Fabulous Opal Whiteley Elbert Bede, 2013-09 Fabulous Opal Whiteley Elbert Bede, 1954 Playing House in the American West Cathryn Halverson, 2013-11-26 Examines an eclectic group of western women's autobiographical texts canonical and otherwise Playing House in the American West argues for a distinct regional literary tradition characterized by strategic representations of unconventional domestic life The controlling metaphor Cathryn Halverson uses in her engrossing study is playing house From Caroline Kirkland and Laura Ingalls Wilder to Willa Cather and Marilynne Robinson from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries western authors have persistently embraced wayward or eccentric housekeeping to prove a woman's difference from western neighbors and eastern readers alike The readings in Playing House investigate the surprising textual ends to which westerners turn the familiar terrain of the home evaluating community arguing for different conceptions of race and class and perhaps most especially resisting traditional gender roles Western women writers Halverson argues render the home as a stage for autonomy resistance and imagination rather than as a site of sacrifice and obligation The western women examined in Playing House in the American West are promoted and read as representatives of a region as insiders offering views of distant and intriguing ways of life even as they conceive of themselves as outsiders By playing with domestic conventions they recast the region they describe portraying the West as a place that fosters female agency individuality and subjectivity Loners Dr Sula Wolff, Sula Wolff, 2020-07-24 Some children seem different detached disinterested in the games of other children They prefer their hobbies to friends of their own age and if forced into community activities as they often are at school can become aggressive and difficult In Loners Sula Wolff describes a childhood personality syndrome that has frequently been neglected Often using children's own words their lives and problems become real as she unwraps their stories from first referral to adulthood Some have become talented and successful adults whilst others are less fortunate in later years Carefully documented and meticulously researched this study makes compelling reading The Child Writer from Austen to Woolf Christine Alexander, Juliet McMaster, 2005-06-16 A collection of essays on the juvenilia of famous authors including Austen the Brontës George Eliot and Virginia Woolf

Maverick Autobiographies Cathryn Halverson, 2004 Halverson examines why and brings their texts back to light through a weaving of biography literary analysis and cultural history in the process urging us to reformulate our notions of what it means to be a western writer Halverson's discoveries will appeal to scholars and critics of Western American literature and women's studies BOOK JACKET Remarkable Oregon Women Jennifer Chambers, 2015-11-30 Without the efforts of inspiring brave women of the past the progressive and individualistic Oregon we know today might not exist From native tribes and Oregon Trail pioneers to Victorian suffragists and unlikely politicians strong female leaders give profound meaning to the state motto alis volat propriis she flies with her own wings Writer and activist Julia Ruuttila fought for the rights of the citizens of Vanport the largely African American town lost to a disastrous flood in 1948 Others broke stereotypes to serve their communities like women who helped build ships during World War II and the nation's first female police officer Portland's own Lola Baldwin Similarly Laura Stockton Starcher unseated her husband as mayor of Umatilla Author Jennifer Chambers tells these and many more stories of progressive radical women who fought for change within their state Bunk Kevin Young, 2017-11-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction There Kevin Young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want Unexpectedly essential Marlon James Award winning poet and critic Kevin Young tours us through a rogue's gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of P T Barnum and Edgar Allan Poe to the unrepentant bunk of JT LeRoy and Donald J Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art Play of Colors Germaine Cross, 2005-08 In 1897 a baby girl was born to a poor lumberjack and his wife She was named Opal Whiteley In 1920 she wrote a book alleging she was the victim of an orchestrated kidnapping In 1923 the media frenzy forced her to flee the country In 1992 she was buried in London England under two different names What unraveled in between is a true story filled with intrigue tragedy and a shocking conclusion The Arizona Quarterly, 1995 Women's Experience of Modernity, 1875-1945 Ann L. Ardis, Leslie W. Lewis, 2003-05-22 A collection of essays on women's history and literary production at the turn of the twentieth century that centers the feminine phenomena Analyzing such cultural practices as selling and shopping political and social activism urban field work and rural labor radical discourses on feminine sexuality and literary and artistic experimentation this volume contributes to the rich vein of current feminist scholarship on the gender of modernism and challenges the assumption that modernism rose naturally or inevitably to the forefront of the cultural landscape at the turn of the twentieth century During this period women's experience was a rallying cry for feminists a unifying cause that allowed women to work together to effect social change and make claims for women's rights However it also proved to be a source of great divisiveness among women for claims about its universality quickly unraveled to reveal the classism racism and Eurocentrism of various feminist activities and organizations The essays in this volume examine both literary and non literary writings of Jane Addams Djuna

Barnes Toru Dutt Radclyffe Hall H D Pauline Hopkins Emma Dunham Kelley Amy Levy Alice Meynell Bram Stoker Ida B Wells Rebecca West and others Instead of focusing exclusively or even centrally on modernism and literature these essays address a broad array of textual materials from political pamphlets to gynecology textbooks as they investigate women s responses to the rise of commodity capitalism middle class women s entrance into the labor force the welfare state s invasion of the working class home and the intensified eroticization of racial and class differences Catalog of Copyright Entries.
