Gaia Connections Alan S. Miller, 2003 Gaia Connections addresses several arenas of concern as humankind faces an escalating ecological and moral crisis in this new millennium Beginning with an overview of the history of philosophy and the importance of traditional thinking on modern day ethical reflection the book then looks at the development of theories of justice the problems of equity in global human relations the inability of existing economic systems to resolve our human and environmental dilemmas the unnatural connections now obtaining between genuine human need and the technological drift of science the new genetics and reproductive technologies and the nature of modern war The study concludes with some historical perspectives on American environmental history and the urgent need for change in our ecoethical social and value systems The principal focal areas of the original edition are continued the actual state of the global environment today the imperative for the development of sustainable economic and resource systems the movement within much of science toward an almost universal biological determinism and the need for a reaffirmation of an ethical value system which places the needs of people before the needs of property and profits The revised edition not only updates these data and the concerns of the original book but also visits a number of new issues the movement for environmental justice the connections between global poverty and the now almost universal allegiance to a new world market and free trade system the progress and the dilemmas of molecular biology and genetic engineering and the growing disarray within the global systems of political economy The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 Ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the books essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part I will explore Text book for Environmental science and Ecology Dr. Shaikh Ahmad, 2019-02-06 This book is for anyone with an interest in Environmental Science who wants to learn more outside of a formal classroom setting It can also be used by home schooled students tutored students and those people wishing to change careers The material is presented in an easy to follow way World

Christianity and Ecological Theologies Raimundo C. Barreto, Graham McGeoch, Wanderley Pereira da Rosa, 2024-10-22 World Christianity and Ecological Theologies invites scholars in religious studies and theology from different continents and contexts to a North South dialogue on environmental ethics political ecology and ecofeminism Throughout the global pandemic the connection between environmental rapacity religion and political interests has once again called scholarly attention to the important conversation on public religion and global environment related issues Acknowledging a deficit among scholars of World Christianity in addressing environmental concerns and the field's limited language for framing those concerns this book aims to bring the fields of study of World Christianity religion and ecology into a sustained conversation with the goal of expanding the theoretical horizons of these fields World Christianity and Ecological Theologies reiterates that all Christian theologies are contextual as they shape and are shaped by specific historical and cultural circumstances It aims at showcasing the ways in which the intersection of religion and ecology is approached by scholars in religious studies and theology in the Global South or by those in conversation with them in the Global North pointing to what can be generated if these bodies of scholarship are engaged as dialogue partners to investigate new patterns of religious environmentalism

Ecology, Engineering, and Management Michel van Eeten, Emery Roe, 2002 This book presents an overview and introduction to adaptive ecosystem management for an audience of environmental policymakers scientists engineers planners and administrators Adaptive management is the process of implementing policy decisions through scientifically driven management experiments These experiments test predictions with policy implications and the results are then used to improve or optimize the policy outcomes Van Eeten and Roe outline the principles and procedures recommended for adaptive ecosystem management and then present an extensive case study and demonstration of the approach through examination of the CALFED Program CALFED covering the San Francisco Bay and Sacramento River Delta is the largest integrative program for ecosystem restoration and management in the US and is an ideal testing ground for case by case resource management across a heterogeneous landscape where population resources and the environment are in conflict

