Ezra Pound Reads Selected Cantos And Others:

The Cantos of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, 1996 The Cantos of Ezra Pound is the most important epic poem of the twentieth century      Approaches to Teaching Pound's Poetry and Prose Demetres P. Tryphonopoulos, Ira B. Nadel, 2021-04-05 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching works by Ezra Pound including his prosody his references to classical and Asian traditions and his role in modernism as well as his fascism anti-Semitism and other problematic beliefs Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate literature courses including many online resources      Selected Cantos Ezra Pound, 1987      The Cambridge Companion to Ezra Pound Ira B. Nadel, 1999-02-11 This Companion contains fifteen chapters by leading international scholars who together reflect diverse but complementary approaches to the study of Ezra Pound's poetry and prose They consider the poetics foreign influences economics politics and publication history of Pound's entire corpus and reveal his importance in developing some of the key movements in twentieth century poetry The book also situates Pound's work in the context of Modernism illustrating his influence on contemporaries like T S Eliot and James Joyce Taken together the chapters offer a sustained examination of one of the most versatile influential and certainly controversial poets of the modern period      The Dance of the Intellect Marjorie Perloff, 1996 Must poetic form be as Yeats demanded full sphere like single or can it accommodate the impurities Yeats and his Modernist generation found so problematic Sixty years later these are still open questions questions to which Marjorie Perloff addresses herself in the essays collected here The first group of essays deals with Pound's own poetics as that poetics related to two of his great contemporaries Stevens and Joyce as well as to the visual arts of his day The second group deals with the more technical aspects of verse and prose In the last four essays Perloff takes up broader issues including the current pessimism about the state of poetry and the work of experimental poets and conceptual poets      Boxing Kasia Boddy, 2008-05-15 Boxing is one of the oldest and most exciting of sports its bruising and bloody confrontations have permeated Western culture since 3000 BC During that period there has hardly been a time in which young men and sometimes women did not raise their gloved or naked fists to one other Throughout this history potters sculptors painters poets novelists cartoonists song writers photographers and film makers have been there to record and make sense of it all In her encyclopaedic investigation Kasia Boddy sheds new light on an elemental sports and struggle for dominance whose weapons are nothing more than fists Boddy examines the shifting social political and cultural resonances of this most visceral of sports and shows how from Daniel Mendoza to Mike Tyson boxers have embodied and enacted our anxieties about race ethnicity gender and sexuality Looking afresh at everything from neoclassical sculpture to hip hop lyrics Boxing explores the way in which the history of boxing has intersected with the history of mass media from cinema to radio to pay per view The book also offers an intriguing new perspective on the work of such diverse figures as Henry Fielding Spike Lee Charlie Chaplin Philip Roth James Joyce Mae West Bertolt Brecht and Charles Dickens An all encompassing study Boxing ultimately reveals to us just how and why boxing has mattered so much to so many      Poetry as Re-Reading Ming-Qian Ma, 2008-08-20 Grounded in a detailed and compelling account of the philosophy guiding such a project Ma's book traces a continuity of thought and practice through the very different poetic work of objectivists Louis Zukofsky George Oppen Carl Rakosi and John Cage and language poets Susan Howe Lyn Hejinian Bruce Andrews and Charles Bernstein His deft individual readings provide an opening into this notoriously difficult work even as his larger critique reveals a new and clarifying perspective on American modernist and post modernist avant garde poetics Ma shows how we cannot understand these poets according to the usual way of reading but must see how they deliberately use redundancy unpredictability and irrationality to undermine the meaning oriented foundations of American modernism and to force a new and different kind of reading Pub desc      Money and Modernity Alec Marsh, 2011-09-23 Marsh locates Pound and Williams firmly in the Jeffersonian tradition and examines their epic poems as manifestations of a Jeffersonian ideology in modernist terms The modernist poets William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound were latter day Jeffersonians whose politics and poetry were strongly marked by the populism of the late 19th century They were sharply aware of the social contradictions of modernization and were committed to a highly politicized often polemical poetry that criticized finance capitalism and its institutions notably banks in the strongest terms Providing a history of the aesthetics of Jeffersonianism and its collision with modernism in the works of Pound and Williams Alec Marsh traces the money question from the republican period through the 1940s Marsh can thus read two modernist epics Pound's Cantos and Williams's Paterson as the poets hoped they would be read as attempts to break the hold of false financial values on the American imagination Marsh argues that Pound's and Williams's similar Jeffersonian outlooks were the direct result of the political battles of the 1890s concerning the meaning of money Although Pound's interest in money and economics is well known few people are aware that both poets were active in the Social Credit monetary reform movement of the 1930s and 1940s a movement shown by Marsh to have direct links to Jeffersonianism via American populism Ultimately the two poets took divergent paths with Pound swerving toward Italian fascism as exemplified in his Jefferson and or Mussolini and Williams becoming deeply influenced by the American pragmatism of John Dewey Thus Marsh concludes Pound embraced the fascist version of state capitalism whereas his old friend proclaimed a pragmatic openness to the new selves engendered by corporate capitalism Money and Modernity exemplifies the best of recent literary criticism in its incorporation of American studies and cultural studies approaches to bring new insight to modern masterworks      Comparative Literature for the New Century Giulia De Gasperi, Joseph Pivato, 2018-09-30 Since its beginning Comparative Literature has been characterized as a discipline in crisis But its shifting boundaries are its strength allowing for collaboration and growth and illuminating a path forward In Comparative Literature for the New Century a diverse group of scholars argue for a distinct North American approach to literary studies that includes the promotion of different languages Chapters by senior scholars such as George Elliott Clarke E D Blodgett and Sneja Gunew are placed in dialogue with those by younger scholars including

