officials in underground churches, housing bubbles, and nationalist fantasies in bodies possessed by spirits, and evaluations of jade, there is a pervasive concern with states of lack and emptiness, and the contributions suggest that this play of emptiness and fullness is crucial to ongoing constructions of quality, value, and subjectivity in China      The Turn to Provisionality in Contemporary Art Raphael Rubinstein, 2023-01-12 In his influential essay 'Provisional Painting,' Raphael Rubinstein applied the term 'provisional' to contemporary painters whose work looked intentionally casual, dashed off, tentative, unfinished, or self-cancelling, who appeared to have deliberately turned away from strong painting for something that seemed to constantly risk failure or inconsequence. In this collection of essays, Rubinstein expands the scope of his original article by surveying the historical and philosophical underpinnings of provisionality in recent visual art, as well as examining the works of individual artists in detail. He also engages crucial texts by Samuel Beckett and philosopher Gianni Vattimo. Re-examining several decades of painting practices, Rubinstein argues that provisionality in all its many forms has been both a foundational element in the history of modern art and the encapsulation of an attitude that is profoundly contemporary.

Chinese-German Female-Themed Art Film Culture in the Context of Globalization Ning Xu, 2022-08-01 In the context of globalization, this book explores female-themed art films from China and Germany in order to seek and illustrate how the cultural difference between the ways of representing women and narrating women's themes is shown in the films of both countries      Agnes Martin - Transcultural Translations Mona Schieren, 2025-02-27 The work of Agnes Martin has frequently been associated with East Asian philosophies. Particularly highlighting the oeuvre of this US artist, Mona Schieren presents comprehensive research on the influence of Asianist aesthetics in post-1945 American art. More than just historical analysis, her study opens an entirely new perspective on Martin's appropriation of Asianisms by focusing on transcultural translation and redefining Martin's work beyond Abstract Expressionism and Minimalism. This offers new viewpoints on the aesthetic, philosophical, and visual relationships in American postwar art and takes a nuanced approach that moves beyond generalized notions of Zen in the US art world Schieren's exploration of the intentional and specific uses of Asianist aesthetics profoundly contributes to insights in international art histories and cultural translations

Cross-Cultural Issues in Art Steven Leuthold, 2010-12-16 Cross Cultural Issues in Art provides an engaging introduction to aesthetic concepts expanding the discussion beyond the usual Western theorists and Western examples Steven Leuthold discusses both contemporary and historical issues and examples incorporating a range of detailed case studies from African Asian European Latin American Middle Eastern and Native American art Individual chapters address broad intercultural issues in art including Art and Culture Primitivism and Otherness Colonialism Nationalism Art and Religion Symbolism and Interpretation Style and Ethnicity A Sense of Place Art and Social Order Gender and the Self considering these themes as constructs that frame our understanding of art Cross Cultural Issues in Art draws upon ideas and case studies from cultural and critical studies art history ethno aesthetics and area studies visual anthropology and philosophy and will be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in these fields

Poetry-Painting Affinity as Intersemiotic Translation Chengzhi Jiang, 2020-04-16 This book interprets the close intimacy between poetry and painting from the perspective of intersemiotic translation by providing a systematic examination of the bilingual and visual representation of landscape in the poetry of Wang Wei a high Tang poet who won worldwide reputation The author's subtle analysis ranges from epistemological issues of language philosophy and poetry translation to the very depths where the later Heidegger and Tao oriented Chinese wisdom can co work to reveal their ontological inter rootedness through a two level cognitive stylistic research methodology

Severo Sarduy and the Neo-Baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts Rolando Pérez, 2011-11-15 Severo Sarduy never enjoyed the same level of notoriety as did other Latin American writers like García Márquez and Vargas Llosa and his compatriot Cabrera Infante On the other hand he never lacked for excellent critical interpretations of his work from critics like Roberto González Echevarría René Prieto Gustavo Guerrero and other reputable scholars Missing however from what is otherwise an impressive body of critical commentary is a study of the importance of painting and architecture firstly to his theory and secondly to his creative work In order to fill this lacuna in Sarduy studies Rolando Pérez's book undertakes a critical approach to Sarduy's essays Barroco Escrito sobre un cuerpo Barroco y neobarroco and La simulación from the standpoint of art history Often overlooked in Sarduy studies is the fact that the twenty three year old Sarduy left Cuba for Paris in 1961 to study not literature but art history earning the equivalent of a Master's Degree from the cole du Louvre with a thesis on Roman art And yet it was the art of the Italian Renaissance e.g. the paintings as well as the brilliant and numerous treatises on linear perspective produced from the 15th to the 16th century and what Sarduy called the Italian Spanish and colonial Baroque or neo baroque visually based aesthetic that interested him and to which he dedicated so many pages In short no book on Sarduy until now has traced the multifaceted art historical background that informed the work of this challenging and exciting writer And though Severo Sarduy and the Neo Baroque Image of Thought in the Visual Arts is far from being an introduction it will be a book that many a critic of Sarduy and the Latin American baroque will consult in years to come