Indigenous Knowledge, Ecology, and Evolutionary Biology Raymond Pierotti, 2010-09-10 Indigenous ways of understanding and interacting with the natural world are characterized as Traditional Ecological Knowledge TEK which derives from emphasizing relationships and connections among species This book examines TEK and its strengths in relation to Western ecological knowledge and evolutionary philosophy Pierotti takes a look at the scientific basis of this approach focusing on different concepts of communities and connections among living entities the importance of understanding the meaning of relatedness in both spiritual and biological creation and a careful comparison with evolutionary ecology The text examines the themes and principles informing this knowledge and offers a look at the complexities of conducting research from an indigenous perspective Human Ecology of Sikkim Kuldip Singh Gulia,2005 A historic view on the human ecology of sikkim the culture and structure of local ecosystems human ecosystems various richness of human ecosystems monasteries and the monastic architecture customs and their eco biological significances spirit possession shamans and Jhakis ethno botany and adaptations A complete guide to the tourist industry policy makers and scholars Animal Ecology Royal Norton Chapman,1926 State of the World 2003 Worldwatch Institute,2010-09-23 This volume takes a look at the trends that have put the global economy on a collision course with the Earth s ecosystems It aims to provide a vital synthesis ranging across a wide spectrum of both the social and natural sciences Published annually in 28 languages each edition draws on the knowledge of the Worldwatch Institute s team of writers and researchers Always the Mountains David Rothenberg,2007-04-01 David Rothenberg is one of our most eloquent observers of the interplay between nature culture and technology These nineteen pieces exemplify what has been called Rothenberg s amiable mix of interests styles and approaches In settings that range from wildest Norway to his own front porch in upstate New York Rothenberg discusses the Hudson River School of painters the hazy provenance of Chief Seattle s famous speech ecoterrorism suburbia the World Wide Web and much more He asks if we can save a place less obtrusively than by turning it into a park He muses on the plight of a pacifist beset by a swarm of mosquitoes He ascends Mt Ventoux with Petrarch and Mt Katahdin with Thoreau In Always the Mountains Rothenberg dares us to enjoy the fundamental uncertainty that grounds human existence to wean ourselves from the habit of simple answers and embrace the world s vastness Embodied Environmental Risk in Technical Communication Samuel Stinson,Mary Le Rouge,2022-03-03 This collection calls for improved technical communication for the public through an embodied situated understanding of environmental risk that promotes social justice In addition to providing a series of chapters about recent issues on risk communication this volume offers a diverse look at methodological practices for students researchers and practitioners looking to address embodied aspects of crisis and risk that incorporate UX storytelling and dynamic text It includes chapters that bring embodiment to the forefront of risk communication highlighting the cycle of content creation dissemination public response and decision making continuing iterations of educational efforts and recovery toward increasing adaptive capacity as a whole In addition this work directs necessary attention to overcoming perceptual difficulties memory lapses definitional differences access issues and pedagogical problems in the communication of risks to diverse publics This collection is essential reading for scholars and can be used as a supplemental text or casebook for courses in technical communication environmental communication risk and crisis communication science communication and public health Practices in Social Ecological Research Andrea Rawluk, Ruth Beilin, Helena Bender, Rebecca Ford, 2019-11-16 Aimed at those at the forefront of social ecological thinking this book presents a practice oriented process to navigate the complex interdisciplinary challenges of our time The book brings together insights from the social sciences and beyond to introduce readers to adaptive doing a continuous and iterative process of experiential learning that provides an accessible structure and process for integrating a range of knowledge and practices As part of the adaptive doing learning cycle the authors argue for a common platform symbolically called the agora where multiple ways of understanding can be discussed In this space participants can work from practice and narratives toward meaning knowledge formation and practice change The book demonstrates three reframing tools for social ecological practice that provide readers with multiple ways of holistically entering the social ecological domain and expanding their perspectives with a view to changing practice Adaptive doing is presented as a catalyst for a new generation of social ecological research in which participants honour their disciplinary foundations while being ready to collaborate within each new system and each new engagement being able to act now for social ecological recognition and change Education, Cultural Myths, and the Ecological Crisis C. A. Bowers, 1993-01-01 Annotation Bowers education Portland State U examines how the educational process perpetuates cultural myths that contribute to the ecological crisis particularly how thought patterns from the past are reproduced through the metaphorical language used in the classroom He suggests that a more ecologically sustainable ideology is being formulated by such writers as Aldo Leopold and Wendell Berry Paper edition unseen 12 95 Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or Indigenous Knowledges and the Sustainable Development Agenda Anders Breidlid, Roy Krøvel, 2020-04-17 This book discusses the vital importance of including indigenous knowledges in the sustainable development agenda In the wake of colonialism and imperialism dialogue between indigenous knowledges and Western epistemology has broken down time and again However in recent decades the broader indigenous struggle for rights and recognition has led to a better understanding of indigenous knowledges and in 2015 the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs outlined the importance of indigenous engagement in contributing to the implementation of the agenda Drawing on experiences and field work from Africa Asia Latin America and Europe Indigenous Knowledges and the Sustainable Development Agenda brings together authors who explore social educational institutional and ecological sustainability in relation to indigenous knowledges In doing so this book provides a comprehensive understanding of the concept of sustainability at both national and international levels from a range of diverse perspectives As the decolonizing debate gathers pace within mainstream academic discourse this book offers an important contribution to scholars across development studies environmental studies education and political ecology The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Becoming Ecological James G.

Kelly,2006-02-02 Community psychology emphasizes an ecological approach to mental health by focusing on the individual in the environment and the influences that shape and change behavior Becoming Ecological brings together the work of James G Kelly one of the founders of community psychology and among the field's national leaders The volume unites thirteen of Kelly's publications from 1968 to 2002 as well as four new essays on current issues in the field the theory research practice and education of community psychologists Kelly introduces the work by offering connections between his personal experiences and the topics he chose to focus on throughout his long career He begins each of the thirteen essays with commentary that sets the article in its original context so that the reader has a historical perspective on why certain ideas were salient at a particular time and how they are still timely today Kelly concludes with a summing up section integrating the previously published articles with the four new essays Throughout he presents examples of how to plan and carry out research and practice in the community The principles underlying the examples both enhance the relevance of the research and practice and increase the potential of community residents to use the findings for their own purposes A compendium of classic statements of community psychology's philosophical and historical underpinnings Becoming Ecological is a must read for scholars and practitioners of community psychology and for those in the fields of public health social work community development education and applied anthropology

Naturalizing Heidegger David E. Storey,2015-02-10 In Naturalizing Heidegger David E Storey proposes a new interpretation of Heidegger's importance for environmental philosophy finding in the development of his thought from the early 1920s to his later work in the 1940s the groundwork for a naturalistic ontology of life Primarily drawing on Heidegger's engagement with Nietzsche but also on his readings of Aristotle and the biologist Jakob von Uexküll Storey focuses on his critique of the nihilism at the heart of modernity and his conception of the intentionality of organisms and their relation to their environments From these ideas a vision of nature emerges that recognizes the intrinsic value of all living things and their kinship with one another and which anticipates later approaches in the philosophy of nature such as Hans Jonas's phenomenology of life and Evan Thompson's contemporary attempt to naturalize phenomenology

Earthcare Carolyn Merchant,2014-02-04 Written by one of the leading thinkers in environmentalism Earthcare brings together Merchant's existing work on the topic of women and the environment as well as updated and new essays Earthcare looks at age old historical associations of women with nature beginning with Eve and continuing through to environmental activists of today women's commitment to environmental conservation and the problematic assumptions of women as caregivers and men as dominating nature