Ezra Pound: Poet A. David Moody,2015-09-24 This third and final volume of A David Moody s critical life of Ezra Pound presents Pound s personal tragedy in a tragic time In this volume we experience the 1939 1945 World War and Pound s hubristic involvement in Fascist Italy s part in it we encounter the grave moral and intellectual error of Pound holding the Jewish race responsible for the war and his consequent downfall being charged with treason condemned as an anti Semite and shut up for twelve years in an institution for the insane Further we see Pound stripped for life by his own counsel and wife of his civil and human rights Pound endured what was inflicted upon him justly and unjustly without complaint and continued his lifetime s effort to promote in and through his Cantos and his translations a consciousness of a possible humane and just social order The contradictions run deep and compel as tragedy does a steady and unprejudiced contemplation and an answering depth of comprehension The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1980 Reading

Literature After Deconstruction , We'll to the Woods No More Edouard Dujardin,1990 A delightful period piece of Paris in the late 1880 s We ll to the Woods No More Les lauriers sont coup s retains its importance as the first use of the monologue int rieur and the inspiration for the stream of consciousness technique perfected by James Joyce Dujardin s charming tale told with insight and irony recounts what goes on in the mind of a young man about town in love with a Parisian actress Mallarm described the poetry of the telling as the instant seized by the throat Originally published in France in 1887 the first English translation by Joyce scholar Stuart Gilbert was published by New Directions in 1938 In 1957 Leon Edel s perceptive historical essay reintroduced the book as the rare and beautiful case of a minor work which launched a major movement A Door in the Hive Denise Levertov,1989 In her sixteenth collection of new poetry from New Directions Denise Levertov displays what The Village Voice has called all her virtues of musicality mystery and directness A Door in the Hive addresses paintings music landscapes terror in El Salvador but the emphasis again as in her recent Breathing the Water is on the contemplative Her dialogue between the eager inward gaze and the vast enigma deepens Meditative the poems are at the same time informed by a keenly felt urgency Extremities we are in unacknowledged extremis We feel only a chill as the pulse of life recedes Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog Dylan Thomas,2012-04-01 Few writers have evoked as successfully the mysteries and adventures of boyhood of young love with its shattered dreams or of death haunting two lads at play none has done it in as fresh and telling phrases with an elation as natural and contagious The Young Dog of the title is of course Thomas himself and this volume of autobiographical stories by the great modern poet who died at 39 while on his third lecture tour in the United States shows his waggish humor at its best his exuberance and verbal magic in spectacular display It also shows him a spinner of tales and a creator of memorable characters There is the grandfather who marches off in his best clothes to be buried in the next town the sardonic senior reporter on a provincial newspaper servant girls who know how to deal triumphantly with a fast talking dandy a twenty year old farmer preaching wildly to boys in a deserted barn a group of respectable worthies who play at literature behind closed blinds and always the observant and unfazed young Thomas

The Notebook of Trigorin Tennessee Williams, 1915-10-17 Tennessee Williams freely adapts Anton Chekhov's Russian classic The Seagull From the master twentieth century playwright Tennessee Williams an adaptation of Chekhov's The Sea Gull never before available to the general trade The Notebook of Trigorin is faithful to Chekhov's story of longing and unrequited love Set on a provincial Russian Estate its peaceful environs offer stark contrast to the turbulent lives of its characters Constantine a young writer must compete for the attention of his mother a self obsessed often comical aging actress Madame Arkadina and his romantic ideal Nina His rival for both women is Trigorin an established author bound to Arkadina by her patronage of his work and attracted to Nina by her beauty Trigorin cannot keep himself from consuming everything of value in Constantine's life Only in the final scenes do all discover that the price for love and fragility can be horribly high But if the words in The Notebook of Trigorin are essentially Chekhov's the voice belongs firmly to Tennessee Williams The dialogue resonates with echoes of the themes Williams developed as his signature's compassion for the artistic soul and its vulnerability in the face of the world's successfully practiced duplicity Act I

That Dada Strain Jerome Rothenberg, 1983 The title of Jerome Rothenberg's newest collection suggests jazz blues and above all the Dada movement in European art and poetry in the years immediately following World War I In my own world he explains in his pre face to That Dada Strain the Dada fathers who inhabit the opening poems of this book are necessary figures to summon them up along with their legends is no more erudite than to summon up Moses or George Washington or Harpo or Karl Marx so on For Rothenberg the Dada connection his looking back to Dada founders Tristan Tzara Hugo Ball Kurt Schwitters and Francis Picabia is especially apt emphasizing as it does a strain that is echoed and replayed throughout all his work whether it be oral poetry ethnopoetics translation or the assembling of innovative anthologies Following the title section is Imaginal Geographies a group of poems that draw largely on the poet's private self his own language and perceptions in much the same way that the Dada poets recorded associations between images for which no key was readily available In the third and final section Altar Pieces Rothenberg attempts as he says to return to the world in which human beings still suffer both the loss of bread words Jerome Rothenberg's previous books of poetry with New Directions include Poland 1931 Poems for the Game of Silence 1975 A Seneca Journal 1978 and most recently Vienna Blood 1980 Pre Faces Other Writings his first collection of poetics was awarded the Before