The Achievement of Genius Lawrence F. Allen, 2022-12-18 Who are the men and women drawn from all civilizations and historical epochs that have made the most original and long lasting contributions to human progress How can we in concise and human terms delineate the various achievements of the most important religious founders philosophers artists prophets scientists mathematicians leaders and architects A fitting pursuit for these distracting and confusing times would be a careful examination of the geniuses whose achievements are so original and creative that they are woven into the very fabric of our civilization The goal of this book is not merely a study of the past It also raises questions about the goal of human life and its amazing creative potentialities If these achievements of ancient or recent times were possible in the conditions of isolation and hostility by the surrounding world what even greater achievements are possible in the future Is there something in these geniuses' lives and works that we can apply to our present dilemmas It's certainly worth a closer look at the greatest geniuses in all of history

Perspectives on Garden Histories Michel Conan,1999 Garden history is a discipline of contested purposes

Perspectives on Garden Histories contributes to a self critical examination of this emergent field of study at the same time offering an overview of its main achievements in several domains such as Italian and Mughal gardens and of the new kinds of investigation to which they have led In its early years garden history centered on architectural studies of garden design but in the 1960s the emphasis shifted from garden design to garden meaning The new paradigm considered gardens as complex works of art and demanded an extensive documentation of the historical context as well as of the figurative and discursive sources This approach in its turn was challenged by neo Marxist scholars who proceeded to view landscape appreciation as an ideological superstructure an outgrowth of agricultural production processes Garden designs and their histories can also be viewed as expressions of ideological conflicts in society Neither gardens nor their history can thus be studied independently of the social cultural and political movements that give prominence to the contested ideologies Gardens can be used to foster some ideologies or reflect a reaction against a social change Comparative research offers another fascinating approach exploring the relations between European landscape concepts and other cultural contexts and discussing issues of cultural dominance and interpretation The emergence of various perspectives has led to the incorporation of further questions into the domain of garden studies which has been moving in new directions and using new methods in search of an adapted theoretical framework This volume offers a striking view of changes taking place in the discipline Journeys Into

Emptiness Robert Jingen Gunn,2000 Journeys into Emptiness traces the lives of three famous religious seekers and their quests for personal transcendence Dogen a thirteenth century Japanese Zen master experienced emptiness in wordless meditation the practice of zazen that spread in time from the Eastern world to the West Thomas Merton was a twentieth century Catholic monk whose experience of personal homelessness brought him to explore the tension that lies between solitude and community Carl Jung raised by a pious father and a psychologically unbalanced mother was driven to understand the structure of the psyche including the male and female elements that exist in every human person Robert Jingen Guinn provides wise and compassionate portraits of these emblematic figures Each of them in his own way had to experience emptiness going beyond consciousness to discover his own personal truth whether that was rooted in Buddha nature God or the unconscious This going beyond became a path to encountering their own unique selves and a deeper sense of life BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Sense of

Emptiness Pernilla Hallonsten,Marina Shchepetunina,Junichi Toyota,2011-12-08 Human perception is often believed to function holistically especially in the tradition of Gestalt psychology involving a focused item and its surrounding This holistic approach can allow us to explain something that is not directly experienced in our perception meaning that the absence as well as the presence of something can have a significant impact on how we perceive the world The way we perceive the presence is more or less the same cross culturally but the prominence of the absence or what is termed emptiness in this volume varies considerably from one culture to another The aim of this volume is to identify what emptiness is like and how different cultures incorporate this concept from various perspectives It turns out that emptiness plays a key role in identifying socio cultural diversity in a broader sense including arts and languages This volume consists of contributions from different fields covering a wide range of topics such as history literary studies mythology film studies architecture linguistics social anthropology ethnology and cognitive science Due to the range covered in this volume studies presented here are highly interdisciplinary but all chapters deal with the sense of emptiness which suggest that the underlying idea of the significance of emptiness is pervasive Yet this topic has not previously been systematically compared across different disciplines It is hoped that this volume will offer a first overview of the pervasiveness and integration of disciplines concerning the sense of emptiness

Embodying Data Qi Li, 2020-06-19 This book investigates a new interactive data visualisation concept that employs traditional Chinese aesthetics as a basis for exploring contemporary digital technological contexts It outlines the aesthetic approach which draws on non Western aesthetic concepts specifically the Yijing and Taoist cosmological principles and discusses the development of data based digital practices within a theoretical framework that combines traditional Taoist ideas with the digital humanities The book also offers a critique of the Western aesthetics underpinning data visualisation in particular the Kantian sublime which prioritises the experience of power over the natural world viewed at a distance Taoist philosophy in contrast highlights the integration of the surface of the body and the surface of nature as a

Taoist body rather than promoting an opposition of mind and body The book then explores the transformational potential between the human body and technology particularly in creating an aesthetic approach spanning traditional Chinese aesthetics and gesture based technology Representing a valuable contribution to the digital humanities the book helps readers understand data based artistic practices while also bringing the ideas of traditional Chinese aesthetics to Western audiences In addition it will be of interest to practitioners in the fields of digital art and data visualisation seeking new models
