College Library Collection Frank J. Bertalan,1968      Ezra Pound and 'Globe' Magazine: The Complete

Correspondence Ezra Pound,2015-11-19 In the summer of 1936 Ezra Pound agreed to take on the role of European Correspondent for a newly launched travel journal entitled Globe The International Magazine Ezra Pound and Globe

Magazine The Complete Correspondence collects for the first time Pound's writings for the journal and his extensive correspondence with one of its editors James Taylor Dunn and the leading writers who Pound himself attempted to recruit for the magazine. Numbering almost forty letters and twenty published and unpublished articles, these writings represent a darkly significant time in Pound's thought as his infatuation with the rise of fascism took root. Annotated throughout and supported by substantial explorations of the historical and cultural contexts of the writings, the book also includes a substantial bibliography of related writings and a biographical glossary of the major figures discussed in the correspondence and writing. Together, these texts represent an important resource for anyone interested in an important phase of 20th Century literary modernism.

Modern Poetics and Hemispheric American Cultural Studies J. Read, 2009-07-20 As the world becomes increasingly globalized, the integration of cultures within nations has become more and more relevant. Read takes a poetic approach to the concept of cultural conflict within nations and adds a new perspective that has rarely been seen in debate.
