A History of Optical Telescopes in Astronomy Wilson Wall, 2018-10-01 This book is uniquely about the relationship between the optical telescope and astronomy as they developed together It covers the time between the telescope's pivotal invention in the 1600s up to the modern era of space based telescopes Over the intervening centuries there were huge improvements in the optical resolution of telescopes along with changes in their positioning and nature of application that forever altered the course of astronomy For a long time the field was an exclusive club for self motivated stargazers who could afford to build their own telescopes Many of these leisure time scholars left their mark by virtue of their meticulous observations and record keeping Although they would now be considered amateurs these figures and their contributions were pivotal and are covered in this book alongside professionals for the first time giving a complete picture of the history of telescopic science

Local Clusters in Global Value Chains Valentina De Marchi, Eleonora Di Maria, Gary Gereffi, 2017-07-28 The international fragmentation of economic activities from research and design to production and marketing described through the lens of the global value chain GVC approach impacts the structure and performance of small and medium sized enterprises SMEs agglomerated in economic clusters The consolidation of GVCs ruled by global lead firms and the recession of 2008 09 exacerbated the pressures on cluster actors that based their competitive advantage on local systems spurring an increasing heterogeneity both across and within clusters that is still overlooked in the literature Drawing on detailed studies of different industries and countries Local Clusters in Global Value Chains shows the co evolutionary trajectories of clusters and GVCs and the role of firms and their strategies in organizing manufacturing and innovation activities in the context of ongoing technological shifts The book explores the tension between place based variables and global drivers of change and the possibility for territories containing such clusters to prosper in the new global scenario By adopting insights from the GVC framework and management studies the book discusses how the internationalization strategies of firms create opportunities as well as constraints for adaptive upgrading in clusters This book is of interest to both researchers and policy makers who are interested in the dynamic sources of competitive advantage in the global economy

Harper's Bazaar, Making a Spectacle Jessica Glasscock, 2021-10-26 From 13th century Franciscan monks to Beyonc in Black is King Making a Spectacle charts the fascinating ascension of eyeglasses from an unsightly but useful tool to fashion's must have accessory The power of glasses to convey a range of vivid messages about their wearers have made them into a billion dollar business that appeals to cool kids and rock stars and those who want to be like them but the fashionable history of eyeglasses is fraught with anxiety and drama At the beginning of the 20th century the assessment in Vogue and Harper's Bazaar was that spectacles were invariably disfiguring Invisibility was the best option and glasses were only to be put on once the lights at the opera went dark While variations of that glasses shaming sentiment appeared at regular intervals over the next 100 years or so eyeglasses continued to evolve into an endless array of shapes colors purposes and personalities Once sunglasses took off in the 1930s the magazine editorial made glasses a conspicuous part of the fashion narrative Eyeglasses went to the ski slopes the stables the beach the Havana hotel Plastic innovations made a candy colored rainbow of cat eyes and starlet styles possible Suddenly everyone had the opportunity to look like Jackie O on vacation in Capri Making a Spectacle traces contemporary high fashion frames back to their origins the military aviator the glam cat eye the nerdy Oxford the high tech shield the fanciful butterfly the lowly rimless and other styles all make an appearance Featuring interviews with influential designers makers and purveyors of glasses including Adam Selman

Kerin Rose Gold and I a Eyeworks Making a Spectacle also takes a look at today s most cutting edge eyewear showing the reader the latest and most innovative ways to see and be seen Fine Dining, Hotels & Spas of Southern Africa ,2003
