Nation Bob Schieffer, 2014-05-03 In this engaging memoir of television news and its unique place in history New York Times bestselling author and Face the Nation anchor Bob Schieffer takes us behind the scenes of the Sunday morning institution that has provided a window on the most memorable events of the last half century With his critically acclaimed memoir This Just In Schieffer proved himself a natural storyteller a gifted writer able to capture the workings of television news with remarkable wit and insight Now Schieffer focuses his keen reporter's eye on 50 years of Face the Nation's live broadcasts and the historic moments the program has captured From its 1954 debut an interview with Senator Joe McCarthy the day before the Senate debate that would condemn him to the broadcast's 1957 groundbreaking interview with a candid and controversial Nikita Khrushchev from the brilliant analysis of communism made by guest Martin Luther King Jr to the sometimes stunning always revealing interviews with each sitting president from the heroic and moving coverage of the terrorist attacks of September 11 to the revolutionary coverage of the war in Iraq Schieffer shares unforgettable anecdotes about the guests the stories and the events captured by the venerable public affairs program Marked by the author's candid personal observations and wise good humor and featuring a special companion DVD of broadcast highlights created by CBS News for this edition Bob Schieffer's look at 50 years of Face the Nation shines an entertaining and nostalgic light on America's presidents culture foreign policy and domestic affairs Death of the Senate Ben Nelson, 2021-09 Something is rotten in the U S Senate and the disease has been spreading for some time But Ben Nelson former U S senator from Nebraska is not going to let the institution destroy itself without a fight Death of the Senate is a clear-eyed look inside the Senate chamber and a brutally honest account of the current political reality In his two terms as a Democratic senator from the red state of Nebraska Nelson positioned himself as a moderate broker between his more liberal and conservative colleagues and became a frontline player in the most consequential fights of the Bush and Obama years His trusted centrist position gave him a unique perch from which to participate in some of the last great rounds of bipartisan cooperation such as the Gang of 14 that considered nominees for the federal bench and passed over a young lawyer named Brett Kavanaugh for being too partisan Nelson learned early on that the key to any negotiation at any level is genuine trust With humor insight and firsthand details Nelson makes the case that the heart of the deal is critical and describes how he focused on this during his time in the Senate As seen through the eyes of a centrist senator from the Great Plains Nelson shows how and why the spirit of bipartisanship declined and offers solutions that can restore the Senate to one of the world's most important legislative bodies
