Economics of Labor in Industrial Society Clark Kerr, Paul D. Staudohar, 1986 The Economics of Labor in Industrial Society Clark Kerr, Paul D. Staudohar, Labor in Modern Industrial Society Norman Ware, 1935 Studies in the Evolution of Industrial Society Richard Theodore Ely, 1903 The Information Society as Post-industrial Society Yoneji Masuda, 1981 Society to an information Society The Welfare State in Post-Industrial Society Jason L. Powell, Jon Hendricks, 2009-06-10

In recent years major social forces such as ageing populations social trends migration patterns and the globalization of economies have reshaped social welfare policies and practices across the globe Multinational corporations NGOs and other international organizations have begun to influence social policy at a national and local level Among the many ramifications of these changes is that globalizing influences may hinder the ability of individual nation states to effect policies that are beneficial to them on a local level With contributions from thirteen countries worldwide this collected work represents the first major comparative analysis on the effect of globalization on the international welfare state

The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society is divided into two major sections the first draws from a number of leading social welfare researchers from diverse countries who point to the nation state as case studies highlighting how it goes about establishing and revising social welfare provisions The second portion of the volume then moves to a more global perspective in its analysis and questioning of the impact of globalization on citizenship ageing and marketization

The Welfare State in Post Industrial Society seeks to encourage debate about the implications of the most pressing social welfare issues in nation states and integrate analyses of policy and practice in particular countries struggling to provide social welfare support for their needy populations

Labor and Management in Industrial Society Clark Kerr, 1964 Readings in Industrial Society Leon Carroll Marshall, 1918 Industrial Society Leon Carroll Marshall, 1929 Class Formation and Urban Industrial Society Theodore Koditschek, 1990-03-30

This book examines the process by which a capitalist society emerged in Bradford Although Bradford represents an unusual social environment where industrial development began very early and proceeded very fast its history discloses with unusual force and clarity a process that was more gradually transforming the wider society of nineteenth century Britain and that subsequently spread throughout the world A Documentary History of American Industrial Society: Labor movement John Rogers Commons, Ulrich Bonnell Phillips, Eugene Allen Gilmore, Helen Laura Sumner, John Bertram Andrews, 1910 The Culture of an Information Economy Eileen Moore Trauth, 2000-09-30

In this book Eileen Trauth peers inside the day to day work lives of the people who have been bringing about Ireland's transition from a small agricultural country to a healthy information economy It is one of few book length interpretive studies in the information systems field This book links the disciplines of information systems international management economic development history and public policy to tell the story behind the statistics about Ireland's economic development The findings from this ten year study illustrate the range of socio cultural factors which influence the emergence of an information sector Ireland's story contains a message for other nations that this change to a new way of working and living is intimately connected to the cultural context within which it occurs This book reveals the ethnographic approach that was used by taking the reader through the interpretive process as it occurred The Appendix is devoted to additional detail about the methodology Audience This book should be read by PhD students and others who want to learn more about the actual application of ethnographic methods in information systems research It should be read by students researchers teachers and policy makers working in several fields including global information systems the information society management in the knowledge economy and economic development

Economy in Society Michael J. Piore, 2013 Prominent economists discuss internal labor markets the dynamics of immigration labor market regulation and other key topics in the work of Michael J Piore In Economy in Society five prominent social scientists honor Michael J Piore in original essays that explore key topics in Piore's work and make significant independent contributions in their own right Piore is distinctive for his original research that explores the interaction of social political and economic considerations in the labor market and in the economic development of nations and regions The essays in this volume reflect this rigorous interdisciplinary approach to important social and economic questions M Diane Burton's essay extends our understanding of internal labor markets by considering the influence of surrounding firms Natasha Iskander builds on Piore's theory of immigration with a study of Mexican construction workers in two cities Suzanne Berger highlights insights from Piore's work on technology and industrial development Andrew Schrank takes up the theme of regulatory discretion and Charles Sabel discusses theories of public bureaucracy
